Representing Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution tomorrow morning in Portland at the state board meeting will be: Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent, who will preside; Mrs. Elmo S. White, state corresponding secretary; Mrs. La Moine R. Clark, state chairman of the patriotic education committee and Mrs. Russell Catlin, regent of Chemeketa chapter.

The patrons of Zena, the oldest school district in Polk county, have organized a community club and will hold their first program this evening at the school house. W. A. Delzell, private secretary to Governor Walter M. Pierce, has been secured as speaker for the evening. There will be other program numbers in addition. Refreshments will be served. Of especial interest to all in the district is the fact that, through the courtesy of Frank Crawford who has a private plant of high voltage, that a line has been extended to the school house, with the result that the building now is completely wired.

While the regular monthly meeting of the community club will be held ordinarily on the third Friday of each month, the meeting is planned for tonight in order that the meeting for the first month of the year will not have to be omitted. The committee for the first meeting includes: Wayne Henry, Ralph Shepherd, and Mrs. James French.

The charter officers are: Frank Crawford, president; Ralph Scott, secretary; and Miss Louisa Patrick, treasurer.

Mrs. C. I. Adams entertained the Book and Thimble club last week when a group of the members met for a most pleasant afternoon at her home on the Kingwood Heights' road. The rooms were attractively decorated with the season's greenery. The main feature of the day was the round table discussion on "What the Legislature is Doing." Much attention was also given at this time to the Child Labor amendment. Later a spelling match was conducted by Mrs. Adams, with a prize given. Mrs. F. H. Bentley introduced an advertisement puzzle contest which kept the members busy for half an hour, the results bringing much merriment.

Mrs. M. Gehlar was the successful one in this contest.

Mrs. I. F. Brown and Mrs. E. Pattison sang a duet, after which the club quartet gave several selections out of the club's new song book. Mrs. Charles Schwartz assisted the hostess in serving. The following members were present: Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. I. F. Brown, Mrs. E. Pattison, Mrs. E. Manning, Mrs. B. Adams, Mrs. F. H. Bentley, Mrs. C. R. Schwartz, Mrs. M. Gehlar, Mrs. D. Adams, Mrs. Fred Kubin, and the hostess, Mrs. C. I. Adams.

Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. Adams will have charge of the program at the next meeting which will be
