A COUGH REMEDY WITHOUT OPIATES
Many cough preparations contain some one or more harmful drugs which are added to take the place of opiates. None of these narcotic substitutes have ever been used in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND. The name of every ingredient is plainly printed on every carton. You know what you are taking. You know what Foley's. It clings to the throat. Good for old and young. You have a cough, why not try it. Refuse substitutes.—Adv. 115-20-22

SAFE FOR CHILDREN
Mothers everywhere demand a reliable cough remedy free from injurious narcotics. Supplying this demand for fifty years made FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND one of the Largest Selling Cough Medicines in the World. Children like it. "My little boy had a very bad cough, and after he used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND he got relief at once," writes Mrs. Van Belle, Penroy, Mont. Refuse substitutes.—Adv. 115-20-22 after he had been arrested for drunkenness and reckless driving. Oakley Kerr caused his name to be entered on the police blotter yesterday. He was arrested near the blind school Saturday night where he was running in the mud, after wrecking his car.

Carlton, J. M. Poe, A. Seifer, H. H. Pennen, T. M. Stevenson. Mrs. E. Wild, and E. Reese paid a fine of $5 each for exceeding the speed limit.

Legion Draws Crowd—Capitol Post No. 9 attracted about 150 American legion members to the regular meeting last night, the first under the sole direction of the new officers. Places on committees were assigned.

the announcement made by Mayor Glesy yesterday. It has been reported previously that the latter had been appointed. The other members of the commission are Ralph Thompson, Harry Plant, Dr. H. H. Olinger, and Dr. W. Carlton Smith.

Everyone Invited—Every person interested in the meeting of the Marion County federation to be held at the Salem Chamber of Commerce Thursday night is invited to be present. In Sunday's issue of the Statesman it was stated certain men had been invited to be present, and it should have been added that the men were to make a two minute talk describing the work of their community during the past year.

Planets To Appear—According to the report printed in the Scientific American a group of planets will be seen in the heaven during January 22. Local astronomers state that the best time to get a glimpse of the planets will be between 6:15 and 6:30 o'clock in the morning. Mercury, Jupiter, and Venus are to be grouped in a space about the size of the moon on the date mentioned.

Eric Butler Improves—Eric Butler, manager of the Western Union office will be at his office today following an attack of the gripe. His father, Fred Butler, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis last Friday is considerably improved also, it is declared.

Chorus Grows—A hundred boys can make a large volume of music and do it with ease and have lots of steam to spare, as evidenced by the Boys' chorus, which met at the YMCA last night. Several fathers were present and held out in the heavier parts of the chorus with the bass voices and the tenor parts. John L. Brady, editor of The Statesman, gave a short address on the history of music. Doughnuts and punch was served as refreshments to the boys. It is expected that the chorus will soon reach 200 members, as it is growing larger at every meeting. Under the direction of Dr. H. C. Epley, a concert will be offered in one of the Salem churches for the Near East Relief fund.

AT THE ARMORY
Every Night This Week Except Friday
There will be revival meetings at 7:30 sharp. Those attending report these messages to be the need of the hour. They effect every phase of present day life, from the individual to the national. Their feature is "a center line track," free from both dry, dead formalism and fanaticism and hobbies. Nothing is exalted except Jesus Christ and His all-sufficiency for spirit, mind and body. Public and promiscuous Divine healing, nor any other feature of the gospel is exploited as a drawing card; although God is healing the sick, God is balancing up and purifying His Church in these days in preparation for His soon coming. A sweet spirit of unity and fellowship is manifest among the various church members attending.
