

DRESS WELL AND SUCCEED

Real comfort

—plus real beauty and real economy!

If you've ever suffered from binding stocking tops, let us recommend this extra-comfort style—the "Holeproof Extra-Stretch." The special ribbed top never binds. It simply can't. Yet it never gets stretched all out of shape—because it has great elasticity. It's good-looking, too. And has the famous Holeproof durability—which makes it very economical. We have it for you, now, in Pure Silk, Silk-faced and Lusterized Lisle.

Adam Wurm Objects—The high cost of getting married bothered Adam Wurm of West Salem when he appeared at the license counter of the Marion county court house yesterday. He said the first time he got married, was back in '84 when things were cheap. At that time a license cost $1 and the services of a preacher just $2. Now, states Wurm, the license costs $3.25, and the sky is the limit for the preacher and an additional fee must be paid for a medical certificate. Adam sighed for the good old days. The license was made out to Adam.

Valsets Residents Visit—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Grout, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Peters, all of Valsets, arrived in Salem yesterday on business and pleasure.

The remains are in charge of Rigdon & Son mortuary, and the funeral announcement will be made later.

PETE—In this city, January 29, Frank N. Pete, age 35. The remains are at the Rigdon & Son mortuary, from whence the body will be sent to Astoria for burial services.

Tree Strikes Line—The reason for the surging of the electric power of Salem Wednesday was due to a tree that had fallen across the power line near Milwaukie, causing a short circuit. It is not known whether the tree was felled by high winds or had been cut down by a farmer. Usually if the power company is notified when a tree is to be cut down near one of their high power lines they will cooperate with the farmer by sending the power over another line, and thus enabling the patrons to have uninterrupted service. Oftimes it is dangerous to the man cutting the tree when a high tension line is broken.

Kindergarten Measure Read By Woodward and Collier

Establishments of kindergartens in school districts of the first class is urged by Representatives Woodward and Collier upon petition of 25 parents or guardians of children between four and six years of age. The measure is known as HB No. 204.

The proposed law provides that districts having 10,000 or more than two additional kindergartens a year for the next three years and that districts having less than 10,000 more than one kindergarten in any one year.

The pistol, however, isn't a cause. It is a symptom.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

The prison show—The Bits for Breakfast man saw it last night.

The entire show was prepared by the prisoners in the Oregon penitentiary; scenery made and arranged by them; every actor and participant in any way is a prisoner. And it is a good show. There are traveling aggregations charging three times the price that do not give as genuine a treat to their audiences.

The theater at the penitentiary accommodates about 700 people; seats about that many. It has been filled every single night, and people have been turned away. It will be filled again tonight, and tomorrow night.

This prison show will net away about $1000 to the entertainment fund of the prison; to be expended for better music and musical instruments and in other ways to add to the facilities for giving the men entertainment.

One newspaper reporter says this show has putrid jokes and indecent illusions. Forget that. There is nothing to it. The jokes conform very well to the requirement of Abraham Lincoln, who said "a story should be neither too long nor too broad." There is nothing "broad" enough to offend in the jokes of the penitentiary players.

One of the star performers is Fred Taylor (colored), who used to work in the home of Supreme Judge Frank A. Moore in Salem, and who was well known as a boy to most old Salemians.

Mr. T. Holman of Eola visited in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. Berchold of Mt. Angel was in the city Thursday.

W. J. Stockholm visited in Salem from Independence yesterday.
