The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Pollock, 602 North Winter street.

The members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1575 S. Commercial street, today for the regular social afternoon.

At the meeting Wednesday afternoon of the Woman's auxiliary of the YMCA it was decided that the present officers should for the new year retain their positions. Mrs. John W. Harbison will be president; Mrs. L. E. Bradford, vice president; Mrs. E. E. Sisson, secretary, and Mrs. George Hayne treasurer.

The auxiliary made plans for its third annual concert at this time, the concert probably coming the first week in February.

Miss Lois Bynon, widely known newspaper woman of the Coos Bay section, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday and joined the reporter staff of the Evening Herald this morning. She comes to this city heralded as one of the leading feature writers of southern Oregon.

Besides general reporting and special features, Miss Bynon will cover society and women's activities for this newspaper. She has recently been doing general reporting and society for the Daily News at Marshfield, and a year ago was employed as a special feature writer on another Coos Bay publication. She is a sister of Allan Bynon, chief deputy U. S. attorney who is one of the leading candidates for the federal attorneyship, Klamath Falls Herald.

Hattie Reeder of Salem, senior in commerce at Oregon Agricultural college, has been appointed to the general committee of the memorial union drive which is to start within the week. The purpose of the committee is to bring in closer touch the campus organizations with the work needed to raise funds for the student union building.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church, diverting from their usual custom, held the regular meeting, instead of in the afternoon, in the evening, when a group of 75 met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. B. E. Carrier, 1855 Court street.

Mrs. Carrier was assisted in the receiving by her house-guest, Miss Mary De Young, who is here for the winter from Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. E. V. Hollenburgh, president of the society, was the presiding officer for the evening. The devotional on "Torch Bearing" was beautifully led by Mrs. C. F. Wilson, the scripture reading and talk being followed by short prayers by Mrs. Charles J. Lisle, Mrs. C. A. Clarke, and Mrs. J. L. Brady.

The special music of the evening was a duet, "Teach Me to Pray," sung by Miss Lucia Card and Miss Marguerite Bridgman. Miss Helene Story accompanied at the piano.

The major program for the evening was the comprehensive and enlightening message on China given by Mrs. Wesley Wire of Newburg, who is a fluent and charming speaker. She told of her personal experiences as a "Circuit Rider in China."

Following the evening's program a congenial social hour was enjoyed. The general social chairman for the occasion was Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. Lloyd Lee had charge of the dining room with Mrs. Foster Odum, Mrs. D. H. Mosher, and Mrs. C. E. Robiner assistants. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. E. C. Hickman and Mrs. R. K. Ohling.

The table was lovely with its centerpiece of rose-colored cyclamen, with the basket tied with melon in the same shade. Tall rose-colored tapers in crystal holders completed the color scheme.

All in all the evening was one of profit and pleasure to the large company that gathered.

Mrs. T. G. Hopkins left the first of the week for Salem, where she will spend six months with her mother, during the absence of her sister, Mrs. George Pearce, who accompanied by her daughters has left for southern California and the east. Miss Dorothy Pearce will study music in New York and Miss Helen Pearce, who is a member of the faculty of Willamette university, will take her master's degree at Radcliffe.—Albany Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCall entertained a company of friends at an unimaginally delightful radio program on last Sunday afternoon, when "The Bohemian Girl" was heard over the McCall's Atwater-Kent five-tube set.

Mr. and Mrs. McCall are able to get not only all the coast towns but also as far east as New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. McCall's guests for Sunday's broadcasting were: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Peoples and son, Howard, who were also their dinner guests; Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett and son, Corydon; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Utley and son, Billie; Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, and Mrs. Charlotte Seldon.

This coming Sunday Mr. and Mrs. McCall will entertain a group for "Robin Hood."

The girls of Lausanne hall will hold "Open House" tomorrow evening from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all friends of the university.

Mrs. Harry Zeldorf was hostess Monday afternoon to the teachers and officers of the primary department of the Central Congregational church. The afternoon was spent socially, after which the guests partook of a delicious lunch, served in the dining room at a prettily appointed table.

The monthly party of the Oregon class of the M. E. Sunday school was held at the home of William Sisson, 1635 Saginaw street, Wednesday evening. Games were played until a late hour, after which delightful refreshments were served.

Those enjoying the party were Lionel Gray, Kenneth Mosher, Francis De Harpport, Donald Hardcastle, Kenneth Webb, Delbert Schwabbaur and Clarence Park.

A charming hostess of yesterday afternoon was Mrs. C. B. McCullough, who entertained the members of Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood at her home. Yellow and white blossoms were used in the rooms. The paper of the afternoon, prepared by Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, was read by Mrs. F. W. Selee. A number from the chapter plan to attend the Founders' day banquet Monday, Jan. 19, at the Multnomah hotel in Portland.

Mrs. McCullough's guests yesterday were Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. W. B. Burt, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. F. C. Churchill, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs. P. J. Kuntz, Mrs. G. W. Laflair, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. E. J. Miles, Mrs. A. C. Parr, Mrs. O. E. Erice, Mrs. F. W. Selee and Mrs. A. T. Woolpert.

Mrs. Harry Zeldorf and children left Wednesday for Orland, Cal., where they will visit Mrs. Zeldorf's mother, Mrs. Mary Cartwright, and uncle, Dr. R. D. Speck.

SILVERTON, Ore., Jan. 15.—(Special.)—Members of Trinity Choir and band gave Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Riviness, who were recently married, a pleasant little surprise party at the Riviness home Wednesday evening of this week. A pair of silver candelsticks were given to Mr. and Mrs. Riviness. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. George Henriksen, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Larsen, Miss Dora Henriksen, Miss Louise Henriksen, Miss Esther Towe, Miss Ingeborg Goplerud, M. Storrestad, Miss Jerdis Kloster, Miss Myrna Sather, Miss Cora Satern, Miss Lillie Madsen, Miss Esther Larson, Miss Marie Corhouse, Miss Viola Riviness, Miss Ethel Larson, Miss Mamie Holman, Miss Clara Holman, Miss Jerdis Hansen, Miss Christine Bradstad, Miss Agnes Dahlen, Miss Florence Holland, Harold Holland, Harold Larson, Victor Madsen, James Thompson, Harry Thompson, William Thompson, Dan Riviness, Victor Sather.

An unusually interesting decorative scheme was used for the refreshment table for the meeting Wednesday of the Salem Arts League. Orange candles were used in the silver candelabra with supplementary candles in the floral design Italian sticks, made to resemble water lilies, at each end. A profusion of fine ferns was used on the table, with fronds of sword fern completing the effect.

Mrs. A. G. Kron (Lolita Davis) and her little daughter, Constance Virginia, of Portland, are house-guests for the week at the home of Mrs. T. W. Davies. Mrs. Kron will return to Portland Sunday.

The Civic Arts' section of the Salem Arts' league will meet for the first meeting of the year at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the educational room of the city library.

The Young Married People's club of the First Baptist church met for a pot luck supper in the church rooms Wednesday evening. About 40 members took part in the revival services which are being held by the pastor, Rev. D. R. Peterson is the teacher of the class.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. H. D. Chambers at the rectory.

Miss Lena Payne of Portland, representing the St. Helen's Pulp & Paper company is in Salem for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dunford, 1415 Saginaw street.

YWCA Work is Praised
In Recent Report Here

Physical education and training of the YWCA is well conducted, according to the report made by Mrs. William Hertzog, chairman of the general education committee. Between 25 and 30 women and girls attended the Wednesday classes conducted at YWCA. Classes to fit the needs of business women, classes for girls and others were arranged during parts of the day.

Mrs. Helen M. Stewart, official nurse of the Metropolitan Insurance company, conducts the physical examinations and serves as health director of the association. Mrs. E. E. Elliott, Miss Georgia Ellis, and Miss Mary Erickson are members of the staff that is putting across the physical training program for the YWCA.
