California Saves Historic Old Mission of San Jose

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 16.—Mission San Jose, a picturesque California landmark 30 miles south of here, is to undergo its first renovation since it was erected by the Spanish padres in 1791. The mission contains historic records and an ancient graveyard with monuments bearing the names of some of the men who opened the gates to western civilization.

After the complete restoration of Carmel Mission, in Monterey county, in which the famous padre, Junipera Serra, is buried San Juan Bautista Mission, in San Benito county, was rehabilitated. The San Jose Mission is next on the program.

There are 21 old Spanish missions in California, separted from one another by about 35 miles, a day's journey in the old times. The preservation committee is headed by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and Joseph R. Knowland, Oakland publisher.

Striking Fish Gladdened Heart of Roman Fisherman

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 16.—Fishermen who proudly watch their flies settling far out in the water after a perfect, flashing arc through the air may well be reminded that this sport was shared by similar enthusiasts in Rome during the year 300 B. C., Prof. Teavor Kincaid, University of Washington declared, here recently in an illustrated lecture on fly making and casting.

"The Romans were skilled fishermen and fly casters," said Professor Kincaid. "Although our manufactured flies may be more substantial and a trifle more beautiful, the Romans in 300 B. C. considered angling a fine art and had many magnificent specimens of flies in their collection."

University of California Adopts New Exam System

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 16.—A new system of examination has been adopted by Professor Warner Brown of the psychology department of the University of California. This department had used the essay form, requiring the student to write at length on several questions. Dr. Brown did not deem this a fair test, and so he formed a combination of tests.

One of the new methods requires the pupil to supply one word to make a sentence complete. In another he must choose among several alternatives. A third consists in giving him a number of statements, and asking him to tell of each whether it is true or false.

According to Dr. Brown, this type of test gives the student more choice of questions, because more ground is covered in less time. He says it exposes knowledges of a subject, rather than the mere ability to state things.

California Swimming Pool Said to Be World's Largest

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—The new Fleishhacker swimming pool, 1000 feet long, said to be the largest in the world, will be dedicated when the National Amateur Athletic Union swimming championships are held here April 23, 24 and 25.

The tank is under construction. It is situated near the ocean beach at Ingleside, the southwestern end of the city. It will have a maximum depth of 12 feet. It is an outdoor pool, but the temperature of the water will be regulated. The property involved is owned by the city, and the pool will be open to the public.

Another dedication, that of the new municipal staduim in Golden Gate park, will mark the track and field events of the National A. A. U., to be held July 3, 4, and 5. The stadium, being built this winter, will seat 22,000. Careful attention is being given the running track, so that it may be one of the fastest.
