

G. W. Johnson & Company

Open in our new Location Friday Morning. 469 STATE

BEN SEZ

This is Closed Car Weather. We have 2 Overland Sedans at sale prices. 1922 Model, run about 5000 miles. Just broke in. The 1924 model is just like new. COME IN TODAY VICK BROS.

Oliver, boys' secretary of the Salem YMCA; Benjamin J. Kimber, county YMCA executive, and Loyd Warner, club leader of the local organization.

Hamilton's January Furniture—Sale begins Friday. Big saving throughout the store. Hamilton's, furniture, 340 Court St.

Girls to Organize—About 12 women of the Salem Girl Reserve organization who are graduates of the Salem high school plan to organize a club. Definite steps were taken last night when the group assembled at the Franklin cabin for an all-night meeting. They plan to form a business girls' club here.

For Sale—Show case, to be seen at Model Beauty parlor.

New Year's Dinner—Roast goose, all the fixin's—75c. Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, 12 to 8 p. m.

Smallpox Reported—One case of smallpox in Marion county was reported to the city health officer yesterday. It is located at Silvertown.

Income Property—Leased for $175 per month—$21,000; terms, Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg.

Births Reported—Betty Alta was the name given to a baby daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lovi Jones at the Salem hospital, according to a certificate of birth filed with the city health officer yesterday. The birth occurred December 22.

Save Money—On clothing, Schel's New Year's sale starts Friday.

High Grade Player Piano—Like new. Left with us to sell. Will sacrifice for $295.00. A snap. See this Tallman Piano store, 395 So. 12th near S. P. Depot.

Students Hear Experts—Fred Williams, manager of the typewriter department of the Atlas Book and Stationery store, delivered a lecture on "Typewriter Mechanism" at the Pacific Export school yesterday during a class session.

Kuppenheimer Clothes—For the first time at sale prices. Schel's New Year's sale. Starts Friday.

Scouts Visit Chemawa—Salem Boy Scouts have been invited by George Bent, scout commissioner at Chemawa, to spend Friday in the woods near Chemawa. The Salem Scouts will leave on the Oregon Electric at 7:05 Friday morning and return at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They will be in charge of Harold L. Cook, former scout executive.

Men's Overcoats at Sale Prices—Fullerton's, 584 State street, over the Spa.

See Halk & Koff for—Radio sets. Phone 488.

Assumes New Position—Miss Florence Gower has accepted the position of bookkeeper at the Steinhoff Bros. meat market, replacing Miss Veda McCoy, who is entering the Oregon normal school.

Start the New Year Right—Stuffed goose dinner, 75 cents, served 12 to 8 p. m. o'clock at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe.

Fine All-Wool—Double breasted, plaid-back overcoats at $20.00. Thomas Kay Woolen Mill Co.

Boys Continue Tours—About 75 boys were personally conducted through the Spaulding sawmill by Glen Niles, on the third educational tour held by the Salem YMCA during the Christmas holiday program. Friday the boys are to be conducted through the paper mill during the morning and in the afternoon will visit the Cherry City baking plant. The tours are conducted by Clarence

East New Year's Dinner—At the Gray Belle. Roast turkey served all day.

Fine Cotton Comforts—On sale Friday morning. See window display. Hamilton's, 340 Court St.

Osteopathy the Original—And genuine spinal adjustment. Skillful and painless corrective treatment that gets results. Dr. Marshall, 228 Oregon Bldg.

East New Year's Dinner—At the Gray Belle. Roast turkey served all day.

A Young Lady—Attending the Capital Business College was heard to say one day in conversation with some student friends, "Don't you know, this is a good school. My daddy went to this school 25 years ago?" A school that was good enough for her daddy was good enough for her, and she was right. This young lady now holds one of the most responsible positions in Salem. What she did, others can do. Enroll now to begin work next week. Day and night sessions.

Lot Dropped—Fairmount Hill lot, pavement paid, $950; wonderful view; cheapest lot in district. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg.

Disc Chevrolet Buys—Reversible, 30x40 inches. Regular $5.00, special, $3.95 while they last. Hamilton's, 340 Court St.

Lion to Talk—Lion Rev. Harry Johnson will speak on "Taking Stock of Ourselves" at the Friday luncheon of the Lions club. Leslie Springer has arranged several vocal numbers and a surprise number is promised members.

Cotton Mattress—40-lb. weight, good art tick, roll edge. Sale price, $7.85. Hamilton's, 340 Court St.

Land Board Reports—More than $90,000 was handled by the state land board during December. It was shown in the monthly statement prepared yesterday by George Brown, secretary. The exact total was $91,376.13. Classification of the various amounts are common school fund, principal, payments on loans and income sources, $47,702.87; interest of fund, $40,357.32; OAC fund, interest, $487.50; university fund, principal, payments on loans $991; interest on university fund, $438; rural credits loan fund principal, $557.42; rural credits reserve fund, interest, $512.02; A. R. Burbank trust fund interest, $129; Apperson fund, principal, $200.

Floor Lamps—30 to 40 per cent discount. Hamilton's January clearance sale.

Contract Disapproved—Contract for the sale of 53,000 acre-feet of water and the use of the headworks and diversion canal for $400,000 in bonds of the district between the Powell Butte irrigation district and the North Canal company was unanimously disapproved Wednesday by the state irrigation securities commission. A contract between the west land irrigation district, in Umatilla county, and the federal reclamation service, involving the storage rights in the new McKay reservoir, was approved by the commission.

Large Mahala Davenport—Special at January sale, $99.85. Hamilton's, 340 Court St.

Psychology Class—Rev. Martin Pereshetian's psychology class will not be held today on account of the holiday. Classes, however, will be resumed the following Thursday.

Fred Patton Visits—Fred Patton, former Willamette university basketball star, left yesterday for Enterprise, Or., where he is coach of athletics in the high school. Patton is a member of the 1924 class at Willamette and is also instructor in the Enterprise high school.

Onks Addition Lot—Best lot for the money in district—$1,000. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg.

Made Trustee—Miss Kathryn Gunnell, of the firm of Gunnell & Robb studios, has been appointed trustee of a special fund, which has been established by the photographers to be used during the Pacific International convention to be staged in the Pacific northwest during 1926. It is to be used as a reserve fund.

PERSONALS—J. W. Carlton from southern Oregon was a Salem visitor yesterday. Linn W. Nesbitt from Klamath Falls was in Salem yesterday on business. Alton D. Hurley, Sr., of Seattle is visiting his son, Alton D. Hurley Jr., manager of the Fairmount Dairy. R. A. Ford of Dayville, a member of the house of representatives from Grant county, was in the city yesterday calling upon Roy

OUR PLUMBING'S AS SOLID AS OLD MOTHER EARTH—WE CHARGE YOU EXACTLY WHAT EACH JOB IS WORTH!

PLUMBING

NELSON BROS. 355 Chemeketa Phone 1906

INHERITANCE TAX DEPARTMENT BUSY

Nine Hundred Cases Filled During Year; Only Ten Cases are Litigated

Nine hundred cases were filed with the inheritance tax department in 1924, according to a report issued Wednesday. The amount of tax collected and turned over to the general fund was $414,947.71 while the uncollected balance at the close of the business year was $75,870.74. Ten cases were litigated during the year, as follows: Bernard Daly Bert C. Ball, Charles D. Bowles, Ella L. Woodward, Moses Baruh, George W. Lawrence, George F. Luttinghaus, Irvin Butterworth, Frederick Anderson and Catherine Petrus. Of these 10 cases, four have been completed and collected. One has been settled on stipulation. The Bernard Daly case, involving the sum of tax in excess of $150,000 has been appealed to the circuit court and is awaiting trial. The Charles D. Bowles case, involving in the neighborhood of $100,000 tax has been tried in the circuit court but no decision rendered yet. The Ella L. Woodward case, involving $18,000 tax is awaiting decision in the circuit court of Multnomah county.

Klein, state highway engineer, and other state house officials.

W. B. Dennis of Carlton was in the city yesterday visiting at the office of Governor Pierce. Mr. Dennis is chairman of the committee appointed by the governor to consider a revision of the motor vehicle license law schedule which will be presented to the legislature at the approaching session. George M. King of the Buster Brown shoe store has returned from an extended eastern buying trip.

John Mitchell is visiting in Eugene for a few days. He is guard at the state prison. Mrs. I. N. Woods leaves today for Oakland, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hay will leave soon for Hammett, Idaho. Dr. H. E. Chase will leave for Los Angeles and Mrs. Chase for Seattle today.

J. G. Nees will leave for San Diego in a few days. He is to attend a convention of soap manufacturers.

Col. E. Hofer, president of the Oregon state humane society, is spending the week-end at his cabin on Agate Beach.

R. E. Jones of Brooks was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Flora Hill of Chemawa transacted business in Salem Wednesday morning.

E. E. Staats of Airline was in Salem Wednesday.

Miss Marjorie Fliegel, former student at Willamette university and who is now director of Girl

Spa NEW YEAR'S DINNER $1.00 Fresh Crab Cocktail Cheese Straws Olives Crisp Chilled Celery Consomme Epicure Cream of Asparagus Soup Roman Punch Sauce Small Filet of Beef Bordelaise Tea Biscuits Roast Prime Ribs of Beef With Natural Gravy Stuffed Young Oregon Turkey Oyster Stuffing and Cranberry Sauce, Petite Carrots and Peas in Gravy Mashed Pots Shrimp Salad Mayonnaise French Peas DESSERTS Choice of Pies—7 Kinds, Faddings, Cakes, Plum Pudding, Jelly, Spa Ice Cream, Cup Custards—All Home-made Tea, Coffee, Milk, Chocolate YOU WILL ENJOY YOUR DINNER AT THE SPA

Reserve work in Portland, is visiting with Maxine Buren here for a few days. H. M. Macemurray of McMinnville was a Salem visitor yesterday. Representative Fuller of Daljas was in Salem Wednesday. He represents Lincoln and Polk counties in the state legislature. Ray L. Smith motored to Portland yesterday on business. Mrs. J. E. Clayton and daughter, Mary, of Dallas, was in Salem Wednesday. Miss Phyllis Palmer, instructor in the Falls City high school, will return to duty today after spending the holidays at her home in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ridell were in Salem from Monmouth yesterday. Theodore Resch was here from Aurora Wednesday. R. A. Harris, realtor, has returned to his office after being

25,000 Pounds of Grape Root WANTED Also Fir Pitch Capital Bargain House The House of a Million and One Bargains 215 CENTER

Wells Tallman & Son GREETINGS With the closing of the Old Year, we desire to express our appreciation to all those who have so generously contributed by their patronage to our success in the real estate business and we are greatly encouraged to believe that with the many nice properties recently added to our For Sale List, that the New Year will bring to us an increasingly larger number of buyers and that our efforts in the coming year, may be crowned with much greater success than that enjoyed in the past. We are always glad to meet personally in our office, any of our old patrons or anyone we can serve in our line of business and promise our best efforts in effecting sales of their properties. With a kindly greeting for the New Year, we beg to remain, Faithfully yours, WELLS TALLMAN & SON 229 Oregon Building Salem, Oregon

Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. Salem, Oregon MANUFACTURERS Sulphite, and Manila Wrappings, also Butchers Wrappings, Adding Machine Paper, Greaseproof, Glassine, Drug Bond, Tissue Screenings and Specialties.

Bonds That Pass Every Test Bonds, which are secured by Salem income property and producing Willamette Valley farms, yield 6% return. They offer the best security and have a non-fluctuating resale market. These are the three important factors of an investment. The mortgages securing these Bonds are held in Trust by the First National Bank of Salem. The Bonds are in denominations of $100 or multiples thereof. Write or phone for our circular giving full information regarding this investment offer. Reference any bank in Salem Hawkins & Roberts, Inc. 205 Oregon Building. Salem, Oregon

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Little Ho-Pop—Seemingly without any explanation whatsoever, the 100 sheep of Henry Zorn returned to his pasture lot after he had reported the band stolen. Zorn sent in the report to the police officials some time ago that the sheep had been stolen from his ranch near Champog.

Will Sacrifice—All our phonographs for quick sale. $150 Edison $75. $125 Victor $75. Others reduced in proportion. Terms. Tallman Piano store. 395 South 12th near S. P. Depot.

Still Is Taken—Peter Mourer, who was arrested by deputy sheriffs yesterday on a charge of operating a still, was arraigned in justice court and bail was placed at $250. The case will come up for final action tomorrow. About 70 gallons of rye mash was found, together with one gallon of liquor. Mourer lives about a mile north of the Pudding river bridge, on the Salem-Silvertown road.

New Year's Dinner—Roast goose, all the fixin's—75c. Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe, 12 to 8 p. m.

License Taken—A marriage license was issued in the county clerk's office yesterday went to John E. Hatfield of Dixonville, Or., and Nellie Pickens, Salem.

Miss Dibble Will Enroll—New students in expression Jan. 2 and 3, afternoons, at the studio, 180 N. Commercial street.

Cannery Meeting Set—Final formation of a state central selling agency for canneries will be made at a meeting in Portland January 5. Canners to be represented are Stayton, Mt. Angel, Silvertown, Springbrook, Gresham and Newberg.

See Our Page Ad—This issue. Schel's New Year's sale.

Takes Long Fall—Robert Weber, Silvertown youth, fell from the top of the Oregon state prison wall and suffered injuries to his legs yesterday morning. He had climbed a ladder which had been set against the wall and when he reached the top a timber gave way and he was precipitated to the ground 20 feet below. One knee cap appeared to be broken and the other badly injured, after a medical examination was made.

Furnished House—For rent. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co.

Gravel for Road—Officials of the Oregon City Gravel company met with County Commissioner Smith and Road Foreman Frank Johnson yesterday in a conference relative to securing gravel to be placed on the road between Champog and Butteville. Gravel can be bought cheaper in Oregon City because of the proximity to the road, it is said.

Hamilton's January Clearance—Sale begins tomorrow morning, 340 Court St.

Cherry Men to Meet—A meeting of cherry growers of Marion and Polk counties has been called for the Chamber of Commerce at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by O. E. Brooks, chairman. Matters of interest, including cooperation with other western states relative to a higher duty on cherries, will be discussed.

Kuppenheimer Clothes—For the first time at sale prices. Schel's New Year's sale. Starts Friday.

Scouts Visit Chemawa—Salem Boy Scouts have been invited by George Bent, scout commissioner at Chemawa, to spend Friday in the woods near Chemawa. The Salem Scouts will leave on the Oregon Electric at 7:05 Friday morning and return at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They will be in charge of Harold L. Cook, former scout executive.

New Year's Ball AT AUDITORIUM Wednesday—Always Best LADIES FREE

Skating, Skating, Skating At Dreamland Thursday, Friday, Saturday 7:30 to 10 p. m. Hear Our New Callopes

Men's Overcoats at Sale Prices—Fullerton's, 584 State street, over the Spa.

See Halk & Koff for—Radio sets. Phone 488.

Assumes New Position—Miss Florence Gower has accepted the position of bookkeeper at the Steinhoff Bros. meat market, replacing Miss Veda McCoy, who is entering the Oregon normal school.

Start the New Year Right—Stuffed goose dinner, 75 cents, served 12 to 8 p. m. o'clock at the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe.

Fine All-Wool—Double breasted, plaid-back overcoats at $20.00. Thomas Kay Woolen Mill Co.

Boys Continue Tours—About 75 boys were personally conducted through the Spaulding sawmill by Glen Niles, on the third educational tour held by the Salem YMCA during the Christmas holiday program. Friday the boys are to be conducted through the paper mill during the morning and in the afternoon will visit the Cherry City baking plant. The tours are conducted by Clarence

East New Year's Dinner—At the Gray Belle. Roast turkey served all day.

Fine Cotton Comforts—On sale Friday morning. See window display. Hamilton's, 340 Court St.

Osteopathy the Original—And genuine spinal adjustment. Skillful and painless corrective treatment that gets results. Dr. Marshall, 228 Oregon Bldg.

East New Year's Dinner—At the Gray Belle. Roast turkey served all day.

A Young Lady—Attending the Capital Business College was heard to say one day in conversation with some student friends, "Don't you know, this is

WOODRY Buys Furniture Phone 511

Typewriters ALL MAKES 25 Down $2 Monthly G. H. Lockwood 247 N. Com. St. Phone 866

TERMINAL TAXI SERVICE Cars for hire without drivers PHONE 2020 Day and Night Service

POPULAR PRICED Men's and Young Men's Tailored Suits $25 to $45 D. H. MOSHER TAILOR

Dr. E. H. White Osteopathy - Surgery Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abram's method) Office Phone 859 or 469-J 506 U. S. Bank Bldg.

LADD & BUSH BANKERS Established 1908 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

We Carry all Sizes of Coal from the large furnace to the smallest nut size. Tell us for what purpose the coal is required and we'll point out the proper size to use. But although we carry all sizes, we handle only one quality, the very best coal from the very best mines. Our coal service is yours to command. Prices range from $10 to $15 Also handle the best Diamond Briquettes $15

RIGDON & SON'S MONUMENTARY Unequaled Service

Greetings We wish you a happy and prosperous New Year Mathis Nursery Co. Office opposite O. E. Depot, 140 S. High St.

Good Morning Doctor: Two weeks ago we filled that prescription you made out: 'Cantilevers for a Comfort-Lover' Yesterday, your patient was in, singing your praises for uncommon common sense... (What a lot of rheumatism and neuritis and lame back cases should be diagnosed weak feet!) The gentleman chose: Cantilevers for Comfort-Lovers JOHN J. ROTTLE