

Raincoats for the Rainy Season

This is the time of the year when a Good Raincoat pays a Man a large dividend on the investment. We are showing some of the best Raincoats made and they are very reasonably priced as all our garments are.

$19.85 to $24.85

A good Raincoat is worth far more than its cost in the way of Clothes protection!

G. W. Johnson & Co.

469 STATE

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Convention in Portland—A convention of county judges and commissioners in Portland yesterday called the members of the Marion court to Portland. Two days will be spent there by the court members. The meeting is held annually.

A Real Sale—For men and young men. Buy and save now on Suits, Coats and Furnishings. The Man's Shop. j16

Stroke Serious—Because of the paralytic stroke suffered Tuesday by A. L. Brown, his condition is critical, and Mrs. Ralph Matthews, a sister living in St. Louis, Mo., has been sent for.

Salem Art and Beauty Shop—10 to 20% discount on lamps this week. Lamp shade instructions. 153 S. High. j16

Pioneer Rally Tonight—The pioneer rally of the year is to be held at the First Methodist church tonight, according to the officials of the YMCA. Rev. W. W. Long, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will deliver the address of the evening on the "Makings of a Boy." A banquet is to be prepared and the different tables are to compete in the decorations. Talks by members of the different clubs present will be a feature of the evening.

Income Tax Reports—For Completion see W. A. Sipprell, 345 Chemeketa. Phone 900. —17

Accounts Are Good—The county accounts are in excellent shape, declares F. C. Stegmann and W. Richardson, who are auditing the Marion county books and accounts in the office of Brazier C. Small, justice of the peace. The work was done at the request of Judge Small.

A Real Sale—For men and young men. Buy and save now on Suits, Coats and Furnishings. The Man's Shop. j16

Dean Milan to Visit—Ava B. Milan, head of the school of home economics at Oregon Agricultural college, will be a Willamette university campus visitor today. Mrs. Milan spent a number of years in China studying conditions there and assisting at the University of Pekin, and her observations of her experiences there should prove interesting. At 12:30 she will address the American Association of University Women at a luncheon in the Marlow hotel dining room. Mrs. Milan is a regular representative to American colleges from the Methodist board of foreign missions.

Mah Jongg Sets—At cost. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j16

Knocks Owl Out—T. R. Crook, residing in Polk county near Dallas, hit an Arctic owl with a buckshot charge and did not kill it. He was able to secure the bird and is carrying it around attached to a heavy chain.

A Real Sale—For men and young men. Buy and save now on Suits, Coats and Furnishings. The Man's Shop. j16

Attend Kiwanis Meet—Two delegates from the Salem Kiwanis club, Nate D. Elliot and Ed. Schunke, will leave today for Tacoma where they will attend the mid-winter convention of the Kiwanis organization. Officers of clubs in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia are to be assembled.

Fabcolin Sale—The superior floor covering. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j16

Addresses Students—Every high school in Marion county will be addressed by Andrew Miller, secretary of the Oregon State Bankers association, according to announcements made yesterday. About one high school a day has been visited and it is expected that the remaining number will be visited by the middle of the coming week.

The Antique Shoppe—Four poster and full bed. Ph. 1499-R. j18

Vestments Secured—The choir of the First Methodist church is to wear vestments hereafter at their regular services, according to announcements made yesterday. The choir has been under the direction of Prof. E. Hobson during the past few years and has won an enviable position among musical circles in Salem.

Wanted—Modern Furnished—5 or 6 room house, close in. Will lease. F. Ray Felker. Phone 941. j17

Partial Poll Taken—Something should be done to remedy the pardon method, it is believed by at least 29 members of the house, whose opinions were asked by Representative J. E. Bennett, and who took this stand. A number of others were non-committal upon the question. The poll was taken to determine whether or not members were satisfied with the present conditions

DEED
TOMPKINS—Thomas A. Tompkins died January 14, at his residence, 1427 North Seventeenth street, at the age of 75 years. He is survived by one brother, J. N., of Battle Ground, Wash., his widow, Henrietta, two sons, Daniel E. and Bert K., four daughters, Miss Lulla Tompkins Mrs. Myra Cox, Mrs. Maud Boje, all of Salem, and Mrs. Edna Ellis of Staples, Minn., 17 grand children and 3 great grand children. Private funeral services will be held at the residence today at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Poling will have charge of services. Interment will be in the City View cemetery. Arrangements in charge of the Webb Funeral parlors.

RIGDON & SON'S
MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

BEN SEZ
Our 1925 Overland All Steel Body Sedan arrived yesterday
It's Sure a Peach! But those who want Used Cars that they can rely on had better visit our used car department. We have many fine ones from Fords to Packards. Prices right.
VICK BROS.

as they effect the pardoning powers and the abuse thereof. The views expressed did not necessarily mean an endorsement of any bill or bills that are now pending.

Marinello Beauty Parlor—Men's shampoo. Special 50c. —j16

Lindsay Up Today—C. A. Lindsay, who was charged with the possession of liquor when officers discovered liquor hid in a backhouse near his home, will be tried this afternoon at 2 o'clock according to C. J. Kowitz, city attorney. R. L. Glasgow, an elder of the Church of God, was arrested at the same time. Disposition of his case will be made later.

Has Grandchildren—A total of 17 grandchildren have become members of the family of Thomas A. Tompkins, a North Seventeenth street resident. He has lived in Salem during the past 19 years after coming here from Minnesota in 1905.

For Dry Wood—Call C. D. Query, Phone 77F2 —j16

Ramsey Visits Camp—Bernard Ramsey, former eBarcal and forensic man on the varsity squad, returned to Salem yesterday to renew friendships and acquaintances on the Willamette university campus. He is a graduate of the school of law and is a practicing attorney at Madras.

Odd Rockers—Greatly reduced. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j16

Oregon Is Subject—Students of the Englewood school are using "Trail 'Em To Salem" literature and other information about the state in their study of civics and natural geography, according to the applications made by students for the literature at the Chamber of Commerce.

Reactors To Banquet—Irving E. Vining, president of the State Chamber of Commerce, is to be the main speaker at the Reactor banquet, which is promising to be a big event tonight. Reservations have been made for over 125 persons at the Marion hotel.

The Annual Meeting—Of the stockholders of the Thos. Kay Woolen Mill Co. will be held at the office of the company in Salem, Jan. 20th, at 9:30 a. m. Those interested will take notice. E. J. Swafford, Secy. j-20

Births Reported—Ella Verna is the name given to the baby daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Smith one mile south of Salem, January 6, according to the report filed with the city health officer. Mary Louise was the name selected for the daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Armstrong at 2307 Laurel avenue January 13. A baby boy has recently been born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing six miles south east of Salem.

Birth Report Filed—A birth certificate was filed with the city health officer yesterday for the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Marumi Ishida. She has been named Matsu.

Plays On Frosh Team—Dwight Fallin of Salem, freshman in commerce, has left for Portland with the freshman basketball team.

While in Portland the rock squad will meet Columbia university, Franklin high, Washington high. The OAC yearlings have already defeated the Washington team by a close margin.

All Suits and Coats—Less 25 per cent. Let us show you. The Man's Shop. j16

Griffith Named President—Wallace Griffith, member of the senior class, and prominent in dramatic activities of Willamette university, was elected president of Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatic fraternity, at a meeting held yesterday. Ruth Rosa was named vice president. Other officers elected were James McClintock, treasurer, and Marian Wyatt, secretary. The new officers will be installed next month.

Power Project Favored—Leasing of the Muscle Shoals project to private parties rather than operation by the government, provided deals satisfactory to the administration, a policy advocated by President Coolidge, will be given consideration by the senate at an early date. The concurrent resolution was introduced yesterday by Senator Johnson, asking the president's policy be endorsed by the legislature. An effort to rush the measure was frustrated by Senators Zimmerman and Joseph, who were able to delay action until the resolution can be printed and given further consideration.

Odd Dish Sale—H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. j16

Livewire Topic—"Law Enforcement—What Would Jesus Do In Reference To It?" will be the topic of study for the Live Wire class at the Leslie Methodist church Sunday morning. The following Sunday the teacher, A. C. Bohrnstedt will address the class on "Gifts—The Attitude of Jesus Toward Them." The class is composed of Willamette university students and high school students who number about 100 or more.

Hi-Y Club Organized—One of the most enthusiastic Hi-Y clubs in Marion county was organized yesterday, according to Benjamin Kimber, secretary of Marion county Y work. The club was organized with 18 members under the direction of Prof. Parks. Lloyd Seoley was chosen president.

Adam Engel Builds—Three permits were issued by city recorder Poulsen yesterday for the erection of three dwellings by Adam Engel, contractor. A sum of $2200 has been named for each of the three buildings which are to be located at 1410, 1420, and 1430 North Seventeenth street. H. Renner, tailor, secured a permit to construct a store and dwelling at 775, 785 and 795 High land at a cost of $5450.

Adventists Services—Seventh Day Adventist Church, corner Fifth and Gaines, north Salem, N. C. Erntson, pastor, Sabbath school at 10:30 and preaching at 11:30 a. m. The young people's secretary of the conference, Elder J. L. McConaughy, will be with us over the week end. There will be a meeting Friday at 7:30 for the young people. He will also speak at 11:30 Sabbath morning. Would like to have all the young people be present. The subject for the Sunday night lecture will be, "The Great

25,000 Pounds of Grape Root WANTED
Also Fir Pitch
Capital Bargain House
The Home of a Million and One Bargains
215 CENTER

Miller's Subway Store
Bargain Square Specials
for Friday and Saturday
MEN'S AND WOMEN'S FELT SLIPPERS
69c Pair

Best Coming Event of the Twentieth Century—"What Is It?" The church is well filled every Sunday night. Many are enjoying these up-to-the-minute lectures. If you have not listened to one of them you do not know what you are missing. Pure straight gospel and common sense. Elder J. L. McConaughy of Portland will sing some of his soul inspiring solos. You will not be sorry if you come. Bring your friends. 7:30 p. m.

All Suits and Coats—Less 25 per cent. Let us show you. The Man's Shop. j16

Mother Seeking Son—Chief of police Minto has received a pathetic appeal from a mother who is seeking for her son who disappeared from Indianapolis, Ind., two years ago. In a letter mailed from Rushville, Ind., by Mrs. Edwin Megee she is seeking for her son, William Megee, aged 24, who was evidently suffering from a nervous breakdown or mental illness when he disappeared. A note signed by Sidney L. Hewb, sheriff at Rushville, stated that the young man was from an excellent family and was not a fugitive from justice.

Fines Are Imposed—D. Myers of 810 Chemeketa paid a fine of $5 Thursday for speeding on South Commercial after he had been arrested by Officer Wiles. L. L. Riggs of 492 North Summer paid a similar sum while Mrs. S. Ransom of Aumsville forfeited the $10 which had been placed for bail. She was arrested for traveling 30 miles per hour on State street.

Tires Stolen—Martin Holmes of Chemewa reported that two Goodyear cord tires were stolen from his car some time Wednesday night, according to the police record.

Ford Recovered—The Ford car, which had been stolen from the Deaf school has been recovered at Olympia, Wash. according to information received by the Salem police.

PERSONALS
A loganberry grower of Hopmore, Bruce A. Jones, was in Salem yesterday.
Hugh Eldridge of St. Louis was in Salem Thursday.
A. King, municipal judge of Eugene, visited the legislature in Salem.

Quick Starling SHELL GASOLINE

lem yesterday.
W. H. Ramp, a citizen of Brooks was in Salem Thursday.
Al Krause, Salem merchant, was a Portland visitor yesterday.
Miss Josephine F. Smith, stenographer to Senator W. E. Miller, of Grants Pass, is spending the remainder of the week in Corvallis.
Mrs. J. J. Entz visited here from Dallas yesterday.

Cooley & Pearson Mid-Winter Values

Although we carry a complete line of Fancy and Staple Groceries, we feature the indispensable every-day needs of the family.

Fruits and Vegetables Potatoes are fortunate in purchasing an early supply.
Hand packed Spitzenberg Apples, per box$1.39
A splendid 250 box lot of Wagner apples, fine flavor, juicy, per box, medium size$1.39
Extra large size, box $1.73
Fancy pack Rome Beauties, large, per box$1.69
Yellow Newtowns, large, per box$1.69
See our window display and choose the varieties you desire.

Miscellaneous
3 Nutola Margarine73c
10 Armour's Milk98c
12 White Wonder Soap 49c
3 Fancy Tender Sweet Corn55c
3 American Club Corn, Country Gentleman.....73c
3 Fancy Golden Bantam Corn73c
6 Palm Olive Soap49c
6 Creme Oil Soap39c
6 Peet's Mechanic's Soap49c
3 Pacific Nut75c
Remember our delivery service entails no extra charge, including West Salem and Salem Heights.

Meats
Armour's Demonstration Baked Ham served all day Saturday.
Free—One Ham for the first one that guesses the number of Armour's products in the picture in our display window. These hams nationally advertised are selected from corn fed young porkers for those who demand the best.
Hams, 1/2 or whole, lb. 29c
Cheaper than bacon.
Light Lean Bacon Back, per lb.25c
Fancy light Breakfast Bacon, per lb.35c

Vegetables
Every thing in bulk and bunch root vegetables obtainable, plus a generous supply of new cabbage, cauliflower, squash, green peppers, etc.

Apples
We are headquarters for apples. Apples have taken an extreme advance but we

Phone C. O. D. Orders 52
211 N. Commercial Street

WOODRY Buys Furniture
Phone 511

Typewriters
All makes
$5 down
$5 Monthly
C. M. Lockwood
247 N. Com. St.
Phone 855

TERMINAL TAXI SERVICE
Care for hire without drivers
PHONE 2020
Day and Night Service

POPULAR PRICED
Men's and Young Men's Tailored Suits $25 to $45
D. H. MOSHER TAILOR

Dr. B. H. White
Osteopathy - Surgery
Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abram's method)
Office Phone 559 or 469-J
506 U. S. Bank Bldg.

DANCE WED. & SAT.
CRYSTAL GARDENS
BEZANSON'S MELODY PHRIENDS

LADD & BUSH BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

We Carry all Sizes of Coal
from the large furnace to the smallest nut size. Tell us for what purpose the coal is required and we'll point out the proper size to use. But although we carry all sizes, we handle only one quality, the very best coal from the very best mines. Our coal service is yours to command.
Prices range from $16 to $18
Also handle the best Diamond Bridgeton $15
PHONE 930
Larmer Transfer & Storage Co.

Starts Today—Sale of Men's Fine Trousers
EXTRA TROUSER EXTRA
ODD VEST SALE ODD VEST
Every garment in our big stock of Men's Woolen Dress Pants reduced 25 per cent for this unusual event
Worsteds, Cassimeres, Blue Serges, Plain and Patterned Styles
Reg. $4.50 Pant Sale $3.35
Reg. 5.00 Pant Sale 3.75
Reg. 5.50 Pant Sale 4.15
Reg. 6.00 Pant Sale 4.50
Reg. 6.50 Pant Sale 4.95
Reg. 7.50 Pant Sale 5.65
Reg. 8.00 Pant Sale 6.00
Reg. 8.50 Pant Sale 6.35
Reg. 9.00 Pant Sale 6.75
Reg. 10.00 Pant Sale 7.50
Big Lot of Odd Vests Take Your Choice
$1.00 each
Remember that the 25% discount upon our pants stock holds only during this sale. Come today—See the windows.
Bishop's
CLOTHING—WOOLEN MILLS STORE