BARNES TO HEAD RED CROSS WORK

Campaign in Marion-Polk Counties To Be Carried On By Salem Man

E. T. Barnes will be the chairman of the American Red Cross activities in Marion-Polk counties during the campaign to raise $7500. T. M. Hicks will head the organization in Salem.

The drive, which will begin February 9 and continue until February 18, is for the purpose of carrying on the present relief program, and to meet the overhead cost of the Red Cross here.

In the vicinity of Salem between 125 and 150 men a month are given relief and service. It is necessary to have between $150 and $200 on hand each month to care for these cases as they come to the attention of the officials.

The overhead that arises with this relief is very moderate, even though it is sometimes necessary to write 25 or 30 letters in reference to claims, papers and other matters of the World war veterans. Sometimes this correspondence is carried on over a period of nine months to one year.

Some of the veterans are in the Oregon state hospital and other institutions and constant attention must be paid them in order to protect their interests and to secure attention from the United States government. The military officials are cooperating in this work, but it is necessary to have some attention from the Red Cross. It is a big work and covers a vast territory.

In the donations all of the money remains in Salem for use, but the memberships of the Red Cross have 50 cents of each membership sent to the general headquarters.

Walter Johnson Is Offered $2000 Week By Film Man

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Following the example of a long line of athletes who have refused to let the pleasure of sport dim their business eye, Walter Johnson, the Washington pitching ace, now may soon be seen disporting himself before the moving picture camera at $2,000 a week.

Tom Moore, Washington picture promoter, has made the offer and he said today the pitcher had "tentatively" accepted. Moore, who is an old friend of Johnson, declared that if the deal went through a six weeks' vaudeville tour was in prospect, after which Johnson would be placed "on location" for the pictures at Los Angeles. If Johnson finally agrees to a long term contract it means he will not accompany the world's champions to Tampa for spring training.
