

Annual Announcement Made
Nathan Buell, Salem high school student, has the distinction of designing the cover for the Annual Clarion, the title page by Lewis Olmstead, and the monogram by Robert Alexander. The art department, which is conducted by Miss Hazel Paden, contributed largely to the work done on the art designs of the coming Clarion. Because of the surprise that is to be in store for the students, the designs of the cover, title page and monogram are not to be discussed. They will, however, be presented with the first appearance of the Clarion.

next meeting. It was decided on Monday to hold the meetings of the Auxiliary the second and fourth Mondays of each month, the first meeting to be at the McCornack Hall and the second meeting at the Chamber of Commerce.

Those taking office Monday evening were: President, Mrs. A. J. Cleveland; vice president, Mrs. C. K. Logan; secretary, Miss Mildred Lewis; treasurer, Mrs. Edwin Bayliss; chaplain, Mrs. Carl Wonne and sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Harold Harpole.

A charmingly given affair of Sunday afternoon was the musical tea at which Miss Elma Weller and Miss Lena Belle Tartar were hostesses for a large company of friends at the residence studio of Miss Weller at 4 o'clock. The studio was attractively decked with pussy willows and ferns, refreshments following the interesting program.

Miss Melba Davenport and Ronald Craven, advanced vocal pupils of Miss Tartar, contributed groups of songs. Miss Claudia Lewis and Miss Dorothy Hutchason delighted with piano number after piano number. Both are pupils of Miss Weller. Especially pleasing in the encore group was the duet by Miss Davenport and Mr. Craven.

The Jolly Sixteen club will meet for this week's meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, 224 Division street. Mrs. H. G. Coursey will be assistant hostess with Mrs. Keene.

The Vecinus Realls club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bertha Loveland, 2010 North 5th street. Officers for the new season will be elected at this time.

The members of the Central circle of the Jason Lee Aid society will meet at 9:30 o'clock this morning at the church. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at noon. At 2:30 o'clock a social hour will be held. Those who are hostesses are: Mrs. W. H. Good, Mrs. A. R. Fisher, and Mrs. T. I. Frazier.

Mrs. Lawrence P. Harris arrived in the city Tuesday evening where she will be the guest of a number of Salem friends. Mrs. Harris is the house guest of Miss Mattie L. Beattie.

The sewing society of the Woman's Relief corps will meet with Mrs. I. Belle McAdams, 245 D street on Thursday, January 22, for a full afternoon of sewing. The members are asked to bring their own work.

The Alpha Chi Omega alumnae association will be the guests on Thursday of Mrs. Carl T. Pope, 1035 Belmont street.

The First Methodist church circles will meet this afternoon as follows: South Central at The Old Peoples' Home, Center street; West Central with Mrs. F. L. Miller, 1009 N. 5th St.; East Central with Mrs. B. E. Carrier, 1065 Court St.; South East with Mrs. Halvorsen, 1434 Ferry St.; Yew Park with Mrs. Chas. Lisle, 1041 S. 13th St.; Naomi with Mrs. Wm. Sorrel, 1110 N. 19th St.; Lucy Anna Lee with Mrs. Geo. Gutekunst, 1253 Chemeketa St.; In all the circles the ladies are requested to bring needle, thread and thimble.

RUGS from the Far East

Special Display and Offering of ORIENTAL RUGS

AGAIN Cartozian Bros., Inc., Oriental rug importers of New York, Portland, Persia, Turkey, Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma, have sent their special representative to our store with a choice assortment of Oriental Rugs and Carpets for display and sale. Mr. Gordon Campbell is an Oriental rug expert and those who did not have the pleasure of making his acquaintance and getting his advice on the purchase of Oriental rugs during his last visit are cordially invited to visit our store while he is here. The house of Cartozian Bros., Inc., is the largest handlers of Oriental rugs in America, maintaining their own branches and operating many looms in the Orient, thus affording customers the choicest selections at the lowest prices. A "One Price Policy" has caused their rugs to have a standardized value so that all customers may benefit. We trust that you will find time to visit our store while this exhibit is here.
