Thanksgiving Day

I wonder, should Thanksgiving Day
Come in the tender spring,
When frail wood flowers push through the leaves,
And silver swallows wing.

If we could feel the thankfulness
That crowds our heart today
When barren are the gloried hills,
And old the roads, and gray?

I wonder if it doesn't mean,
A blessedness more dear,—
Our worshipping with upward eyes,
When dying is the year?

A seeing in the flower the fruit,
The sunset at the morn,
And knowing in some age-wise way
Fulfillment for things born?

AMONG THOSE WHO will go to the beach for over Thanksgiving are Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. Emma Murphy Brown and Mrs. Elsie Lemoureaux. They are motoring to Neskowin.

Miss Vivian Etter was a delightful hostess for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss DeLoise Hice Monday evening at her home on Fairview avenue. The guest of honor was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. As Miss Etter played Lohengrin's wedding march. Little Wynona Smith entered the room with a doll buggy heaped with presents. At the head of the buggy stood a doll dressed as a bride and after circling the room little Miss Smith stopped in front of Miss Hice and presented her with the gifts.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in visiting and dancing, and at a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Etter, and Miss Honor Zell. The young maids who were invited to enjoy the evening were Miss Marie Hitchcock, Miss Alpha Holcomb, Miss Lois Pruitt, Miss Bonnie Foster, Miss Honor Zell, Mrs. Walter Frazier, Miss Vyla Hoover, Miss Gladys Wheeler, Miss Echo DeSart, the honor guest, Miss DeLoise Hice, Miss Mary Heiser, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. John Etter and the hostess, Miss Vivian Etter.

Miss Catherine Hartley, a freshman at the Oregon Agricultural college, is spending the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartley. Miss Hartley is pledged to the Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

At the council meeting this week of the Salem Arts' League, matters relative to the completing of section organization were taken up. The story-telling section under the leadership of Mrs. Martin Feresh-tian, will meet every first and third Wednesday at the Feresh-tian home. The class in music-study and composition of which Miss Ruth Bedford will be in charge, will for a time meet with the story-telling section. Both are open sections with any interested asked to call those in charge.

The class in interior decoration, with Mrs. Monroe Gilbert the leader, meets on the first and fourth Fridays of the month at the city library. The Writers' club follows the first and third Tuesdays for meetings at the private homes. S. H. Van Tramp is the leader of the section on landscape gardening which has library meetings on the first and third Fridays of the month.

Tentative plans are under way for classes in drama, art study and sketching.

The second Tuesday of each month is given over to a general meeting of the league to which all interested are invited. The meeting next month will be a varied program given by the combined sections December 8, at the Woman's club house.

The St. Joseph's parish card party, announced for Thanksgiving evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jaskoski, has been postponed until Friday evening.

The Arts' League section in interior decorating will meet tomorrow evening at the public library. The meeting will be at 7:30 o'clock, with the subject of study

To Prove Safety Qualities of "Guardian Angel" Parachute, Young French Girl Drops 1,000 Feet

Before a number of representatives of foreign powers, Mile. Pinet dropped about a fifth of a mile at the Crocydon aerodrome at Crodon, England. The parachute opened in two seconds and the descent was made safely in one minute, two seconds.

The finishing of floors and wood-work. Various interesting lessons are anticipated for the near future with attractive fixtures, tapestries, rugs, and period furniture to illustrate each. A group of new members are also planning on joining the section soon after Christmas.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH
Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.—Adv.
