AUDRED BUNCH PHONE 106

ONE OF THE MOST CHARMING pre-nuptial affairs of the season was that given last night as a surprise honoring Miss Teresa Fowie whose marriage to James Kriesel will be an event of the early spring. The honor guest was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bernard, 458 South High street, with Miss Gussie Niles and Miss Lella Johnson the hostesses.

The most diverting feature of the entertainment was the crossword puzzle contest, the puzzle consisting of 30 words, which, in their proper arrangement, were found to reveal the following happily phrased toast:

"Teresa Fowie, James Kriesel, I wish you health, wealth and happiness in your new home in Albany. We shall deem it right to have you love us just the same." The winner of the crossword puzzle presented to Miss Fowie in behalf of her friends a beautiful silver tray, and an engraved glass bowl.

In the center of the dining room was arranged a long table at which 10 of the guests were seated. Mrs. W. P. Fowie, mother of the bride-elect, presided at the coffee urn. Three small tables were grouped around the larger ones. Tiny pink baskets of candy marked places for the following guests: Miss Teresa Fowie, the guest of honor, Mrs. Burns Gillette, Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, Mrs. W. P. Fowie, Mrs. Susan Varty, Mrs. Fred Gahndorf, Mrs. Emil Carlson, Mrs. T. W. Creech, Mrs. Ralph Mercer, Mrs. J. A. Bernard, Mrs. Ida Niles, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. A. C. Kriesel, Miss Grace Babcock, Miss Lucile Jaskoski, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Elsie Lip-pold, Miss May Boller, Miss Helen Gatke, Miss Minnie Moeller, Miss May Rauch, Miss Ann Boenitz, Miss Lella Rigdon, and the hostesses, Miss Lella Johnson and Miss Gussie Niles.

The Sweet Briar club will be delightfully entertained at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Karl Kugel. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will talk on "Italian Art."

Thirty-seven ladies were guests Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Donald W. Riddle where the time was spent on the novel sun-bonnet project which is being planned in the interest of the Old Peoples' home. Several hundred bonnets in many gay fabrics were cut out.

The hostess served a delightful luncheon at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. O. C. Locke entertained at dinner Monday evening, placing covers for eight.

A large group of the members of the Young Married Peoples' club of the First Presbyterian church are planning to be in attendance at the club dinner at 6:30 o'clock this evening. Not only a delicious covered dish meal, but also an entertaining program will be enjoyed. This is the club's first meeting for the calendar year. Each family is asked to bring a covered dish and buttered rolls. An attendance of between 50 and 75 couples is anticipated. The committee in charge of the social evening includes: Mr. and Sunbonnets—the kind our mothers used to wear—is the latest topic of conversation among the Salem ladies. Everybody is interested in the Old Peoples' home, and seeing it free from debt. A plan is being worked out by the ladies whereby that may actually take place. Mrs. H. H. Vandover has been appointed by the board as the chairman of a committee to further the plan. Any friend of the home, or person interested, may lend a helping hand by making some of these miniature bonnets:

Bonnets pink, bonnets blue, Will free us of debt if we prove true; Offer your services, these bonnets to make, Lightening our load for the old folks' sake.

Few Real Estate Men Apply for 1925 Permits

Real estate brokers who have not yet applied for state licenses must be prosecuted according to instructions received by W. A. Mulled, deputy state real estate commissioner, from Will Moore, real estate, and insurance commissioner, who braces that the matter be taken up with the district attorneys throughout the state. Records indicate that about one-half of the brokers who carried licenses in 1924 have applied for licenses this year.

Revival Services Attract Large Audiences at Armory

The union revival meetings which began in the Armory Saturday night are being well attended by an attentive and enthusiastic audience. Evangelist G. C. Peterson seems to be well versed in the Bible and is a forceful speaker. He speaks from his heart in such a sincere, unassuming manner that his words grip the hearts of his hearers and wins them into a spirit of fellowship and unity. His main theme seems to be the unifying and editing of all the members of the Church in general. He evinces much love for all men, recognizes no distinctions and shows no partiality. He has no intention of starting a new sect, but is very desirous that all earnest Christians rally to a great union battle against the common enemy of the Church viz. the world, the flesh and the devil.

Mr. Peterson represents no single organization, being connected with nothing except The Protestant Society of London, England, founded by the late Rev. M. P. Baxter. It is an association of ministers of all denominations who are interested in the study of the signs of the times in the light of Scripture prophecy. Arthur S. Booth-Clibborn, Lloyd George and General Allenby, conqueror of Jerusalem, are among those most interested in the study of prophecy. Mr. Peterson is an intimate friend of Arthur S. Booth-Clibborn, father of Mrs. Booth-Clibborn Demarest who made so many friends in this city during her campaign last summer.

Saturday night Mr. Peterson preached on the subject: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make His path straight." He emphasized the importance of a pure heart and a clean life, as a preparation for the soon coming of the Lord for His Church.

Sunday afternoon a larger crowd was out and were well impressed with the message on "The Bread of Life as a continual source of health for spirit, mind and body."

Sunday night Mr. Peterson preached on the peculiar subject, over which there has been so much discussion: "Why does not God destroy Satan?" Briefly his answer was "Because he is destroying himself."

Bloody Red and Spiked Sticks Used by Kiwanis

Big spiked and bloody red sticks are to be used by Oliver Meyers and Jimmie Nicholson at the Kiwanis club hereafter, according to the plans of C. H. McCullough, president, who presented the official insignias Tuesday. During their first meeting the two trouble-makers excited times from various members on different charges.

Fred Erickson was fined because he came to the luncheon without wearing his Kiwanis button, Dr. H. E. Morris was brought before the committee because he had failed to give Ralph Cobley enough work during the last term of office. Bert Ford was fined on the count of not wearing a button, and several others were treated the same way.

The Kiwanis had an overflow meeting yesterday and members and guests had to crowd the tables in order to find room for every one.

It was decided that Bert Ford, who has been appointed a "Little Sunbeam" for the Kiwanis club, will have charge of the next meeting.

Try Snowdrift in your favorite cake. Make the cake with Snowdrift—grease the pans with Snowdrift—and make the icing with Snowdrift.

Snowdrift is made by the Wesson Oil people out of oil as good as fine salad oil—hardened and whipped into a creamy white fat—and packed in an airtight can to keep it as sweet and fresh as the day it was made. There couldn't be anything nicer for making cake.

Snowdrift is much easier to cream because it is already so creamy itself. It is so delicate that it makes your cake rich without changing the flavor. It is all pure fat, without salt or water, so add a pinch of salt if you have been using butter in your recipe.
