MY PRAYER

If in the plan, Oh Lord, Thou hast for me,
My feet grow weary, and I seem to be Less loving, less forgiving, and to tread
With faltering steps among my fellowmen,
Oh Lord, forgive.

If by the wayside, I, a soul, should find
Not knowing of Thy love, discouraged, blind,
And reach not out to place his hand in Thine,
Nor point to him the way the Master trod,
Oh Lord, forgive.

If in a smile, a message in a glance,
There was conveyed untruth, and thus perchance
A child of Thine lost faith in all mankind—
Turned good to evil, love into selfish hate,
Oh Lord, forgive.

If there are those less fortunate than I,
Then Lord, my selfish prayer pass by,
Grant first to them, the solace of Thy love;
Smooth the rough places. And teach me how to pray.
Oh Lord, forgive.

ORA F. MCINTYRE

A NIECE of the great Thomas Carlyle, Mrs. Marian Carlyle, was the guest of honor on Friday afternoon at a birthday party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Troy, 475 South Winter street, which celebrated her 80th birthday. Lovely birthday refreshments, using the old Carlyle dishes more than 100 years old, were served, with the guests seated about the table. Mrs. Carlyle who has traveled widely charmed the guests with stories of her various "journeys." The table was well covered with gifts of the day, which Mrs. Carlyle unwrapped before her guests, who included Mrs. O. P. Thompson, Mrs. Tinsley, Mrs. Black, Mrs. W. W. Corey, Mrs. D. Tallman, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. F. L. Hodge, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Oakes, Mrs. W. Lennon, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. E. Townsend, Mrs. Cronk and Mrs. Ramsden.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson were hosts at dinner last evening preparatory to an evening of folding Christmas seals for mailing. This year's sale will be carried on entirely by mail, with no booths planned. Those at the dinner last night were: Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Newmeyer, Dr. and Mrs. John Evans,

Dr. and Mrs. Everett Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Elliott Colony, and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week will be the tea on Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Clifton Irwin will entertain between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock at the Irwin home. One hundred and fifty invitations have been issued for the afternoon.

Mrs. Paul Perry of San Francisco was an out-of-town guest at the home of Mrs. Clifton Irwin on Wednesday for the Thanksgiving dance at the Country club.

News of the marriage of Miss Edith E. Benedict to Mr. Arthur L. Smith, on September 27, in Vernon, New York was received by friends yesterday in Salem. Miss Benedict was known here for ten years where she has many friends. For six years she was registrar at Willamette University, and for three years deputy county recorder. Miss Benedict was prominently associated with the actities of the Daughters of the American Revolution. A quiet ceremony was performed by Rev. John McGuidevin at Vernon, New York, where Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home.

Delbert Moore, was very favorably received, last week over the radio, his program being broadcast over the Oregonian KGW radio station. Mr. Moore, assisted by Billy O'Bryant at the piano, gave the "Londonderry Air" and "Song of Love" from "Blossom Time." The Oregonian characterized the whole thing as "particularly fine."

The Woman's Republican Study club which is meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. P. Bishop is making available a civic and legislative program which should be of interest and importance to all women of the city, and a cordial invitation to attend is extended.

Three speakers will be present, one county judge or his representative; one, the mayor, or someone qualified, and the third a speaker on the censorship of moving pictures.

The two first speakers will speak in turn on the authority that lies, or fails to lie, back of acting officials in the dealing with a situation that may be termed that of a nuisance in its nature. It is for the purpose of looking into the situation before drawing conclusions as to what legislative amendment should be made that tomorrow's program is planned.

The annual bazaar and cooked food sale by the women of the Central Congregational church will be held at the church on Tuesday, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The Junior Music club, including a group of pupils of Miss Lena Dotson, met for the November meeting at the home of Helen Ralph. A "backward" party was planned to entertain the guests. A program was given, including a paper on a musical topic, and a piano solo. Refreshments completed a happily spent evening. Frances Reed and Blanche Reese were special guests of the hostess.

The group includes Pauline Orey, Vivian Marrs, Olive Shurtz, Vada Wintermute, Mabel Harrison, Marie Hunsaker, Jane Kuhnke, Helen Johnson, Ruby Orey and the adviser, Miss Dotson.

The WCTU will hold a handkerchief and canned fruit shower on Tuesday afternoon at the hall for the Children's Farm Home. All friends of the farm home are invited to be present. Any donations will be gladly received and sent to the home for the Christmas season.

The coming of Mrs. E. J. Maple of Forest Grove, the conference corresponding secretary, to the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church, will be of interest to the large number who will gather at the home of Mrs. Donald Riddle at the Kimball apartments for the regular December meeting on Wednesday. Mrs. Maple will at this time give a report of the national meeting which was held last month in Chicago, and which she attended as a delegate.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves will have charge of the afternoon devotional service.

The occasion will be the regular tea meeting of the society, with the tea committee including Mrs. H. W. Swafford, Mrs. D. W. Fisher, Mrs. G. H. Alden, Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. Ryder.

From Treasure Island

"Jim and Parrot" who will appear in Tony Sarg's marionette performance here on Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church will hold a bazaar on Friday in the basement of their church. Articles which will be on sale at the various booths, with the seven circles of the society in charge, will be: Fancy work, dolls, aprons, home made candies, and cooked food.

At 6 o'clock in the evening a chicken dinner will be served at the church.

Mrs. H. H. Vandevort is president of the society in charge.

The Rappaherian club will meet on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Carlé Abrams, 1465 Chemeketa street, for the regular December meeting.

A group of Salem folks were guests in Lebanon on Thanksgiving day at the home of R. L. Gibson and family. Mr. Gibson is a hardware dealer in Lebanon. The table at the Gibson home was laden with the bounties of a good old family dinner such as the guests had known since they were children. Various colored chrysanthemums were used in the rooms.

This Rubber-Massage Quickly Reduces Waist and Hips

Madame X Girdle Gives Slimmer Lines Instantly

THE instant you put on this marvelous girdle, you look inches thinner, your body is erect and graceful—and you actually get thinner almost before you know it. In a few weeks you will find 3 to 10 inches gone from waist, hips and thighs!

The Madame X Reducing Girdle is made of soft, live rubber (to really grip and give a genuine massage)—the very kind professional athletes have long used to reduce safely. Takes off 1 to 3 inches the first week. Worn over undergarment instead of a corset. Has garters attached. Keeps pores open, gives wonderful support.

Gently massages away fat with every motion you make. Thousands of women who do not need to reduce, wear it because it is so comfortable. Strong, durable—won't split or tear easily. Lasts one day by day as you become more slender. See the Madame X for yourself. Try it on today!

Guests at the 2 o'clock dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, and daughter, Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Thompson, all of Salem. Mr. F. S. Thompson and Floyd McIntyre of Portland, Mrs. E. J. Stull of California, and "Mother" Thompson of Lebanon. In all covers were placed for twenty-two guests.

Mrs. Mable Dotson, a senior in home economics at the Oregon Agricultural college, is spending the vacation period at her home.

The Senior King's Heralds of the First Methodist church will meet at 7:15 o'clock tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street. Evelyn Young and Ethel May Nichols will assist the hostess. A chapter from "Chinese Lanterns" will be given by Mrs. E. O. Welling. The "Mystery Box," with Mrs. Lloyd Lee in charge, will be enjoyed by all who have been reading in the November "Missionary Friend."

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sanford had as their guest for the Thanksgiving holidays Mrs. Sanford's sister, Mrs. M. H. La Mond of Portland.

The American Legion auxiliary will not meet tomorrow, but at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening at the Chamber of Commerce. The postponement is made on account of the Cherrian show.

The coming to Portland on Tuesday of Mrs. Edward McDowell who, since the death of her flirtatious husband, has devoted a large part of her interest to recital tours of an interpretative nature, will attract a number of local music lovers to the afternoon lecture which the Portland MacDowell club is sponsoring.

Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Walter Denton, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Helen Pearce and Mrs. Phil Newmeyer are all planning to go down for the 3 o'clock lecture.

It will be Mrs. MacDowell's splendid purpose to acquaint the music-loving public with the great musician and composer who was her husband, a man with "a singularly lovable personality, and sensitive to a high degree." He was born in New York of Irish and Scotch parents and began playing at the age of eight, and composing at the age of 12 years. He studied abroad under acknowledged masters, and on his return was for eight years head of the music department at Columbia university. In 1896 he bought and founded the colony at Peterborough, MacDowell died at the age of only 47 years.

St. Paul's guild will meet at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the rectory. Nomination and election of officers will take place at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Siewert have returned home following a two months pleasure trip to California where they were guests at the Dr. A. D. Siewert home in Pasadena. The trip was made by motor, Mr. and Mrs. Siewert going as far south as Pasadena. Next week-end Mr. and Mrs. Siewert will spend in Tacoma.

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Poling are home again spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Portland with their three daughters, Mrs. Laura Good, Mrs. Ethel Phelps and Mrs. Mabel Wood. They were also guests while there at a reunion of former residents of Emango county, Penn. About 20 were present for this enjoyable reunion which the group plans to make an annual affair.

Mrs. Will E. Purdy went to Grants Pass on Wednesday where she will be with her sister who recently underwent a major operation.

Children's book week will be observed, beginning today, from November 30 to December 6th. The aim, expressed in a concise way, is more books in the home, and better books. To give a child a good book is to give him food for thought. At the Salem public library there will be on display special exhibits of books for boys and girls of all ages. An invitation is especially extended the parents to come in and see them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Conner moved over Thanksgiving from 1745 South Liberty street to 1150 Mill street.

At the meeting in Portland yesterday and Friday of the "independent colleges" of Oregon, several from Willamette university, including Dean Frances M. Richards, Prof. S. B. Laughlin and Dr. F. G. Franklin, were in attendance. The Oregon Institute of Technology was the acting host. Miss Richards, Dr. Franklin and Prof. S. B. Laughlin were all on Friday afternoon's program. Dr. Franklin is secretary treasurer of the conference.

The theme of discussion for the two-days was that of college instruction and direction.

Thanksgiving day guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lisle were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barber, former friends of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Boardman, Mr. Ramos and Mr. Deferando.

Enthusiastic witnesses of the horse show, held here in conjunction with the state fair, will remember Miss Flora Jane McBride, and be interested in knowing that she won the spectacular Thanksgiving day paper chase of the Portland Hunt club. Miss McBride rode her fine thoroughbred, Jack Flukes, in the 25th annual chase, and received the Ralph H. Jenkins trophy.

The entire course covered a distance of approximately five and a half miles and included in one place a five-foot jump, coming down a long hill onto the road. The water jumps proved the most exciting, with 18 riders falling, many of them into the water.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dewhurst of Portland were house guests for the Thanksgiving season at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick. Mrs. Dewhurst is a sister of Dr. McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Todd of Eatonville, Wash. are house guests at the home of Mrs. Todd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodge.
