

PORTLAND HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY SALEM SATURDAY AFTERNOON

GRANT ELEVEN DATE DECIDED

Efforts to Have Contest Staged Friday or in Morning Prove Unavailing

Grant high school of Portland will play Salem high school here on Sweetland field at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in spite of every effort of Dennis Heenan, athletic manager, to have the game played either Friday or Saturday morning.

Both Coach Hollis Huntington and members of the team were anxious to see the Oregon-OAC annual clash at Corvallis Saturday afternoon and Manager Heenan made a special trip to Portland to learn if arrangements could not be made so that the two games would not conflict. Under existing school conditions, the Grant eleven is not permitted to play on Friday and neither the team nor the coach were anxious to get up early Saturday morning in order to finish the game in time for the big state contest at Corvallis.

Little is known about Grant, other than early in the season six players were found to be ineligible and the entire team was reorganized. It is understood here that they depend a great deal upon their aerial attack. Officials for the game have not yet been selected.

This will be Salem's third inter-scholastic contest this season, having met and defeated only the Albany and Eugene representatives. Another game was played with the first year Willamette team, which was also annexed by the red and black.

Corvallis will play here a week from today in the annual Turkey day classic. This will complete the season as far as the locals are concerned.

Efforts are being made to either withdraw from the state league or else have the six leading Portland high school teams included in the league. The way it stands at present Salem has little opportunity to line up a full schedule, for a majority of schools within easy playing distance refuse to play because of the larger student body of the local school. This matter will be taken up and discussed at the annual meeting of the league in Corvallis next month.

CLASSES COMPETE IN CROSS COUNTRY

Annual Race at Willamette Is Being Scheduled Monday, Nov. 24

The annual cross-country run, with the four classes of Willamette university competing, will be staged Monday, Nov. 24, according to announcement made yesterday by the inter-class rivalry committee. The course will be the same as that run last year through Bush's pasture and around on Twelfth street.

No entries have been named for the various classes yet, but contestants will be made known Friday. Crawford, the winner of last year's race, and Cobb, will probably run for the sophomores, while the rooks will stake their hopes on Kutch and Zeller, who are showing up well in practice.

Penn State Eleven Will Not Play at Washington

STATE COLLEGE, Penn., Nov. 19.—Penn State will not meet the University of Washington in a post-season football game at Seattle, Hugo Bezdek, director of athletics, announced tonight. The decision to decline the invitation was reached at a conference by President John M. Thomas, Coach Bezdek, and the faculty athletic committee.

The fact that Penn State has been to the coast twice in the last four years made it advisable to pass up the opportunity for this year, Bezdek said.

BOXING MATCH CONTRACTS LET

Deane-Dawson Bout Scheduled for 10 Rounds; Hunt Will Meet Bennett

Contracts for the main event and one of the two 6-round events for the boxing card to be offered at the Armory December 2 have been signed by the principals, according to Harry Plant, matchmaker.

The main event of the program will be a 10-round fight between Sewell Deane, formerly of Portland but now of Salem, at 144 and Charles Dawson, of Eugene, 145. Bill Hunt, husky Salem fireman who hits the scales at 175 will meet William Bennett, of Tillamook, who weighs 169. This match will be for six 3-minute rounds. Contracts for the other 6-round fight and two 4-round fights have not yet been signed.

This is the first time that a 10-round fight has been scheduled here for some time and boxing fans are looking forward to the card.

Deane came to Salem a few days ago and has located here, his wife and family having joined him. With Deane is Phil Hayes, both of whom are working out nightly at the Armory, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Matchmaker Plant has issued a cordial invitation to boxing enthusiasts to come to the Armory any night and look 'em over in order to convince themselves that they will get their money's worth the night the program opens.

Hayes has been matched with Jimmy Anderson, of Tillamook, though the date of the battle has not yet been set.

WISITORS WILL FILL CORN SHOWS

formed corn on the cob are very beautiful and will create much attention from the thousands who will throng the Armory during the remainder of the week.

Program Arranged
The program this afternoon will begin at 2:30 o'clock when an address will be delivered by Harley O. White, president of the Chamber of Commerce. In the evening the main address will be given by Governor Walter M. Pierce and there will be a program of songs by the McDowell Quartette, which will be followed by a radio concert.

Friday morning the exhibits will be judged by a committee from the Oregon Agricultural college composed of Professors J. L. Long, E. N. Bressman, W. T. Teutsch. All awards will be made early so that the ribbon prizes can be placed Friday afternoon.

Of unusual interest will be the exhibit of the various silver trophies of Pickard Brothers, who have won international fame by their Jersey stock. They have a record of having some of the finest Jersey stock in the world, which they have raised at Marion.

Is Worth Efforts
Many of the local merchants were busy last night erecting booths and getting their displays in shape. According to one of these, he is putting forth more efforts this year than last and believes that the expense and time is well worth while.

No admission is charged for the show and the industrial exhibit, either in the afternoon or at night.

Great Picture Returns To The Liberty Theater

"The Virginian" is coming back. Commencing tonight the Liberty theater will offer this most famous of American novels in its second screen presentation in Salem.

For those who saw this great picture during its first run at the Oregon the foregoing is sufficient announcement, but for them as well as for the hundreds of others who have not seen the production one word of advice is in order—

"Go early if you want a seat."
With the exception of "The Covered Wagon" no picture ever shown in Salem has been so popular with the theatergoers as "The Virginian," and its previous showing here was marked by capacity houses at every performance. This time the picture will remain at the Liberty so long as there is a demand for its retention.

There is a healthy and stimulating appeal in this great American drama that distinctly penalizes those who neglect to see it.

Bureau Says Freight Is Not Controlling Factor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Freight rates are not the controlling factor in the control of potatoes and the rates are such as to allow wide distribution at centers of population far distant from the areas of production the bureau of railway economics announced today as a result of a general survey of the potato growing and marketing industry.

The survey, the bureau announced, shows that potato prices paid to the farmer have fluctuated as much as 225 per cent of the minimum although the freight rates remained unchanged. The bureau also found that the price of potatoes in potato growing areas is frequently higher than the prevailing prices in cities far removed from the production centers. The bureau's study covered a year, and was made in 37 points of production, and 32 cities from more than 3,000 retail stores.

School Will Aid Students Develop Musical Talent

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (AP)—The Master School of Musical Arts, founded to aid American students who have undeniable talent but no means for cultivating it, will begin to function at San Francisco next May 1 with a faculty which includes some of the world's most prominent authorities on music.

"Talented but poor music students all over America, sit up and take notice," says the announcement from offices of the school in this city. "Your fond dream of continuing your studies under the guidance of the world's greatest masters of music is about to come true at last, and absolutely without cost. The only stipulation is that your talent must be undeniably real."

The San Francisco institution was founded with a donation of $75,000 by Mrs. Alice Campbell MacFarlane of that city and Honolulu, who conceived the project as a memorial to her parents. Additional contributions by music lovers of San Francisco are reported to have swelled the foundation to $150,000.

Man Who Could Have Saved Him Gets O'Connor's Money

DUBLIN, Nov. 19 (AP)—When Rory O'Connor was condemned to death and later shot in December, 1922, for complicity in the Four Courts coup in Dublin, Free State Minister of Justice O'Higgins, who ordered his execution, had to choose between friendship and duty, it was learned recently.

O'Connor was a close friend of Mr. O'Higgins and had acted as his best man at the latter's wedding only six months before the sentence of death was passed. Mr.

FROSH BASKETBALL PROSPECTS BRIGHT

First Year Men Line Up Trip To Southern Oregon for Holiday Season

Prospects for a successful season in basketball for the first year men are very promising, according to Winston Wade, Willamette university freshman athletic manager. Games are being scheduled with a number of valley high schools and a trip to southern Oregon will be taken during the Christmas holidays. The annual contest with Salem high school will probably be held the first part of January.

Men who are showing up well in practice are Scott, Litchfield, Brown, Kutch, Bodine, Swan, Faber, Cox and Anderson. These men have all had high school experience, and a winning combination should be developed. Leslie Sparks is acting as coach for the Frooks.

O'Higgins although every effort was made to have him agree to save his friend, refused to grant reprieve.

The agonizing struggle between duty and friendship completely overcame Mr. O'Higgins, but perhaps the most dramatic feature of all was when the dead man's mill was opened and it was discovered that he had left all his money to the minister of justice.
