DELILAH, IT IS DAWN

Delilah, from your balcony look out upon the dawn;
There is no time for tragedy when all the world is young.

Oh, Delilah, Delilah—the mighty man has gone;
But, oh, he loved you long, Delilah, and now it is dawn.

Delilah, still and sadly sweet, new glory comes this way;
Bind golden sandals on your feet and go out to greet the day.

—MARGARET PITNER.
From "The Lariat."

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM McGILCHRIST, Sr., were the honored guests Saturday evening on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary at a most enjoyable surprise party for which Miss Ethel McGilchrist was the hostess. Seventy-five guests were present for the evening, the feature of which was the mock wedding ceremony, and the various responses given.

Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist were also honored at dinner preceding the party, with Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., the hosts. Additional covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Millar McGilchrist of Portland.

The Christmas program of the Lincoln school will be presented at the Leslie Methodist church on Friday evening. Each room will be represented by at least 250 number. Several numbers will be given by a favorite vocalist. A popular quartet will sing, and a reader who is especially interesting has promised to contribute to the program. This is the first program to be given outside of school hours, and is being greatly anticipated by pupils, parents and teachers alike.

The members of the O.A.C. club are making interesting plans for their Christmas party which will be held Thursday at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe. Mrs. Beatrice Crawford Newcomb will be the hostess. A feature of the evening will be the Christmas stocking which will be filled with gifts—can't cost a penny more than ten cents each—brought in by the members.

Among the program numbers of the evening will be a piano solo by Miss Mary Cupper, a reading by Miss Lucille Cummings, a song by Marjorie McCallister, a vocal duet by Doris McCallister and Jim Lupet, solos by both Mrs. Merle Rosecrans and Mrs. Jean Percy, and the review of a three-act play by Miss Vivian Hargrove.

The committee assisting Mrs. Newcomb are: Mrs. Richard Slater, Miss Sylvia Woods, Miss Helen Lee, Mr. Slater and Mrs. Spitzbart.

The Bach program on Wednesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce by the musical section of the Arts League will be under the direction of Mrs. Martin Ferechelian of the First Unitarian church, as follows: "Ave Maria," Bach-Gounod Piano, "Solree," Bach Sketch, "Life of Bach," Mrs. G. Ebsen.

Christmas song from Bach. Prof. John R. Sites will render two cello solos.

Mrs. Gilbert will present a plea for suitable quarters for the Arts League where an art exhibit to the city of Salem can be built up. The city at present has no place for an art gallery or a collection of art objects.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross have moved from 266 N. Capitol street to their new home, 222 Lincoln street, on Lincoln hill.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor, who was accompanied by Mrs. Estes Snedecor of Portland, is home from a two months' motor trip in Southern California. Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise met the tourists in San Francisco last week, the party returning together.

Preparations for the "Made in Oregon" fair on Wednesday evening at the First Congregational church are taking more and more definite form. The various Oregon products received will be offered for sale. A banquet of Oregon products will be served in the evening, with the committee in charge including: Mrs. W. D. Clark, chairman; Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mrs. Alice W. Dodd and Miss Edith Hazard.

One of Friday evening's charming affairs was the bridge party at which Mrs. Hugh Kyle entertained at the S. S. East home, inviting guests for three tables. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Chambers won the high score, the consolation prize going to Miss Dorothea Steusloff. Yellow chrysanthemums were used in the rooms where a luncheon was served following the playing. The hostess was assisted during the evening by Mrs. Claude Steusloff.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Steusloff, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Chambers, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and the hostess, Mrs. Hugh Kyle.

The Writer's club will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Perry Reigleman, 940 Mill street.

A reception and homecoming for Tuesday evening is being planned by Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star to follow the special meeting of the afternoon. A second meeting will also be held for the conferring of degrees. A homecoming is planned, with a delightful program and social hour. Mrs. F. E. Shaler is chairman of the committee in charge. The reception will especially honor the 1924 members. For the afternoon meeting the officers of the Chapter are making the arrangements. All visiting members of the order are especially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb were hosts at a 24-cover supper party Monday evening at the Spa following the Monday night Christmas formal. A beautiful basket of bronze chrysanthemums centered the table.

The Salem Music Teachers' association will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts for a particularly interesting December meeting. Stephen Whitford, pianist, of Portland, will give the entire program of the evening. The business meeting will be at 8 o'clock, the program following.

Mrs. Effie Hollister of Pasadena, Calif., who has been a house guest for several days at the home of Mrs. M. C. Pettes left yesterday for Portland before returning to her home.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, instructor in art history at Willamette university, made an interesting journey to Sholls, Washington county, to talk to the enterprising Woman's club of the community. Mrs. Dodd, who spoke to the group on Art, found a very responsive audience.

The members of the Women's Civic League at their meeting Wednesday night at the Chamber of Commerce elected Miss Ethel Fletcher as their new secretary. The League decided to fill a Christmas stocking for a poor child, under the auspices of the Associated charities. Mrs. Clarence Hamilton and Mrs. Bernard Shucking will take charge.

The members of the American Legion auxiliary will be guests of the Legion tomorrow evening at a dance at McCormack hall. The auxiliary will meet for a business meeting preceding the dance.

The Corona club of the Salem high school met at the home of Theodore A. Shanks, North Liberty street, on Friday evening. The occasion was the regular monthly meeting of the club, and after a brief business session a fine program of games and music was enjoyed. The program consisted of the following numbers. Solo, Drifting Along, Lois Plummer.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Neer and little daughter, Natalie, left this morning for a trip to Pasadena, California.

The Highland Parent Teachers' association will sponsor a delightful program on Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the school house; the numbers to be given by the musicians of Moore's Music house. The proceeds from the program will go toward the soup kitchen and the Highland branch of the library.

Mrs. S. S. East who has been ill at the Salem hospital for the past four weeks will be able to return to her home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Neer and little daughter, Natalie, left this morning for a trip to Pasadena, California.

The Jason Lee Memorial Methodist church will put on its program of Christmas music a week early this year on account of the number of Willamette university students that are in the choir and who will be out of the city for Christmas holidays at the normal time for presenting this music. The date scheduled for this program is this coming Friday evening at 7:30 and will take the entire time of the evening service. The plan this year is to as nearly as possible present the wonderful Christmas story in its wide aspects rather than centering on the incident of the birth of the Christ child. Prof. Clark who is choir director has gone to considerable pains to select the words and music that would best meet the larger meaning of the coming of Christ, and for months now he has been working with his musicians to make the occasion really worth while to all who attend.

The music will be presented in two parts, and will be composed of male and female choruses, choruses of mixed voices, duets, and solo work. Part One is grouped under the title of "The Narrative" and is composed of the following numbers: "The World In Despair"; "Jehova Promises Aid"; "The Annunciation"; "The Son of the Angels"; "The Shepherds"; "The Nativity"; "Part Two is grouped under the title of the Christmas Message, and is composed of the following numbers: "The Song is Ringing Still"; "The Star of Bethlehem Was My Guide"; "Jesus Shines Brighter"; "Glad Heralds of Light"; "Give Praise and Adoration"; "Messengers of Peace"; "Great and Mighty Sovereign."

To add to the congregations enjoyment of the service the words printed in leaflet form will be placed in the hands of all.

The choir of the First Methodist Episcopal Church will present its annual Christmas concert on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, December 14th. Prof. E. W. Hobson of the Willamette School of Music has been training the choir for this concert for several weeks, and a splendid program has been prepared. Prof. T. S. Roberts will preside at the organ, which in the last two years has been greatly enriched in quality and volume by the addition of several new stops. The choir is made up of more than 50 voices, most of them trained, and they have earned the reputation of being one of the best church choirs in the northwest. The public is invited to share in this musical festival.

The program which is to be presented will be as follows:

- Organ Prelude—
- "Noel" . . . . . Dudley Buck
- Prof. T. S. Roberts
- Christmas Bells . . . . . Forsyth
- The Choir
- Scripture Reading and Prayer

This Rubber-Massage Quickly Reduces Waist and Hips

Madame X Girdle Gives Slimmer Lines Instantly

THE instant you put on this marvelous girdle, you look inches thinner, your body is erect and graceful—and you actually get thinner almost before you know it. In a few weeks you will find 5 to 10 inches gone from waist, hips and thighs!

The Madame X Reducing Girdle is made of soft, live rubber (to really grip and give a genuine massage)—the very kind professional athletes have long used to reduce safely. Takes off 1 to 3 inches the first week. Worn over undergarment instead of a corset. Has garters attached. Keeps pores open, gives wonderful support.

Gently massages away fat with every motion you make. Thousands of women who do not need to reduce, wear it because it is so comfortable. Strong, durable—won't split or tear—easily adjustable day by day as you become more slender. See the Madame X for yourself. Try it on today!

Five hundred and gaming were the diversions of the evening when the members of the newly formed "Entree-Notus" club were entertained on Wednesday evening as the guests of Mrs. H. W. Hale. A group of twenty were present for the delightful gathering.

Mrs. E. H. Shanks, of the First Baptist Church, entertained the Ladies' Society yesterday afternoon. She was assisted by Messames, Harms, Willis, Vail, D. R. Peterson, J. V. Dencer. About seventy five ladies were present and an attractive program built around the Christmas theme was given. The decorations were suitable to the Christmas season, with a tree and red and green festoons. Mrs. H. S. Gile was the leader of program which was made up of stories and the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Shanks and Miss Ruth E. Ross sang "The Angelic Choir."—Ashford, Accompaniment Miss Gail McClean. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. B. F. Helkes of Dalles was among those present.

Silverton, Ore., Dec. 13.—Lawrence Carpenter was the inspiration of a delightful small dinner party at the home of his parents Friday evening, the occasion being his 17th birthday. The rooms were decorated in the season's reds and greens, a Christmas tree forming the center piece at the table. Following the dinner the young people spent the evening in dancing. Those attending were Lawrence Carpenter, Dorothy Neal Brenda Bowen, Sophia Brendon, Ida Oss, Isabel McGinnies, Arthur Clark, Merle Larsen.

The Senior Standard Bearers of the First Methodist church will meet at 7:15 o'clock tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Ben-Jamin Blatchford, 1745 State street, for the Christmas meeting. Esther Lisle and Pira Franklin will be the hostesses. Miss Ruth Field will be the honor guest of the evening. Mrs. Grace Allen will have charge of the lesson hour.

"Open House" was observed last night at the three Willamette University sororities, the affair being one of the most attractive, formal events of the college social calendar.

A color scheme of orange and blue predominated at the Delta Phi house, 757 Center street, where calling hours were from 7:30 to 9 o'clock. The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Jeannie Corskie, Miss Ruth Ross, and Miss Zeldia Mulkey. Miss Eloise Reed introduced to the receiving line which included: Miss Lucia Card, Professor and Mrs. E. T. Brown, Professor and Mrs. Gustav Ebsen, Miss Mary Findley, Miss Hulda Hagman, Miss Adelia White, and Mrs. John Reed. Large yellow chrysanthemums were used in the hall. In the rooms ivory baskets of pink roses tied with orange and blue tulle were used. Orange tapers burned in a silver candelabra. Miss Marjorie Minton and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman presided at the punch bowls. The music of the evening consisted of vocal duets by Misses Mary and Fay Spaulding, violin numbers by Miss Kathryn Kirk and Miss Jeannie Corskie, and piano solos by Miss Mildred Tomlinson and as a symbol of love and good cheer from the first Christmas to the Christmas of today. It was an early custom to give honeyed things that the year might be full of sweetness, lamps that it might be filled with light; copper, silver and gold that wealth might flow. Our gifts this Christmas bear these same messages of love and cheer, for Christmas and gift-giving are the same in all ages
