

SHIRTS!

TRY OUR Better Shirts

Do you enjoy Shirts that are a little different, a little better made, more style and better finish than those you see on most men?

Prices $1.50 to $6.00

If you have not been buying your shirts here, give our kind a trial. See Them In Our Windows

G. W. JOHNSON & CO.
469 State Street

BEN SEZ

JUST IN—

A Willys Knight Touring 1924 Model—Priced for quick sale. A real buy for some one.

VICKBROS.

the farthest distance. Burton acted immediately and last night his name was broadcast from the eastern station as the winner. He is a senior at the Salem high school and a son of Roy Burton of the Ladd & Bush bank. His set is home-made.

Birth Reports—

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Prince at 1995 North Fourth and has been named Kenneth Lester Prince. Minoru Numata is the name given to the baby son born to Mr. and Mrs. George Numata on route 3, Salem, according to the certificate of birth filed with the city health officer yesterday.

Music During Dinner—

This evening and Sunday evening at the Gray Belle. 124

Mero Heads Fresh—

Harold Mero, prominent last year's Salem high graduate, was yesterday elected president of the Willamette university freshmen class for the coming semester. Mero was president of his class in high school, and since entering Willamette has taken an active part in class and dramatic activities. Other officers elected were Mildred Mills, vice president; Evangeline Heinick, secretary; Kenneth Litchfield, treasurer, and Charles Swan, retiring president, sergeant at arms.

Salon Art and Beauty Shoppe—

Expert marcelling, paper curl. 124

Owners in China—

The Kwong Pook company is owned by C. Y. Hule of Salem and Hule Duie and the estate of Sun Dun, both of Canton, China, according to the assumed business name filed with the Marion county clerk.

Standards Committee Meets—

Dean George W. Alden, acting president of Willamette university, attended a meeting of the higher standards of Oregon colleges. Representatives from all institutions of higher learning in Oregon were present.

Found—

A good place to eat. The Salem restaurant. Special dinner, Sunday, 75c. 159 S. High St. 125

Thrift Essays Completed—

Winners of the Thrift week essay contest will be made known next week after judges have passed upon the essays. The last essay was written yesterday and the process of selecting the best one from those submitted was begun. The selections then will be submitted to the judges and they will in turn find the winners of the several prizes that were announced for the campaign. The length of the essays varied, according to the grade in which they were produced.

Betts Evangelistic Campaign—

Opens at Alliance Tabernacle, Ferry, near Cottage, 3 p. m. Sunday. Public invited. 124

Barton Gets Prize—

Alvin Burton was awarded a prize for long distance radio receiving from among a large number of contestants spread over the entire United States. The prize was offered by station WREO at Lansing, Mich., for the person who reported listening in from

DIED

LYNCH—In this city, January 22, Joseph J. Lynch, age 49, a resident of Portland. He was the brother of J. T. Lynch of Portland and Mrs. J. R. Chapman of Salem. Funeral services will be held Monday, January 26, at 10:30 a. m. from St. Joseph's church. Interment will be at St. Barbara's cemetery. Rosary will be held Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at the Rigdon Mortuary.

HARDING—At the Old People's home, early January 23, Mrs. Lillie Harding, age 70 years, aunt of E. C. Pifer of Portland. Funeral services will be held Saturday, Jan. 24, at 1 p. m. from the Rigdon mortuary from whence the funeral cortege will depart for McMinville where interment will be held.

FUNERALS

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Anna Breitenstein Quinn, wife of Edward C. Quinn, will be held Saturday, Jan. 24, at 10 a. m. from St. Joseph's Catholic church, interment St. Barbara cemetery. Rosary was held last evening at 7 o'clock from the Rigdon mortuary.

RIGDON & SON'S MORTUARY
Unequaled Service

tion. The survey is conducted by the Oregon Agricultural college in cooperation with the United States government. The purpose of the survey is to give an authentic knowledge of soil conditions throughout the entire county, which will enable the farmers to know what sections of the county are fitted to produce.

Music During Dinner—

This evening and Sunday evening at the Gray Belle. 124

Heads Beaver Knights—

Walter Fuhrer of Salem, sophomore in the school of commerce, has been elected chairman of the Beaver Knights. This organization is the vigilance committee of OAC campus and their duty is to see that all rooks observe the college traditions. "The Beaver Knights is now under a new regime," says Fuhrer. "Wayward rooks will be watched closely. First year men will be expected to carry rook Bibles and wear green lids at all times."

Practice Shoot Announced—

Hams and sides of bacon are offered as prizes by John Herrin at a practice trap shoot Sunday. A big trap shoot is to be held the following Sunday.

Trade State Lands—

Trade of scattered lands within the national forest reserves in the state for one large tract of between 75,000 and 80,000 acres in Lane county has been recommended by the state land board, which is convinced that such a transfer will prove of great benefit to the state and that Oregon is getting the best of the deal. The new land contains much timber and also open land.

Dance, Schindler Hall—

Saturday night. 124

Norene Gets Advance—

From office boy to agency manager is the bit of history that can be written after the name of Edwin H. Norene, Willamette university graduate, who assumed his new duties recently in Portland. Norene entered the service of the New York Life Insurance company under the management of J. W. Day, director, in 1911 as an office boy. There was an interval of a few years in which he served overseas in the World war and finished his education. For a while he was a principal of a southern Oregon school.

Hotel Man Visits Here—

M. S. Taylor of North Bend has added the management of the North Bend hotel to his already numerous obligations as superintendent of schools and former captain Kidd of the Coos Bay Pirates, booster organization. Mr. Taylor was in the city yesterday to attend a meeting of the Hospitality club and remained until late last night as the guest of Al N. Pierce, president of the club and manager of the Marlon hotel. Mr. Taylor announced that he had obtained the services of Harold Regele, Willamette university student, as athletic coach and physical education director for his school. Mr. Regele will assume his new duties Monday morning.

Advertising Man's Father Dies While Boarding Train

Edwin Thomas, advertising man for The Statesman, received word yesterday that his father, John I. Thomas, died while visiting with his son, Ralph Thomas, at Pateros, Wash. Details were lacking, but it is understood that Mr. Thomas was stricken while he was boarding a train to return to his home. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas, a graduate of Willamette university, accompanied the remains to Medford, where interment will be made. Edwin Thomas joined his brother at Medford last night.

New Plant Installed—

A new refrigerator plant weighing five tons was installed at the Midget Market yesterday, making the new plant modern in every respect and doubling the capacity of the storage facilities of the market.

Betts Evangelistic Campaign—

Opens at Alliance Tabernacle, Ferry, near Cottage, 3 p. m. Sunday. Public invited. 124

Lions Favor Survey—

The Lions club went on record yesterday at their regular meeting as favoring the soil survey, which is being asked for by the Marion County Community feder-

FRANK JUE WILL SING HERE SUNDAY

Lyric Chinese Tenor, University of Oregon Student, Has Record

The John J. Evans Bible class has secured Frank Jue to be their soloist Sunday morning and he will appear before the congregation of the First Christian church during the evening.

Mr. Jue is a Portland youth, who is taking post graduate work in music at the University of Oregon. During his collegiate career he made an enviable record by his singing and is yet a popular soloist. While continuing his studies at Oregon he is teaching part time in the school of music and aspires to study in the east.

PERSONALS

Dr. C. W. Butler, president of the Independence Lions club, J. C. Henderson and C. R. Ellis were visitors at the Lions' club here yesterday.

daughter, Ruth, visited in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. Calavan of Jefferson visited in the city Friday.

BARGAINS In HARNESS and Farm IMPLEMENTS

Capital Bargain House
The House of a Million and One Bargains
215 CENTER

STR. "NORTHWESTERN" RIVER BOAT LINE
Now Operating on Regular Schedule Between Salem, Portland and Way Points
Leaving Portland 6 a. m. Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday
Leaving Salem 6 a. m. Monday, Wednesday, Friday
Rates are lower than truck or rail either carloads or less than carloads.
We deliver shipments to your door.
Special rates on shipments to and from California, Gulf or East Coast ports.
Call F. W. Karr, 957 or 848, for further information as to rates, schedules, etc.
Portland Dock Albers No. 3. Salem Dock Foot of Court St.

ARMORY REVIVAL

The Lord Jesus Christ Is At Work In The Armory
destroying the devil's kingdom and establishing his own in spirit, mind and body. A sound, practical gospel is going forth in the power of the Holy Spirit which is producing most blessed results. Don't miss your "portion of meat in due season."

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 there will be another "Divine Health" service in which the ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed. The Lord is greatly blessing this service, demonstrating the fact that there is healing and health for soul and body in the broken body and shed blood of our Lord. In this service Mr. Peterson will speak on the subject: "Thou hast kept the best wine until now."

Sunday night at 7:30 his subject will be: "Obstacles."

Tuesday: "The 'Woman' of Revelation 12."

Wednesday: "Destruction of New York, London and Paris."

Thursday: "A great future for the United States."

Friday: "The great 'harlot' of Revelation 17."

Saturday: "Will the Jews once more become an established nation in Palestine?"

Those coming in from the country on Sunday will be accommodated with gas stove in the armory for preparing lunches.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Police Court—

Fines were imposed Friday on H. K. McNight, H. McClaren, E. A. Parks, C. H. Siggin and E. B. Beck totaling $25. W. A. Chaffee, driving a high powered car, paid a fine of $10 for speeding. He used scrip for gasoline to pay the fine in lieu of cash. G. M. Roque was cited to appear in court today to answer a charge of speeding.

Music During Dinner—

This evening and Sunday evening at the Gray Belle. 124

Building Permits—

Building operations totaling $1000 were started yesterday when building permits were issued to six different persons by City Recorder Poulson. P. H. Loveland is to erect a dwelling at 925

North Church at a cost of $1600;

Mrs. M. N. Ballard, a dwelling at 1697 Center at an estimated cost of $2,000; a permit to the Leslie M. E. church to repair a church at Commercial and Myers, costing $1,000; Eric Butler to repair a dwelling at 255 North Twentieth, at a cost of $300; Joseph Taylor, to erect a dwelling at 1060 North Sixteenth, costing $2,200, and to B. P. Skewes at 1140 North 20th, to erect a dwelling costing $2,000.

Merchandise Shoppe—

Turner, Sunday, Jan. 25. 124

Moves Into New Home—

Dr. Walter H. Brown, who is to head the commonwealth health demonstration here, has moved his household goods into a residence on North Summer street, formerly occupied by Rev. E. E. Gilbert.

Music During Dinner—

This evening and Sunday evening at the Gray Belle. 124

New Name Secured—

The N. and B. Transfer is the assumed business name under which Frank M. Newton and F. N. Bassett, both of Salem, will operate, according to the filing made with the county clerk yesterday.

Betts Evangelistic Campaign—

Opens at Alliance Tabernacle, Ferry, near Cottage, 3 p. m. Sunday. Public invited. 124

Accident Report—

During the week ending January 23 a total of 480 accidents were reported to the state industrial accident commission of which four were fatal. The fatal cases were: J. T. Parks, Wending.

Dancing! Dancing!

Salem's New Auditorium Ladies Free
Wednesday and Saturday
Bepanson's Melody Friends

Skating, Skating, Skating

At Dreamland
Thursday, Friday, Saturday
7:30 to 10 p. m.
Hear Our New Calliope

POPULAR PRICED

Men's and Young Men's Tailored Suits $25 to $45
D. H. MOSHER
TAILOR

Dr. B. H. White

Osteopathy - Surgery
Electronic Diagnosis and Treatment (Dr. Abram's method)
Office Phone 855 or 464-J
500 U. S. Bank Bldg.

TERMINAL TAXI SERVICE

Cars for hire without drivers
PHONE 2020
Day and Night Service

WOODRY Buys Furniture

Phone 511

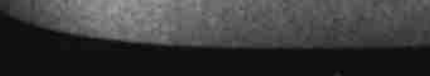

Typewriters

All makes
$5 Down
$5 Monthly
G. M. Lockwood
247 N. Com. St.
Phone 556

LADD & BUSH BANKERS

Established 1908
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

We Carry all Sizes of Coal from the large furnaces to the smallest nut size. Tell us for what purpose the coal is required and we'll point out the proper size to use. But although we carry all sizes, we handle only one quality, the very best coal from the very best mines. Our coal service is yours to command.

Prices range from $10 to $15
Also handle the best Diamond Brackets $15
PHONE 930
Larmer Transfer & Storage Co.

Stop Coughs COLDS

FOLEY'S HONEY-TAR

ESTABLISHED 1875
REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

A Chance to Win Worth-While Prizes

See Sunday's Statesman For a Cross-Word Puzzle Announcement

You have been working Cross Word Puzzles for fun—Sunday, The Statesman will offer a brand new idea and Salem merchants will offer prizes for the best solutions.

- H. L. Stiff Furniture Company will give a 42-piece Dinner Set.
- The Gray Belle will give two chicken dinners.
- G. W. Johnson & Co. will give a pair of Ladies' full fashioned pure silk Holograph hose.
- The Capital City Creamery will give a two-pound roll of butter.
- The Ace will give a $2.00 box of candy.
- The Yale Laundry will give $2.00 worth of laundry work.
- The Statesman will give a $2 subscription to the Daily Statesman.

SEE SUNDAY'S STATESMAN FOR FULL PARTICULARS