Mr. and Mrs. Paul Todd (Ruth Hodge) are receiving many felicitations upon the birth of a baby daughter Christmas morning at the Salem hospital. The little girl has received the name of Carol Fiolette, the first name because she is a Christmas child and the second name to honor her two grandmothers—Grandmother Florence Todd, and Grandmother Etta Hodge. Mrs. Todd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodge, was formerly Ruth Hodge, and has a host of friends in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Todd are now making their home in Eatonville, Wash., out from Tacoma.

Yesterday was further a festive day in the Hodge family, celebrating as it did the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hodge. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rosecrans were dinner guests for the occasion.

As delightful an observance as Christmas held was the caroling on Christmas eve by groups from the MacDowell club. Carols were sung in the frosty air for shut-ins and convalescents throughout the town. This joy-bringing custom has for four years been observed by the MacDowell club. The carol was long ago originated in England.

Interesting Christmas music will feature on the December social meeting of the Salem Woman's club tomorrow at the Woman's club house. Three octet numbers, "Silent Night," Neidinger's "Oh, Quiet Night," and "O'er the World in Silence Sleeping," by Harris, will be especially delightful. These numbers will be sung by a group of young vocalists under the competent direction of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, the group including Miss Helen Pettyjohn, Miss Unta Kirk, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Elaine Foster, Ronald Craven, Collis Marsters, Manning Bros., and Theodore Krueger. Miss Lucille Anderson will be at the piano.

The Christmas message will be given in an inspirational way by Reverend Ward Willis Long.

The social committee for the afternoon includes: Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. Walter Stolz, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. H. M. Chadwick, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. Alton Harley, Mrs. R. K. Ohlms, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, and Mrs. H. S. Gile.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Davies are entertaining as their Christmas-time guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Taylor and their daughter, Barbara; and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor, and daughter, Velma, the families being from Portland.

Phoenix club members were delightfully entertained with a Christmas party earlier in the week at the home of Miss Margaret Tucker. The evening was charmingly informal.

The guests of Miss Tucker were: Miss Hazel Paden, club adviser, Miss Hazel George, Miss Odile Matthews, Miss Pauline Marnach, Miss Fay Wassom, Miss Jennie May Hopkins, Miss Florence Busch, Miss Dorothy Swegle, Miss Alma Farmer, Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Faye Walz, Miss Leona Geer, Miss Gladys Murphy, Miss Dorothy Bell, Miss Gwendolyn Harris, Miss Gladys Albin, Miss Wilma Giesy, Miss Josephine Jaskoski, and Miss Margaret Tucker.

Miss Gertrude West is home from Seattle, spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. West.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman are holiday guests in Victoria, B. C.

Miss Mattie Beatty has as her guests for the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Taylor and daughter, Barbara Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor and daughter, Velma, all of Portland.

Miss Dorothy Livesley is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger had as their guests on Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Schissler and children, Barbara and Frances, of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. McAdoo of Scio were guests of Salem relatives for Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes were hosts at a charmingly appointed Christmas dinner yesterday at their home.

Covers for the occasion were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Willard Seton Kaufman of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs. Frank Power, Miss Florence Power, Miss Delores Williams, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman will be guests at the Barnes' home until Sunday.

Miss Edith Hazard and her father, E. W. Hazard, are Christmas guests at the Sawyer home in Seattle.

A delightful Christmas meeting of the Monday afternoon bridge club was that at which Mrs. A. H. Moore was the hostess at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe following an afternoon of playing at her home. A beautifully ornamented Christmas tree was the decorative feature in the tea room.

Mrs. Ann Klein received the high score of the afternoon. A special guest for the meeting was Miss Ruth Moore.

Club members present for the Christmas meeting were: Mrs. H. S. Poissal, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. R. E. Anderson, Mrs. F. E. Shafer, and Mrs. J. R. Pollock.

The Mothers' Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. T. Moore, 110 Division street. Assisting Mrs. Moore during the afternoon will be Mr. Heineck, Mrs. Waterman, and Mrs. Stolzheise. Mrs. Taft will conduct the devotions.

Two hundred guests were present for one of the largest and most festive Christmas affairs of the season when Mrs. Ralph White entertained in Derby hall at her annual Christmas party. A laden Christmas tree gave the keynote in the elaborate and lovely decorations with streamers and boughs of greenery completely transforming the hall.

The evening's music was furnished by a six piece orchestra. Mrs. White was assisted through the evening by Miss Lucile Pettyjohn, Miss Wassam, Miss Luella Patton, Miss Valeria Briggs, Mrs. Armin Berger and Mrs. James Teed.

To the delight of the guests Santa Claus appeared with his pack of gifts early in the evening.

Christmas carols and dance features added to the pleasure of the evening. Miss Cynthia Delano took the part of a Christmas fairy. The tiniest children interpreted the "Marriage of Jenny Wren and Cock Robin," while the beginners became the tinsel fairies, and the intermediate class the parts of "Jingle Bells." "Christmas Tree Trimnings" was the number by the second year girls.
