meet with First Methodist church members at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. A special program is being planned with Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford as chairman of the committee on Evangelism, in charge.

The Jason Lee society will observe the day with the Keizer church.

Miss Virginia Berger celebrated her fourteenth birthday in a delightful manner yesterday afternoon with a blue party to the Oregon followed with a festive luncheon at the Spa. An attractive birthday cake was cut, with violets and pussy willows used on the table for the decorative scheme. Dainty lavender favors were used. Assisting Mrs. F. H. Berger was Mrs. Armin Berger.

Guests for the anniversary afternoon were: Miss Julia Creech, Miss Margaret Cory, Miss Margaret Steiner, Miss Rosalind Howe, Miss Gwendolen Jarmin, Miss Claudia Buntin, Miss Gladys Edgar, Miss Minabelle Lemke, Miss Ella Russell, Miss Virginia Van Fleet, Miss Edith Findley, Miss Edith May Jenks, and the guest of honor, Miss Virginia Berger.

Mrs. A. A. Lee returned home Friday morning from Everett, Washington, where she was called on account of the illness of her sister, Miss Helen Atwood, remaining for two and a half weeks. Miss Atwood, who is visiting nurse at the Weyhauser mills, returned with Mrs. Lee. She will convalesce for some time in Salem.

The Senior Standard Bearers of the First Methodist church will meet for a business meeting and social at the home of Miss Eugenia Savage, 293 South 14th street, Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock. The hostesses will be Miss Faith Priddy, Lorraine Robbins, and Mrs. A. A. Lee. Miss Esther Lisle is chairman of the game committee.

The Salem Music Teachers' association will meet tomorrow evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill at the Churchill studio on North Commercial street.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., were among those from Salem attending "Andres Chenier" in grand opera on Friday evening in Portland.

Widespread interest always attends the concerts which are sponsored by such an organization as the Woman's Auxiliary of the YWCA. The third such annual program is announced for 8:15 o'clock on Tuesday when an interesting company of musicians will sing at the First Methodist church. Each soloist and number has chosen attractive numbers, and the entire program will be a decided offering to the musical calendar of the winter season. The complete program has been arranged as follows:

- Prologue from organ suite Rodgers
- Meditation Sturges
- Prof. T. S. Roberts
- Bagdad Ager
- That's Georgia Katzman

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet next Saturday at the home of the chapter regent, Mrs. Russell Catlin. Thirtieth and Chemeketa streets. Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson will have charge of the program which will deal with "Sulgrave Manor" in England, Washington's ancestral home.

Ronald Craven went to Portland yesterday for a week-end visit at the homes of his brother and sister, Everett Craven and Mrs. Lester E. Pike.

One of the most delightful affairs in many weeks was the birthday tea on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Hendricks honoring ladies of the First Congregational church who have reached their eightieth birthday. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Elizabeth Adair, and coincidentally, of the hostess, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks. In spite of her intention to conceal the fact, the eight honor guests took the opportunity to present her with a lovely flowering cyclamen.

Two solos, beautifully sung, were given by Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Harry Hawkins accompanying her. Mrs. Hawkins later accompanied a group of members who sang songs dear to those who were in their youth in the past generation.

At the tea hour a beautifully appointed table was arranged for the eight honor guests and the pastor of the church, Reverend W. C. Kantner. A large birthday cake, adorned with a circle of violets centered the table. Sixteen candles, each representing five years were used in a festive way. Each honor guest received a cor-page of violets and snowdrops. Places were marked for: Mrs. Arletta M. Page, Mrs. Josephine Taylor, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Kirk, Mrs. M. C. Byrd, Mrs. Annis Parkhurst, Miss Nellie Taylor, Mrs. Elizabeth Adair and Mrs. Carolyn McCracken.

An interesting guest list was prepared by these present in following their signature with the year in which they came to Salem. Probably Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. Ida Babcock have the distinction of being the "pioneers" of the group, both being able to give the year 1857.

The following is the guest-list for the afternoon: Mrs. Josephine Taylor, July, 1885; Mrs. Elizabeth B. Kirk, September, 1890; Mrs. M. C. Byrd, 1890; Mrs. Annis Parkhurst, 1891; Miss Nellie Taylor, 1867; Mrs. Elizabeth Adair, 1872; Mrs. Carolyn McCracken, 1891; Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, 1889; Mrs. Newton McCoy, 1923; Mrs. W. I. Staley, 1890; Mrs. W. D. Clarke, 1915; Mrs. E. Reitz, 1898; Mrs. H. W. Elgin, 1896; Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy, 1891; Mrs. C. L. Dunn, 1922; Miss Edith C. Hazard, 1905; Mrs. J. R. Jennings, 1923; Mrs. Mark McCallister, 1913; Mrs. Annabel Stockwell, 1924; Mrs. Alice E. Edmundsen, 1906; Mrs. Alice Kirk Miller, 1890; Miss Constance Kanter, 1898; Mrs. Harriet Slade Roberts, 1902; Mrs. Lora Taylor Hawkins, 1916; Bertha Byrd McMahon, 1892; Anna White Kantner, 1868; Maude Maurer Fleming, 1901; Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., 1893; Dora Page Alden, 1914; Louisa Kraps, 1891; Mrs. Kathryn Fox Brown, 1919; Mrs. Samuel Orr, 1923; Mrs. Margaret Brown, 1898; Mrs. Muriel Humphreys, 1915; Mrs. H. C. Fox, 1920; Mrs. Ida Pratt Babcock, 1857; Mrs. A. N. Moores, 1857; Mrs. Josephine L. Bross; Mrs. Hettie Esther Harbord Fry, 1873; Mrs. Emilie G. Hendricks, 1888; Mrs. T. S. McKenzie, 1912; Mrs. Fannie Carthew, 1918; Mrs. Carolyn McCracken, 1891; Mrs. R. N. Hoover, 1894; Mrs. Louis Olson, 1912; Mrs. Mary W. Cauthorn, 1914; Mrs. S. M. Endicott, 1912; Cora J. Talkington, Mrs. F. W. Steusloff, Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, 1873; Mrs. C. H. Fake, 1919; Mrs. H. L. Clark, 1906; Mrs. Karl G. Becke, Mrs. Donald Young, and Mrs. F. L. Cannon.

During the afternoon, with fifty-three in attendance, Mrs. Hendricks was assisted by: Mrs. T. S. MacKenzie, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. Karle Beck, and Mrs. Donald Young.

Mrs. E. T. Prescott will entertain the Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary club on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, 541 Mill street. All members are requested to bring one or more of their favorite recipes which will be put in cook book form to be sold as a means of benefit for the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Gertrude Remington and Mrs. John Robins will be assistant hostesses with Mrs. Prescott.

woman radio writer in the country came to the coast to visit with her father, J. L. Brady, she was introduced to Mrs. Barton and invited to her home. Later a photograph was made of a portion of the interior of this interesting home featuring the fire-place with its motif of "gray geese flying" and the Radiola Super-Six. Grouped about the radiola are Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barton and Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Barton and the little son of the latter. One of Mrs. Barton's lovely lyrics is featured on the page which bears the caption, "Radio Brings Poetry to Home of Poetess."

The Spanish War Veterans' Auxiliary will meet on Wednesday for a called meeting at the Armory, occasioned by the annual visit of inspection to the auxiliary by Mrs. L. W. Hyde of Hillsboro who is the department president. The members will enjoy a covered dish luncheon at 1 o'clock.

VAUDEVILLE AT BLIGH

Featured at the Bligh theatre today is an act said to be unlike any other offered on the vaudeville stage today. It is called the Indian Follies, or "A Twentieth Century Revue." By special arrangement these redmen and Indian girls have been engaged to appear in their original follies. They offer the only act of the kind in the world. In the ensemble of their presentation they revel in the native pastimes. A handsome stage setting is carried.

"Two Black Jumping Jacks" are Davis and McCarver. This duo of colored entertainers offers some fast and furious dancing. Bert Keyes is billed as the "Keys of the Keys." He is a tall, good-looking chap who offers comedy and syncopated piano playing. He is known as one of the fashion plates of vaudeville.

Harry and Kitty Sutton offer what they call "The Powder Puff Girl." The act is set in an environment depicting a beauty shop and is full of clever dancing and singing. Jimmy Murphy presents what he terms "Oddities." He is a ventriloquist, plays the violin and gives various musical and vocal imitations.

Twenty-Five Ladies of Salem Can Get All the Silver They Want Without Parting with a Penny

Twenty five sets of the famous Rogers' "1847" Silver Plate are to be distributed in the Homes of Salem. No money is needed. None asked for. Try the silver for thirty days—if it isn't the finest and the most beautiful service you ever wished for—bring it back. No harm done. But if you like it—keep it and—next month, thirty days from the date you get the set—you can start little payments of a dollar or so a week.

The total cost of the twenty six piece table set is but $32.10. And that is the lowest cash price everywhere in the U. S. A. All the knives have hollow handles and stainless steel blades. Each set is presented with the velvet lined service tray—without additional cost. And there is selection among all the most beautiful patterns, "Ambassador"—"Ancestral"—"Anniversary" and "Heraldic."

Not a penny extra to pay—no money needed to secure a complete set—but only twenty five sets to be distributed on these remarkably easy terms. See that your home gets a set—be among the first to call!
