

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

More Rain Forecast—The weather forecast for the coming week is generally fair except for occasional rains.

Mill Wood—5 loads 16 inch $18.75, 10 loads 18 inch $35.00. Good wood, prompt delivery.

Squirrels Doing Damage—M. P. Adams of the Skyline Orchards complains that squirrels have greatly damaged the walnuts and he advises a war on squirrels.

Announcing That—Smith & Watkins, corner Court and High streets, now have general high test gasoline in their front pump.

Market for Seed Potatoes—G. R. Hyslop, crop inspector of the Oregon Agricultural College, has been asked to help provide a market for Oregon seed potatoes.

1923 Star Touring—Good condition, $300. Valley Motor Co. Phone 1995.

Fruit is Promising—County Fruit Inspector Van Trump says that all the orchards examined are in first class condition and everything indicates a good fruit crop next year.

Turkey Shoot Sunday—Nov. 23, beginning 9 a. m. John Herron ranch, 4 1/2 miles east on Garden Road.

Two Prisoners Released—Sheriff C. E. Terrill, of Jackson county, delivered two prisoners to the state prison Saturday.

sault with intent to kill his wife and Jack Miller, for assault and robbery while armed with a dangerous weapon.

Frames—$1.00 and up. Fine assortment. Parker Brockman Studio, Eldridge Bldg.

Exchange Prunes Sold—The Northwest Pacific Prune Exchange is reported to have sold all its petite prunes to Rosenbergs for 4 1/2 cents for 120s and 5 cents for 100-120s.

Learn to Play Popular Music—In 12 lessons. Waterman Piano School, McCornack bldg.

Butter is Up—Butter went up two cents a pound in Portland yesterday which will affect the price on Monday.

Boston Terrier Puppies—For sale. Pedigreed and registered. Dr. Fred Ellis, 1380 Center. Phone 2163W.

State House Deserted—With nearly all of the state officials at Corvallis Saturday to witness the annual Oregon-OAC football game, the state house, with the exception of a few employees who remained to answer telephones, was practically deserted.

Petland Offers for Xmas—Pups, fox terrier, $5-$10; collie, $5-$10; alreadale, $5-$25; toy silk poodles, $20-25; bulls, $10-$50; Boston, $25-$50.

Walnuts Bring Good Price—M. P. Adams of the Skyline Orchards sold 60 sacks of walnuts in Portland last week for $19.20. The walnut pool this year has not reported but it is believed that the price received will be entirely satisfactory.

See Halik and Hoff—Before buying your radio set. Latest Radiolas III A on display.

Osteopathy the Original—And genuine spinal adjustment, skillful and painless curative treatments that get results. Dr. Marshall, 228 Oregon Building.

New Bus to Run—The Salem street railway busses on Seventeenth and North Summer will start operation Monday morning, according to latest announcements. The busses have been accepted from the factory, where they were made to order.

The Best Fuel—For the price is 16-inch mill block; three LARGE loads for $15. Fred E. Wells, phone 1542.

Fix Rates—Because of the conditions among sight-seeing cars for hire the outdoor recreation committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce through H. B. Grenfell, assistant general manager, asked the assistance of the public service commission in fixing rates.

For Rent—Store room on State street. See J. H. Lauterman, Hotel Oregon.

Birds—Panama parrots, guaranteed young and talkers, $25. St. Andrews rollers (imported), "the canary with a college education," $15; love birds (green) pair, $12.50. Flake's Petland Store, 273 State, Farm, Pacific Highway, Salem.

Frank Spears on Job—Frank Spears, who is connected with the Roberts & Hawkins firm of Salem, is able to be on the street again after a severe illness.

Dry Wood for Sale—16-inch or 4-foot lengths. Call 772Z

Men, Dress Up Now—For Thanksgiving at the Man's Shop. Suits and coats greatly reduced. The Man's Shop.

Display Big Success—The display and open house of the Hartman Brothers jewelry store was a success from every viewpoint.

Welcome—To Men's Bible class. First Methodist Episcopal church, corner State and Church streets, 9:45 a. m., Sundays.

Use Our Distributive—Payment plan if you cannot spare the cash. Pomeroy & Keene, Jewelers and Opticians.

Weekly Report—For the week ending Saturday noon the city health officer reported four cases of diphtheria and four chicken pox cases in the city.

Beauty Free—Let Mme Weber demonstrate the easy methods by which every woman can have a soft velvety skin. Free every day this week. $1.00 facial. By appointment only. Phone 11, call for Mme Weber, Miller's store.

Radio Service—See Chas. K. Denison, 1540 No. Liberty St.

Men, Dress Up Now—For Thanksgiving at the Man's Shop. Suits and coats greatly reduced. The Man's Shop.

Postmistress Resigns—Mrs. W. B. Lappe has tendered her resignation as postmaster of Valseitz. This action follows the resignation of Mr. Lappe as business manager at Valseitz in order to take a similar position at Veronia.

DIED—WATSON—In this city Nov. 22. Sanford Watson age 78 years, brother of Miss Cecelia E. Watson. Also survived by 4 nephews and 4 nieces. Mr. Watson was a former farmer and stock raiser of Polk county, removing to Los Angeles where he resided for many years, returning to Salem about 7 years ago. Was a member of Salem lodge of Elks and the 1st Congregational church of Portland. Funeral services will be held from the Rigdon & Son Mortuary, Monday, Nov. 24 at 11:30 a. m. Services in charge of Salem Lodge of Elks, and Rev. J. J. Evans. After which the body will be taken to Portland where interment will take place.

HUDELSON—At the residence, 915 south 12th street, suddenly, Nov. 22, A. B. Hudelson, age 78 years, long time resident of Marion county husband of Mrs. Eleanor Hudelson, father of C. F. Hudelson of Filer, Idaho, J. A. Hudelson of Cambridge, Idaho; W. A. Hudelson of North Powder, Or.; Mrs. Avis Johnson of Boise, Idaho; Mrs. Ella Marz of Silverton, and Mrs. Louis Fraer of Marshfield, and the late Mrs. Grant Holt of Salem. Also survived by 24 grand children and 14 great grand children. Mr. Hudelson was a veteran of the Civil war, a member of Sedgewick post, A. R. of Salem, a member of the Masonic lodge of Jefferson, also a Knight Templar. Mr. Hudelson came to Oregon in 1874 from Kansas, settling at Jefferson. In 1906 he went to Idaho where he resided for about 10 years, where he served as a member of the Idaho legislature. Funeral services will be held Monday, Nov. 24, at 2 p. m., from the Rigdon and Son Mortuary. Concluding services will be held in City View cemetery.

Mathes Fruit Yards—The Fruitland Nursery has now located at the corner of High and Ferry streets. Mr. Mathes, the proprietor, says he will have everything the fruit grower needs for the coming season.

For Sale at a Bargain—1922 Buick six, 5-passenger touring car. Phone 1568W. n23*

$2,000 Farm Loan Wanted—Address box 886. n23

Miles, Kiwanis Speaker—E. C. Miles will address the Kiwanis club Tuesday noon telling of his recent trip to Ireland and Belgium where he studied the flax industry. He is scheduled to speak on the outlook for the Salem linen mills, and the future of the Oregon flax industry. According to the weekly letter, a total of $185 was subscribed for the support of the Associated Charities last week. Mr. Miles is a member of the Rotary club.

Select Christmas Presents Now—Small payments make it easy. Love, the Jeweler, Salem. 610-11

Dr. B. H. Wilson Coming—President and Mrs. E. C. Hickman of the Kimball School of Theology will be hosts to Dr. Byron H. Wilson, superintendent of the Seattle district of the Methodist church on Tuesday, Wednesday of this week. Dr. Wilson will give a series of addresses at the School of Theology on the general theme, "The Church Meeting the City's Needs." The lectures on Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock and on Wednesday morning at 11:15 will be of a popular nature, open to the public. Dr. Wilson has recently completed a term as superintendent of the Los Angeles district. He has a unique history in Methodism, being the only district superintendent in the entire church to be transferred from one area to another since the recent action of the general conference limiting the terms of a district superintendent to six years within a conference.

The Greatest Value—Of the season on suits and overcoats. Buy and save now. The Man's Shop.

Rare Gold Coin—C. O. Rice, city treasurer, has a $10 gold luck piece which was minted in 1847. The gold issue of that time was softer than the gold standard of the present time. The color is of a deeper gold and the milling is somewhat different. The coin was minted about two years before the discovery of gold in California and about 55 years after the French revolution.

Attained at Last—Perfection in radio in the Brunswick Radiola. No more squealing or howling; the ultimate in radio receiving sets in combination with the Brunswick phonograph. See our window. Moore's Music House, 409-415 Court.

White Named President—Brigadier General George A. White, adjutant general of Oregon, was elected president of the National Guard association of the Ninth corps area at the Presidio headquarters in San Francisco during the conference of national guard commanders and adjutant generals of eight northwestern Pacific coast states, according to word received here Saturday. General White commands the infantry brigade composed of Oregon and Idaho troops.

For Rent—Modern furnished house for rent. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. n23

Receive Congratulations—Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Weis are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the arrival of a son, born at the Salem hospital last Friday. Mr. Weis, the proprietor of the Opera House Pharmacy, and one of Salem's best known business men, is wearing one of the well-advertised "smiles that won't wear off" on the occasion of the first addition to the family. According to Dr. Garnjoost, Harry is the only sick one in the family.

The Greatest Value—Of the season on suits and overcoats. Buy and save now. The Man's Shop.

D'Autremont Said Caught—Word was received by the police department Saturday that one of the d'Autremont boys was under arrest in McAllister, Okla. Why the message was sent to Salem is not known, but the word was relayed to the office of the United States marshal in Portland. The d'Autremont boys participated in the holdup of a Southern Pacific train at the Slaklyon tunnel, in Southern Oregon, on October 11, 1923. Three trainmen were killed by the train robbers. All three of the d'Autremont boys lived in Salem at one time.

Esprelo d'Amor Toilet Goods—Bath salts and body powder, at Miss Swart's Specialty Shop, 453 Court street. n23

Gets Divorce—Nathan Foster was granted a divorce in Judge Kelly's court yesterday from Jennie Foster. He charged desertion.

Gets Marriage Licenses—An unusual demand for marriage licenses was recorded yesterday in the county clerk's office when seven couples were registered. Fred Donnell, 34, and Matilda Deutsch, 23, both of Woodburn were the first to appear. The others were Theodore W. Whitworth, 21, a salesman of Tacoma, and Lucile White, 19, 745 North Church; Theodore G. Freres, 26, a sawmill worker, and Tressa M. Forrette, 23, both of Stayton; John E. Gentry, 33, a painter living at 566 North Commercial, and

She accompanied her mother, Mrs. D. M. McIntyre and her brother, T. S. McIntyre.

Returning to Oregon—A large lot of household goods recently received at the Oregon Electric freight depot from Washington, D. C. for A. W. Prescott reveals the fact that Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Prescott are about to return to Oregon after an absence of nearly 16 years. Julian, their son, is now attending Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis. E. T. Prescott, a brother of A. W., who has been looking after his brother's orchard in Polk county during his absence, expects his arrival here about Dec. 1.

PERSONALS

P. B. Falk of San Francisco has arrived in Salem to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Fred Caldwell of 387 Mission.

Clarence Oliver, boys' secretary at the YMCA, is visiting in Portland over the week-end.

Myrtle Mason was a Salem visitor yesterday from Mill City where she is an instructor in the high school.

Mrs. D. Slater of Mill City transacted business in Salem Saturday. J. S. Holman was here from Dallas yesterday.

Mrs. T. E. McCallale and daughter are visiting in Salem from Forest Grove during the week-end.

Margaret McLaughlin visited in Salem from Newport yesterday. Miss Alice Sykes, graduate of Willamette university, returned to the city yesterday.

Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb attended the homecoming at OAC yesterday, while Mrs. C. F. Patton was hostess at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe during her absence.

William Shoates, instructor in the Stayton high school, is a week-end visitor in Salem.

Edward Houston, Willamette university graduate, is in Salem over the week-end. He is an instructor at the Woodburn high school.

Albert Follich, who has been with the Metropolitan Life of Salem, has secured employment in Portland and left for that city Saturday.

Miss Anna McIntyre is visiting in Lebanon over the week-end.

Miss Anna McIntyre is a Lebanon visitor over the week-end.

Drunk Brought In—T. Mitchell was arrested early Saturday night by Officer Breneman and booked at the station on a disorderly conduct charge.

Fire Department Called—The fire department was called to Twenty-first near Lee shortly after 10 o'clock last night to extinguish a fire in the attic of a small house. Little damage was reported.

Speeders Pinched—Officer Hickman arrested the following for exceeding the speed limit: R. D. Cole, B. B. Stenson, R. F. Becker, W. F. Staley, A. C. Arbrecht, H. A. Bell. Charged with driving a car with an open cutout, I. Etzel and A. L. Short were hailed into court. G. C. Harbert and A. Aretill forfeited $5 each when they failed to appear in court.

Chestnuts—5 Pounds for—One Dollar, delivered. Phone 106F2. n23

Two Win Hams—Everybody seemed to want a ham, according to the number of guesses submitted at the Marion-Polk County Corn Show and Industrial Exhibit on the monster ham displayed by the Cross Meat market. One thousand eight hundred seventy-four guesses were made as to the weight of the piece and 74 of the chances were within one pound of the exact weight. The honors for estimating the exact weight goes to J. E. Cox of 1266 Norway and to Mrs. R. W. Marsters of 1475 Court, both of whom guessed 29 pounds and 30 ounces. As a reward the Cross market will give to each of the winners a Cascade ham. The caption of the card stated that a ham would be delivered free to the one who estimated the weight.

Fire Department Called—The fire department was called to Twenty-first near Lee shortly after 10 o'clock last night to extinguish a fire in the attic of a small house. Little damage was reported.

Speeders Pinched—Officer Hickman arrested the following for exceeding the speed limit: R. D. Cole, B. B. Stenson, R. F. Becker, W. F. Staley, A. C. Arbrecht, H. A. Bell. Charged with driving a car with an open cutout, I. Etzel and A. L. Short were hailed into court. G. C. Harbert and A. Aretill forfeited $5 each when they failed to appear in court.

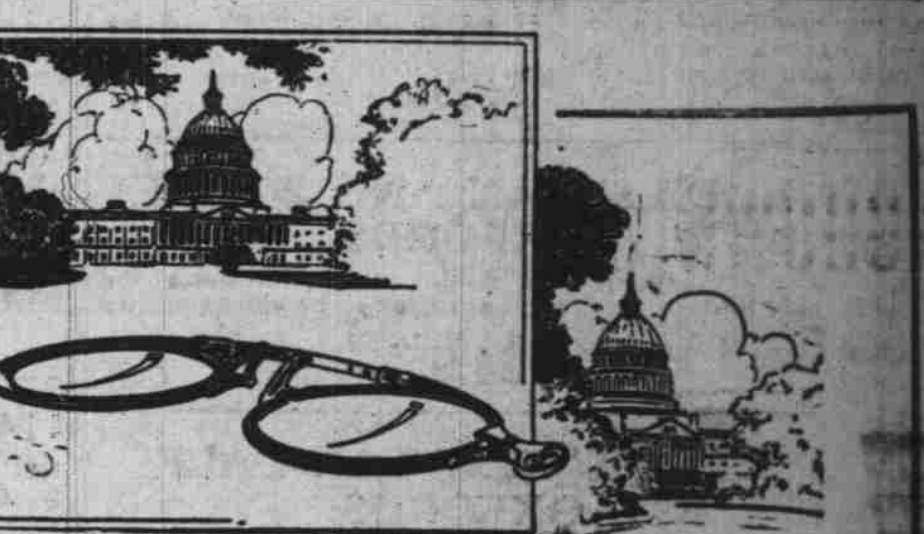

Chestnuts—5 Pounds for—One Dollar, delivered. Phone 106F2. n23

Two Win Hams—Everybody seemed to want a ham, according to the number of guesses submitted at the Marion-Polk County Corn Show and Industrial Exhibit on the monster ham displayed by the Cross Meat market. One thousand eight hundred seventy-four guesses were made as to the weight of the piece and 74 of the chances were within Start Here! Begin Now! Capital Business College, Salem, Oregon.

Start Here! Begin Now! Capital Business College, Salem, Oregon.

DISTINCTION in political life is today well within the scope of feminine accomplishment. The woman who comes to us for eyeglasses is assured the attention of optometrists constantly alert to every opportunity to perform intelligent service.

MORRIS OPTICAL CO. 301-2-3-4 Oregon Bldg. DR. HENRY E. MORRIS DR. A. McCULLOCH

WOODRY Buys Furniture Phone 511

Typewriters ALL MAKES $5 Down $5 Monthly C. M. Lockwood 247 N. Com St. Phone 866

TERMINAL TAXI SERVICE Cars for hire without drivers PHONE 2020 Day and Night Service

POPULAR PRICED Men's and Young Men's Tailored Suits $25 to $45 D. H. MOSHER TAILOR

Dr. B. H. White Osteopathy - Surgery Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abram's method) Office Phone 859 or 469-J 506 U. S. Bank Bldg.

Dancing! Dancing! Salem's New Auditorium Ladies Free Wednesday and Saturday Bezzanson's Melody Friends

Skating, Skating, Skating At Dreamland Thursday, Friday, Saturday 7:30 to 10 p. m. Hear Our New Calliope

RADIO HEADQUARTERS For RADIO SUPPLIES Open Evenings 189 SOUTH HIGH

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1908 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

We Carry All Sizes of Coal from the large furnace to the smallest nut size. Tell us for what purpose the coal is required and we'll point out the proper size to use. But although we carry all sizes, we handle only one quality, the very best coal from the very best mines. Our coal service is yours to command. Prices range from $10 to $15 Also handle the best Diamond Brackets $15

PHONE 930 Larmer Transfer & Storage Co.

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY Unequaled Service

Adams, Florist, 453 Court—Cut flowers and floral pieces. n23

Lester Schell is Dead—News of the death of Lester Schell, formerly of Salem, at his home in Portland Thursday afternoon, has been received by Salem relatives. Mr. Schell is a brother-in-law of B. E. Herrick, county surveyor. Death came at the family residence, 1447 Mallory street, from a stroke of the heart. A wife and one daughter survive.

Dr. John L. Lynch—Osteopathic physician and surgeon, 403 Oregon bldg. n23

For Two Years Past—We have been considering the installation of radio equipment; but not until now have we found the receiving sets that are perfect in reception. Come in for a demonstration and convince yourself of this truth. Moore's Music House 409-415 Court. n23

Mathes Fruit Yards—The Fruitland Nursery has now located at the corner of High and Ferry streets. Mr. Mathes, the proprietor, says he will have everything the fruit grower needs for the coming season.

For Sale at a Bargain—1922 Buick six, 5-passenger touring car. Phone 1568W. n23*

$2,000 Farm Loan Wanted—Address box 886. n23

Miles, Kiwanis Speaker—E. C. Miles will address the Kiwanis club Tuesday noon telling of his recent trip to Ireland and Belgium where he studied the flax industry. He is scheduled to speak on the outlook for the Salem linen mills, and the future of the Oregon flax industry. According to the weekly letter, a total of $185 was subscribed for the support of the Associated Charities last week. Mr. Miles is a member of the Rotary club.

Select Christmas Presents Now—Small payments make it easy. Love, the Jeweler, Salem. 610-11

Dr. B. H. Wilson Coming—President and Mrs. E. C. Hickman of the Kimball School of Theology will be hosts to Dr. Byron H. Wilson, superintendent of the Seattle district of the Methodist church on Tuesday, Wednesday of this week. Dr. Wilson will give a series of addresses at the School of Theology on the general theme, "The Church Meeting the City's Needs." The lectures on Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock and on Wednesday morning at 11:15 will be of a popular nature, open to the pub-

Just a Word to Remind You In business and social life the person who takes a pride in the appearance of his clothing is the leader. Why handicap yourself by a careless appearance when it costs so little to keep your clothing neat. Properly cared for clothing wears enough longer to more than pay for the care. Standard Cleaners and Dyers 360 N. Com'l. Phone 1433 HARMLESS LAXATIVE All Children Love Its Pleasant Taste

Mother! Give Bilious, Constipated Child "California Fig Syrup" Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will sweeten the stomach and thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love the pleasant taste of this gentle, harmless laxative. It never cramps or overacts. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.—Adv.

THE FRENCH SHOP 115 High Street Masonic Temple SPECIAL OFFERING of 25 gowns priced from $35.00 to $47.50 at $29.75 25 gowns priced from $24.75 to $37.50 at $17.75 Many beautiful mid-winter hats at the most interesting reductions—Hats that are smart—Hats that are exclusive—Hats that are aristocratic—at $5.00, $7.50, $10.00 THE FRENCH SHOP 115 High Street Masonic Temple Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. Salem, Oregon MANUFACTURERS Sulphite, and Manila Wrappings, also Butchers Wrappings, Adding Machine Paper, Greaseproof, Glassine, Drug Bond, Tissue Screenings and Specialties.