Cash Shortage Traced

SEATTLE, Jan. 28.—John Maloney, 65, postmaster at Skyomish, Wash., 22 miles southeast of Cascade Tunnel on the Great Northern railway, was arrested today and brought to Seattle to face trial on charges of postal fund shortages amounting to $9,965.47. Maloney was released on $2500 bond.

Some of the information which is to be gathered by the survey will be by the Marion county commonwealth health survey. A complete index of every man, woman and child in Salem is to be secured. In the meanwhile special stress will be given to secure the list of every child five years of age or under in the city.
