Make Educational Trip—
The boys of the YMCA who went on the educational tour to the Valley Packing company were able to see how Salem's meat supply was handled. Of special interest, the boys stated, was the manner in which the porkers were cared for. The trip consisted of a visit to all departments of the plant which prepared the meat for the market. Today the boys are to

Plumbers Are Busy—
Plumbers of Salem are kept busy day and night, according to local reports, and it will be a fortnight before the work is caught up with. Many of the frozen water pipes were burst and as a result many of them had to be replaced. Occupants of homes, who thought the pipe had only one break, found that several breaks had occurred.

Odd and End Sale—
10 to 50 per cent discount. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. d31

Skills Are Sold—
Raising his bid from 6 to 9 cents a pound for the 1,000-pound collection of copper stills, a collection of distilleries accumulated by the sheriff's office during the last year, was sold Tuesday to Steinbach, local junk dealer. The stills will be broken up and rendered unfit for further use before being re-sold to Portland dealers. A Portland junk man offered 10 cents a pound, f.o.b. Portland, but the offer was rejected in favor of the local dealer. Freight rates from Salem to Portland are a quarter-cent a pound and the difference in the bids was so little that the contract was offered to Steinbach.

Tonite—Tonite—
Dance at the Gray Belle. d31

Fetish Adorns Desk—
A wooden rod bedecks the desk of David W. Eyre, president of the United National bank, which was sent to him by a friend in China. The god is to protect the president from all worries and griefs according to the guarantee which came with it. Evidently the specimen is a work of jackknife carving.

Tables May be Reserved—
In advance for the dance at the Gray Belle this evening. d31

Collects Bounties—
Gilbert Myers, of Gates, was in the city yesterday to collect a total of $35 on the scalps of seven wildcats he and his brother had shot with a .22 calibre rifle and the aid of a dog. One of the wildcats weighed 40 pounds and is said to be one of the largest ever shot in the district. Shooting is god this year, the heavy sows having driven the wildcats to the lower areas. A bounty of $5 is paid on each wildcat scalp, the county paying $2 and the state $3 for each scalp.

Special New Year Dance—
At Schindler hall, Wednesday night. d-31*

Convict Re-Arrested—
Two weeks out of the penitentiary was all that Edward Smith, colored, could stand. Smith, a three-time loser, was released at the expiration of his sentence on December 11. During the last week-end he was arrested in Portland charged with seven burglaries and a reign of terror on the west side. Smith escaped from the brickyard October 24, 1923, when he became "peevish" with his treatment as a member of the prison orchestra. His escape threatened to demoralize the music for the annual prison show, then in progress. He was returned November 12, the same year, after being captured in Seattle. Smith was received November 23, 1921, to serve three years for larceny in Multnomah county. Because of the loss of all good time credits Smith was forced to serve the entire three years.

Odd and End Dish Sale—
H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. d31

Motion Day Coming—
The circuit court for the January term will be prepared by Judge Kelly Friday when he holds motion day. Department No. 1 is to open January 1, and the cases were for that court.

Wife Played Rough—
Throwing dishes about the house proved too much for Charles L. Whitney, who has brought a divorce suit against his wife, Alice L. Whitney. Not only did the bill for crockery amount up but he was driven from the house, out into the barn, and forced to sleep in the hay, he declares in his complaint. This was bad enough, but to cap the climax the developed habit of bringing other men home. Whitney balked at this point and according to the complaint, he and his wife separated early this month. All he wants is to be restored his freedom from the bonds of matrimony. The couple were married in Vancouver, Wash., in January 1923.

Limited Train Planned—
Three railroad companies operating out of Portland have entered into a contract for a limited train between Portland and Puget Sound points, according to a letter received by the public service commission. Earnings of the train will be pooled, according to the contract, for it is held that none of the railroads is justified to operate an individual limited train. The petition is now pending before the interstate commerce commission and the support of the Oregon commission is asked. The three companies are the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and the Union Pacific. All operate over the same rails between Portland and Seattle.

Gets Vancouver License—
A Vancouver marriage license has been issued to J. Melvin Riveson of Silverton and Alice Reinertson of Rider, N. D.

"Stool Pigeon" Pardoned—
Because J. P. Miranda, convicted Portland bootlegger, is too valuable as a "stool pigeon" to spend his time in jail, he was issued a pardon by Governor Walter M. Pierce. Favor was shown because the man had turned state's evidence and is in direct line with an established police, the governor said. A number of liquor law violators were arrested and convicted upon his evidence, Governor Pierce said.

Fire Run Made—
The fire department answered a call last night to 460 North Commercial in answer to an alarm turned in because of a chimney blaze.

Police Court News—
G. C. Doynt forfeited a $5 bail which he had placed after being arrested for cutting corners. W. Ellis was arrested for speeding because he insisted on traveling 27 miles an hour through the main part of the business city and 22 miles at the intersections of streets. Officer Breneman arrested F. Jackson for begging.

Classes to be Held—
Citizenship classes are to be held at the YMCA during the whole of this week, although the others are to be discontinued during the holidays. It was felt that the importance of the classes did not warrant the vacation.

Quintet Leaves Today—
Coach Rathbun and seven of Willamette university's basketball players leave this morning for Longview, Wash., where they will meet the Long-Bell quintet tonight. Those making the trip are Fasnacht, Pofing, Mast, Emmel, Desart, Erickson and Steincipher. They will be joined in Portland by Hartley and probably Robertson.

New Wool Rates Sought—
H. H. Corey, public service commissioner, is slated to attend a conference in Portland today prior to a hearing in Chicago on January 15 relative to new rates being sought by the Boston Woolen association. The rates asked are a reduction to 60 per cent of the present rate on wool from the point of origin to Pacific ports, plus a water rate of 90 cents per 100 pounds from Portland to Boston, via the Panama canal. Such a rate, it is held, would place the coast woolen mills at a disadvantage, with everything favoring the eastern manufacturer. Request to have a representative at the ICC conference today was received from W. E. D. Dotson, manager of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Gets Action on Flowers—
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bechtel were listening in on a San Diego radio concert Saturday to hear Miss Lillian Althouse, saxophonist and daughter of their old friend, offer four solos between 8 and 10 o'clock Saturday night. After the first number Mr. Bechtel stepped to the telephone and asked C. F. Breithaupt, telegraph florist, if he could get a rush order through for some flowers. Before the radio program was completed and Miss Althouse was announced for her last number, Mr. Bechtel heard the announcer say that a bouquet of flowers had just been received for Miss Althouse from Mr. and Mrs. Bechtel, of Salem. Several other Salem radio fans reported to Mr. Bechtel that they had also heard the announcement.

cially of the attitude of the White House regarding another naval limitations conference. It was at the suggestion of Mr. Butler, however, that the motion, as approved, was made. The chairman said he offered the motion because he had been charged with attempting to override the will of the committee. Mr. Coolidge will exert his influence to bring about another arms limitation conference whenever the time is considered propitious, but at present he is unable to determine just when such a conference could be called with fair prospects of success. The action of the house committee was appointment between those directing to take a bill proposing a naval building program and members who sought to have the committee direct its attention to a measure designed to adjust certain irregularities in the naval establishment.
