BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER Prepared by Radio BIBLE SERVICE Bureau, Cincinnati, Ohio. If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless benefit to them in after years.

HOW TO OVERCOME EVIL.—Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; recompense to no man evil for evil.

WHO WILL LAUGH LAST AND BEST? The Slogan editor of The Statesman has a very erudite friend who is fond of a quip or a joke, albeit mildly cynical, though very kind and never intending to be hurtful in his cynicism.

Only 30,000 License Plates Issued So Far Applications for 1925 automobile license plates fell below the daily average for the week Thursday when only 800 were issued.

Everybody Enjoys Xmas Program at North Howell NORTH HOWELL, Jan. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sawyer and two children were Sunday dinner guests at K. D. Coombers.

THE FUTURE BRIGHT (Salem Journal.) With record expenditures for new construction assured, with better than average crops predicted, with all of our industries in operation and others in prospect, the year 1925 promises a continuing operation of the steady growth and progress that Salem has enjoyed for the past six years.

THE PRICE OF WHEAT The price of wheat remains high despite the fact that the election has been over two months. Of course it was foolish over to say that the financial interests conspired to keep the price high.

MY MARRIAGE PROBLEMS Adele Garrison's New Phase of REVELATIONS OF A WIFE Copyright by Newspaper Feature Service CHAPTER 348 WHAT DID LILLIAN SEE IN THE NEWSPAPER SHE KEPT FROM MADGE? "Fried scallops and new cider!" Lillian reflected amusedly, as the door closed upon Jerry Ticer, and we went out to the side veranda—she with the newspapers, and I with the mail.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH HAS ANNUAL MEET Church Secretary and Musical Director Will Be Added to Organization The First Christian church of this city, Rev. J. J. Evans, pastor, held its annual meeting yesterday.

CHEMAWA SCOUTS ENTERTAIN TROOPS Boys Leave Early This Morning and Return From Frolic Late Today In response to an invitation by George W. Bent, Scout commissioner of the Boy Scout troops of Chemawa, the members of the Salem troops will journey to Chemawa today, for an all-day frolic in the woods near that institution.
