Pimply Skin and Impure Blood Due to a Torpid Liver

Blood carries body's poisons, which quickly disfigure the complexion

The liver is the body's wonderful purifier. All of our blood passes through the liver every 15 minutes for purification.

Everyone's blood is constantly poisoned by body toxins formed in food waste. When the liver becomes weak, or torpid, our systems are at once tainted by blood toxins.

These are poisons that, if not destroyed by the liver, are carried direct to the skin and cause sallowness, blotches, redness, eruptions and pimples.

Doctors know that a good complexion comes only from within the body. Blood impurities cannot be rubbed away with creams or ointments.

Science also knows that the liver—the body's complexion maker—cannot be regulated by drugs, but a safe Nature substance has been discovered which will act directly on the liver. The discovery is purified ox gall.

Get from your druggist a package of Dioxol. Each tablet contains ten drops of purified ox gall. In 24 hours the poison toxins will be removed. Your liver will be regulated. Blood purification will begin. Sallow skin will clear. Pimples will pass away, leaving the complexion clear and soft.

Patch Is Placed on Side Of Sunken Steamer Here

The sunken steamer "Relief," which is at the bottom of the Willamette river near the Court street docks, is well underway to being raised. A diver has placed a canvas patch on the outside, with an additional plank to cover the hole in the hull and work is going on which will cause the boat to come to the surface.

Considerable damage was suffered by the steamer when the ice jam caught her and threw her upon the bank, crushing the bottom of the hull and breaking some of the timbers of the vessel.

FIRST DAY DRIVE HELD ENCOURAGING

More Than $1700 are Obtained By Early Efforts in YWCA Campaign

Tuesday's campaign of the YWCA was very encouraging and resulted with a total of $1775.25 being reported to the campaign managers, in addition to several reports that were not brought to the office at a late hour last night.

It is imperative that the YWCA secure the fund of $6,000, which they have set as their objective, in order that the work may keep pace with the growing demands upon the organization.

Many of the contributors are doubling the amount they contributed last year, because they realize that the growth of the YMCA and the YWCA organizations here is keeping up with the development of the city and the surrounding community.

Salem society and club women are securing results in this drive and under the direction of Mrs. John J. Roberts the new YW president, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, and Miss Mary Findley and a group of 50 workers, the campaign is to be brought to a successful close.

BEARCAT QUINTET TOUR BREAKS EVEN

Two Games Won and Also Lost; Basketball Team Returns Tuesday

The Bearcats won two games and lost two games on the basketball trip from which they returned yesterday morning. College of Puget Sound and Washington state normal school at Ellensburg, Wash., were defeated by 46 to 23 and 37 to 29 scores.

Word of Fasnacht's ability as a scorer had evidently preceded him for he was closely watched in every game and was seldom permitted to get into shooting position. He was able to get but three points in the Whitman clash, while in the game with that institution a year ago, he got the majority of the points scored.

new obligations under the reparations settlement, as fully covering the issue raised in the senate. Mr. Coolidge regards the Hughes' statement as disposing effectually of all the questions that have been raised or that can be raised in connection with the incident.

That being the case Mr. Coolidge stands with Mr. Hughes in his conviction that the Paris negotiations and their fruition should be regarded as a closed incident.

GRANDMA PICKETT IS BURIED TODAY

Many Friends of Salem Pioneer Mourn Loss; Services for Son Also Held

Mrs. Kestah Pickett, an old pioneer of Salem, who died in Tacoma last week, will be buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Webb funeral parlors.

Grandma Pickett, as she was known to her many Salem friends, was 90 years old at the time of her death. She was born in Indiana, and came to Salem in 1894.

An unusual feature of the funeral services will be that the ashes of her son, William B. Pickett, who died in San Diego Sept. 11, will be interred in the same casket with his mother.

Mrs. Pickett died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Edwards, in Tacoma, where she had lived for about two years. Following the death of her husband in 1911, Mrs. Pickett made her home for a time with another daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hadley, near Turner.

OVERFLOW MEET HELD BY KIWANIS

Chas. R. Archerd Presents Pointed Remarks About Thrift at Meeting Here

One of the liveliest Kiwanis meetings of the year was held at the Marion hotel Tuesday noon. An overflow meeting was held, in which it was necessary to utilize extra tables and chairs to seat the guests.

Charles H. Archerd, local implement dealer and member of the Rotary club, presented interesting items concerning National Thrift week, which is being held all over the United States.

Nothing definite has taken place in the plans that have been set afoot to secure Frank Branch Riley as a Salem speaker, was the report of I. M. Doughton.

Ed Schunke and Nate Elliot gave some of their impressions of the Kiwanis meeting held in Tacoma recently.

In a report of the national organization it was shown the Kiwanis club was established 10 years ago, and at the present time has over 13,000 clubs with a total membership of over 92,000.

CONVENTION PLAN OFFERED IN BILL

Mills Primary Law Introduced in House of Representatives Tuesday

Change in the primary law to include the election of candidates by the convention system, the proposal known as the Mills' primary law, was introduced into the house Tuesday afternoon by H. B. No. 85 and sponsored by the house judiciary committee.

The bill provides that if no candidate for office receives 40 per cent of the votes cast no nomination can be made and a convention of delegates, elected by precincts, must be called.

The conventions will be held in both the counties and the state. That for the counties shall be held at the county seat at 10 o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday in July and that of a state convention for each political party shall be held in Salem on the second Friday following the second Tuesday in July.

Each county convention shall consist of one delegate from each precinct and one additional delegate from each precinct for each 100 registered electors. Delegates to the state and district conventions must be resident registered electors.

All nominations are to be made with the name of each person nominated appearing on the official ballot with no other designation than the number before his name, the office for which he is a candidate and the name of the party nominating.

Conway Tearle Featured in Picture Now at the Oregon

From pugilist and billiard marker to screen star. That is perhaps a short and inadequate biography for one who has risen to stardom as rapidly as Conway Tearle, who is co-featured with Colleen Moore in First National's "Flirting With Love," now playing at the Oregon theater.

But Conway Tearle is just like that. He says very little about himself for a man who has accomplished so much in so short a time.

Doing the best he could to follow the advice of the celebrity who said that the best way to get on the stage is to pick a star for a grandparent, he was born of Osmond Tearle, a famous Shakespearean actor of his day.

There is a gap between his London education and his early stage training which Mr. Tearle fills in by saying that he was a professional welterweight boxer in England and even a billiard marker.

But Conway Tearle is just like that. He says very little about himself for a man who has accomplished so much in so short a time.

OAC QUINT DEFEAT WASHINGTON STATE

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 20.—Washington State college's basketball team lost for the first time here tonight when the Oregon Argies upset advance predictions and took their first Pacific coast conference victory 18 to 14. The playing of Stoddard, Argie forward, gave the Beavers their victory. He made all ten OAC points in the last half.

At the end of the first half OAC led 8 to 5. Close guarding marked the entire period, neither team threatening to score often. The Cougars went into the lead at the start of the second half and then for 10 minutes neither side scored. In the last few minutes Stoddard scored his five field goals with throws from all angles of the floor. Kelso also scored eight points for Washington State.

ANNUAL PEN SHOW IS OFFERED SOON

Show This Year Is Entirely New, Including Cast and Scenic Effects

Comedy, music and fun. This is the program that will be presented at the annual penitentiary show which will be held in the prison auditorium Jan. 27 to 31, inclusive.

The general public has been so pleased with prison shows and has given such splendid support to the efforts of the inmates in the past that an even more pretentious performance will be presented this year.

Everything in the show is new, from scenery on down. The inmates, many of whom have been connected with legitimate vaudeville, are giving their efforts to make this, "The Follies of 1924," the very best show that has ever been presented at the prison.

Under the direction of an inmate who has had great experience in the show business, the production is rapidly rounding into splendid shape, and bids fair to surpass any former attempts of the inmates to give the public a genuine vaudeville show.

A jazz orchestra of seven pieces, several snappy singing and comedy acts, a three-act burlesque, eccentric dancing, late vocal and instrumental numbers and, to close the show, a reproduction of a prison scene that proved popular with patrons last year. In this last act have been incorporated new comedy lines and new songs.

Talent for the show has been selected entirely from the inmates, who have assured sufficient variety in the performance to please the most exacting. Although several of the participants have never before performed on the penitentiary stage, many who witness the show will recognize a few who have taken part in similar productions in years past.

The price of admission will be 50 cents. Tickets are now on sale at Perry's drug store, Salem. All seats will be reserved. Time: January 27 to 31, inclusive; curtain at 8:15 p. m. each evening; place, penitentiary auditorium.
