A BENEFIT card party was given last evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. John L. Rand by the ladies of St. Joseph's church. Both five hundred and bridge were in play during the evening. The affair last night was one in a series of parties planned for the winter to raise funds for the new parish hall.

A number of Salem friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Quisenberry will be interested in the announcement of the arrival of a baby son who will be named Robert Lee Quisenberry. Mrs. Quisenberry, who before her marriage was Miss Letta Ruby, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ruby of Portland, is a graduate of Willamette university with the class of 1922.

Members of the Writers' club were guests Tuesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fargo at their home, 1085 North Church street. A program of contributions delightful in their merit were offered. Mrs. J. C. Nelson read two poems, "Six Saints Arise From My Lily Bed" and "Waiting"; Mrs. J. M. Clifford a nature poem on the Umpqua river; Mrs. Blanch M. Jones sang an American Indian; Mrs. Gertrude Robison two lyrics; Robert Paulus an extract from a planned play, and Miss Marie Roberts a fairy

Mr. Farmer, I Want

A home on your farm

A Short Story With a Moral—Furnished by F. E. Neer. Salem Brick & Tile Co.

I will work nights and Sundays, summer and winter. Work hardest when I am full, but am always ready for what there is to do. Will agree never to leave the farm, nor interfere in any way with your horse trades. Will not keep the hired girl up late nights, nor elope with your best driver on Sundays. Will not swear at the biscuits when the minister calls nor show the watermelon patch to the boys from town. Will not track mud on the kitchen floor nor smoke cigarettes in the hay mow.

Will prepare your soil for cultivation earlier in the spring and make it warmer by several degrees. Will prevent soil baking and forming in clods. Will make your subsoil one vast laboratory for the production of food for your growing crops, and will leave it open so that the roots can penetrate deeper.

Not afraid of rain, nor hot, dry weather. Hold a world's record for carrying water. Have been especially trained and will guarantee that with my help your crops will increase to fifty per cent or more in quantity and improve in quality.

Will insure your crops in both wet and dry seasons without extra charge. Will prevent the soluble and most fertile elements of your soil from being carried off to your neighbor's land by surface washing. Drained soils contain more really valuable moisture during drought than undrained soils.

Will feed your live stock, pay your grocery bill, clothe your family, send your children to school, pay your taxes and burn your mortgage.

Will contract one hundred year's service or more. Have thirty years experience and a clean record.

All that I ask is an early and proper burial, you to deduct funeral expenses from increase in first year's crop.

I am the best and strongest and cleanest of my race, and will do as I agree. For references, write to the Drainage Department of the Agricultural College and every progressive farmer. I am at your SERVICE, Mr. Farmer. Sincerely, —IMA CLAY TILE. (Drain Tile Family.)

of not a little charm. Professor Franklin's book on "Naturalization" and Mrs. Fargo's poem, "Rain at Night," which appears in the December "Sunset," both came in for their part of the discussion.

Mrs. J. C. Nelson assisted the hostess in the serving of light refreshments. Autumn flowers were used in the rooms.

The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fargo were Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mrs. F. S. Barton, Mrs. Blanche M. Jones and Miss Marie Roberts.

The school of music of OAC presented Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, a mezzo soprano from Salem, in recital at the Workshop theater on Sunday afternoon. It is difficult to pick out any one song that was better sung than another, for her program was made up of groups of songs of the very best caliber and her singing of them was delightful. The aria from "The Messiah," Handel, and "He Shall Feed His Flocks" was sung in a manner to bring out the religious atmosphere of the composition and it was followed by a lovely French song, "Obstination," built upon typically French style. The Negro Spirituals were examples of the deeply devotional characteristics of that race, and the archness of the Chinese Mother Goose Rhymes, by Bainbridge Crist, was delicious.

Mrs. Harwood Hall will be hostess this afternoon for the members of Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood at her home at Chemawa, with special attention called to the fact that the hour of the business meeting for today has been changed from 2:30 to 2 o'clock.

Twenty-six members of the YKK class of the First Methodist church were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Kleizing on Tuesday evening. At the business meeting it was decided to hold the December meeting on the second Tuesday, instead of the third Tuesday of the month. At this meeting the men will take charge, with Mr. Lloyd Lee chosen as chairman. To make their plans they will meet Tuesday evening at the S. W. Marsters home. A series of amusing games were planned for the evening this week, with light refreshments following. Lovely chrysanthemums were used in the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Myers were hosts Sunday with an enjoyable dinner given at their home in Irvington in honor of several out-of-town guests, including Judge William G. Thomas, one of the oldest residents of Alaska, and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Hooch of Redmond and their daughter, Louise, who is attending St. Helens hall; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Albert, Miss Atholyn Blake, Miss Myrtle Myers and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Munkers.—Oregonian.

Members of the Mothers' class of the First Methodist Sunday school were splendid hostesses at a banquet Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the church at which the members of the Business Men's club were guests. With the men assembling in one room and the mothers in another, partners for the evening were secured as the two single-file lines joined.

Mrs. C. J. Lisle presided as toastmistress for the evening with the following making delightful and clever responses: Mrs. J. L. Brady, on "Education vs. Knowledge," Mrs. M. B. Paroungian on "Wisdom," Mr. C. J. Lisle, Mr. Crowder, Mr. A. A. Lee and Mrs. Brethaupt. Mrs. Brethaupt introduced a conversational playlet in which Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mrs. Durkheimer and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford appeared.

The singing of "Lead Kindly Light," by Mrs. Charles Maxwell concluded the evening's program.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge Luncheon club will open a rummage sale this morning at the CTC tire shop, 477 Court street.

The West Side circle of the ladies' aid of the Jason Lee church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. F. P. Prince, 1545 North Commercial, yesterday and plans were made for a cooked food sale and fancy work bazaar to be held at Allen's hardware store Saturday, Nov. 22. The fair will last all day.

The meeting yesterday was devoted to arranging plans for the bazaar and to the regular business proceedings.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membranes and relief comes instantly. It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.—Adv.
