TRIBUTE IS PAID TO JUDGE BINGHAM

Late Marion Circuit Judge Honored By County Bar Association Friday

Tribute was paid to the memory of the late George G. Bingham, circuit judge, Friday, by the Marion County Bar association, when they accepted resolutions framed by a special committee.

The resolutions recited the story of Judge Bingham's life and touched upon his personal characteristics.

"A dominant element and note that ran through Judge Bingham's whole life was his love of nature," states the resolutions in part. "He loved his summer home on the sea shore at Neskwim and took pride in the fact that much of its structure and domestic comforts were the handiwork of his own hands. He kept his body physically fit all his life. . . . While his life was one of great industry and close application to business, yet he was a companionable man and of amiable disposition."

"His high professional attainments, industry and ability to dispatch litigation brought to him frequent assignments to duty in outside districts and he became respected as a lawyer and a judge throughout the state by reason of such frequent sittings in outside districts. . . . It may be said of him with utmost candor that he was a gentleman, a good citizen, a loyal friend, a devoted husband and father, a good lawyer and a righteous judge. His ideals were high and his life work now done will stand as an inspiration for those of us who come after."
