

SOCIETY

AUDRED BUNCH PHONE 106

A HOST OF SALEM FRIENDS will be interested in the approaching wedding of Miss Ellen May Swan to Mr. Cecil W. Nist, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Nist of 1432 North Sixteenth street. The wedding, which will be an impressive military affair, taking place at Saint Cornelius chapel at Governor's Island, New York, will be solemnized at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, February 12. Dr. Stetson of New York City will officiate.

Announcement of the engagement, which was made public in the early fall, was made in both army and navy registers. The bride-elect is the daughter of Chaplain and Mrs. Thomas Edward Swan of Governor's Island, New York.

Mr. Nist, graduating from the Salem high school in 1918, attended both Williams University and Presidio. In June of 1923 he was graduated from the United States military academy at West Point, since which time he has been stationed at Governor's Island.

After the service, for which over two hundred invitations have been issued, Mr. Nist and his bride will take a honeymoon trip through northern New York, going also to West Point at this time. According to present plans they will make their home on Governor's Island.

This evening will mark the occasion of the third annual concert sponsored in Salem by the Woman's Auxiliary of the YWCA. An interesting and versatile program has been arranged with organ, orchestra, solo, and chorus numbers adding, one after the other, to the enjoyable nature of the occasion. Mrs. Harry Harms will contribute two of the most pleasing numbers on the program, "My Dream" and "Good Bye," both from Tosti.

The concert is being given as a benefit affair for the raising of funds for the YMCA pledge made by the auxiliary.

Mrs. W. T. Hickey left yesterday for Hastings, Nebraska, after which she will visit in Chicago. All together Mrs. Hickey plans to be in the east about three weeks.

One of the most interesting affairs of the pre-Valentine season will be the masquerade dance of the Progressive dancing club this evening in Derby hall. Hundreds of valentines have been used for an effective background. Prizes for the outstanding costumes will be given during the evening. Vocal solos by Mrs. William Prunk and dance specialties will add to the pleasure of the evening. Forty-five couples make up the membership of the club, with ten couples having been invited to share the festivities.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, 435 North Winter street. Mrs. G. W. Hickman will lead in the devotions while Miss Mary Findley will have charge of the lesson.

Astoria's invitation to the Oregon DAR to hold its next annual convention in its city was accepted by the state board of management at its meeting Saturday, held in Central library.

Mrs. Seymour Jones of Salem, state regent, presided at the session, and the thirty-five women present represented chapters from all parts of the state. The spring conference for the Daughters will be held March 19-21, with Astoria chapter as hostesses.

Among the business transacted was the decision to place markers at historic places by Multnomah chapter, Portland; Yamhill, McMinnville; Queenette, The Dalles, and Coos Bay chapter, Marshfield. Also the recommendation to the national organization to purchase the portrait of Washington done by Rembrandt Peale, now owned by Anthony Wayne Cook, and hang it in Continental hall; to revise by-laws of the state constitution and report at the spring conference. An informal luncheon followed at which talks were given by Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Fleischer Linn, regent of Multnomah chapter.—Portland Telegram.

The program of the coming Dance Concert by the Portia Mansfield Dancers is a widely varied one and embraces almost all types of dancing—Greek aesthetic, national and interpretive. One of the most dramatic examples of modern interpretive dancing is the "Chanson Arabe," danced to the music from "Scheherazade" (Rimsky-Korsakoff). The story is of an Arabian dancing girl, captured by pirates, and includes a thrilling Dervish Dance by the girl as her religious supplication for deliverance, to the whirling Dervish music from Beethoven's "Ritornel of Athens." Jeanne Fuller does the Dervish Dance, while a dashing Pirate Dance by Jack Daw is also included in this number. Later on a graceful "Waltz Fantasy" is given by Jeanne Fuller and Jack Daw to the strains of a Mana-Zucca waltz. The Mansfield Dancers appear at the Grand theater on February 16. Tickets are on sale by Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby.

Mrs. N. C. Peterson left this morning for a short trip to Seattle.

A program entertaining in every detail has been planned for Friday evening when the Brush College Grange meets at 6:30 o'clock for dinner and a social evening. The occasion will mark the observance of Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, and Valentine's day, all in one. An interesting article on Abraham Lincoln will be read by Mrs. Al H. Steiner. The Life of Washington, in three phases, will be given as follows: Early life till the beginning of the military period, by Dr. C. L. Blodgett; Military period, Mrs. U. G. Lehman; and Life in the White House, by Oliver Whitney.

Delightful old-fashioned songs, such as "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," will be sung by Mrs. Guy Newgent. Six pupils of Mrs. Ralph White will dance a Russian dance, and the stately Minuet. A special feature of the evening will be the plan for a Valentine postoffice. Each guest will bring a valentine, on which he writes his own name. These will be divided into ladies' and gentlemen's groups and then distributed, the men receiving those of the ladies, and the ladies those of the men. Each guest, as he bears his missive away from the postoffice will read the verse it bears and the name of the sender.

Mrs. William McCall is in charge of the arrangements, with Mrs. Al Steiner as her assistant.

The Jolly Sixteen club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. T. W. Davies, 941 North Cottage street, Mrs. C. E. Barber will entertain with Mrs. Davies.

A coincidence as unusual as it was delightful was culminated on Friday evening when the MacDowell club presented on their program in the First Christian church Miss Frances Virginia Melton, pianist. The coincidence relates itself to the appearance just three months earlier of Grace Wood Jess, folk song artist, on the same platform. Congratulation is surely due the Illinois Woman's college of which both Miss Melton and Miss Jess are graduates in sending out two such consummate, though contrasting artists, Miss Jess, the vivacious entertainer and Miss Melton, beauty's disciple, with marvelous grace in her touch.

Mrs. Earl Wood entertained for her husband on the occasion of his birthday at a delightful 2 o'clock dinner on Sunday at their home in West Salem. An attractive birthday cake was the table-feature of the occasion. Misses Beth and Ruth Bedford entertained the group during the afternoon with many pleasing musical selections. The guests for the anniversary

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today
Liberty ladies meet in Liberty hall for important business meeting. Bring thimble and needle.
Writers' club. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, 1155 North Summer street.
Stated communication and business meeting. Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star.
YMCA Woman's auxiliary concert. First Methodist church, 8 o'clock.
War Mothers, Chamber of Commerce, 2:30 o'clock.
Sons of Veterans auxiliary. Mrs. E. T. Prescott, 451 Mill street, hostess.
St. Paul's guild. Mrs. H. B. Thielsen, 1049 Court street, hostess.
Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae meeting. Miss Merle McKelvey, Court apartments, hostess, 2:30 o'clock.
Progressive club dancing party, Derby hall.

Wednesday
Senior Standard Bearers. Miss Eugenia Savage, 293 South 14th street, hostess, 7:30 o'clock.
Elizabeth Levy in violin concert. First Christian church, 8:15 o'clock.
Anthony Euwer's art exhibit. Marion hotel, 8 o'clock.
Meeting of Associated Charities workers, Chamber of Commerce, 8 o'clock.
South Salem circle. Mrs. C. H. Fake, hostess, 2:30 o'clock.
Called meeting of Spanish War Veterans' auxiliary, Armory, 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon.
Jolly Sixteen club. Mrs. T. W. Davies, 941 N. Cottage St.
Vecines Reales club. Mrs. C. I. Parmenter, 809 N. Commercial street. All day meeting.
Leslie Methodist church Ladies' Aid society. Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, 1595 S. High street, hostess.
General Aid society. Jason Lee church, 2:30 o'clock. Election of officers.

Thursday
Highland Parent Teachers' association tea. Mrs. George Wenderoth, hostess.
Valley View club. Mrs. Ammon Grice.

Friday
Benefit bridge tea. Woman's club house, 2 o'clock.
Civic arts and landscaping section of Arts' league. Educational room at city library, 7:30 o'clock.
First Congregational Church Missionary society. Mrs. Dagn J. Fry, hostess.
Three one-act plays. Waller hall, 8 o'clock.
Brush College Grange. School house, 6:30 o'clock.

Saturday
Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Russell Catlin, Thirteenth and Chemeketa streets, hostess.
Day of Prayer. Woman's Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist church.

Dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ruggles, Miss Wrennie Chapman, Miss Betty Bedford, Miss Ruth Bedford, Miss Joan Newcomb, Mr. Henry Morasch, and the hostess and guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wood.

Mrs. A. M. Applegate and little son, Teddy, of Portland are visiting at the home of Misses Lillian and Pearl Applegate, 503 Chemeketa street.

The general meeting of the Jason Lee Ladies' Aid society will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the church. Election of officers for the year will be held and a large attendance of the members is especially desired.

Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson and Miss Nell Coppock will leave by motor tomorrow morning for San Francisco, Cal. In San Francisco they will meet Mrs. C. D. Bowles in whose automobile they will make the trip, as well as Mrs.

Robert Flint. The party will motor on to Los Angeles, stopping at other southern points as well, before returning to Salem later in the month.

The following item from the Sunday Oregonian will interest the many Salem friends of Miss Frances Kling who was teacher of English and physical education last year at the Grant Junior high school. Miss Kling made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Staley.

The engagement of Miss Frances Kling to Howard T. Wereschkul was announced yesterday afternoon at a bridge tea at the home of Miss Frances Barbey in Irvington. A similar announcement was made last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Scott. Miss Kling's brother-in-law and sister, to another group of friends.

Miss Kling is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Kling of Portland. She is a graduate of Reed college and is at present director of physical education in the Newberg schools. Mr. Wereschkul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wereschkul and is at present in Hongkong, China, with the firm of L. Dunbar, flour importers.

At Miss Barbey's tea the engagement was announced in the form of tiny cablegrams from China, which bore the news to the inmate friends who were gathered for the occasion. The wedding will be an event of the early fall, after which the young couple will make their home in the Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Euwer and little son, Anthony, Jr., were dinner guests last evening of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford.

The ladies of the Woodburn Ladies' Aid society will be special guests tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock of the Leslie society at the home of Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, 1595 South High street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters entertained the Owl card club last Thursday evening at their home, 1191 N. Capitol street. Pussy willows and daffodils were used for the attractive decorations. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening, with the high award going to Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins. Later the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The members of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. John Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pade, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bright, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCall were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, at Dundee.

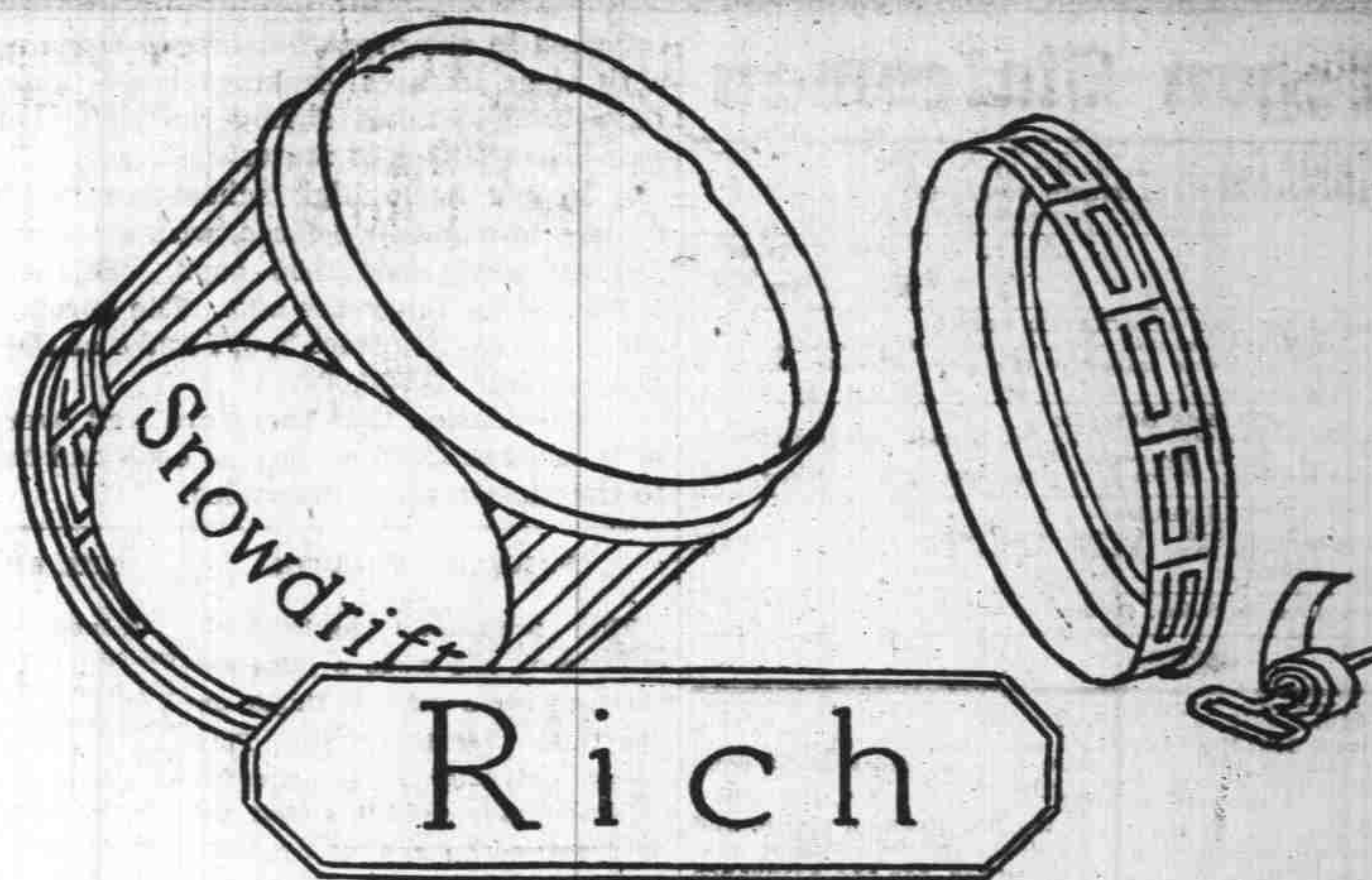

The first February meeting of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will be held this evening in the club rooms.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson were among those having the pleasure of seeing "Madame Butterfly" on Saturday in Grand Opera. While in Portland they were the guests of Dr. Thompson's brother, Dr. W. Lair Thompson.

The members of the Vecines Reales club will meet on Wednesday for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. C. L. Parmenter, 809 N. Commercial street.

The Salem War Mothers will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The members of the MP bridge club entertained their husbands on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Darby for a most enjoyable gathering. A no

The fact that Snowdrift is made of oil as good as a fine salad oil—and nothing else—means that it has the highest possible food value. It is rich, nourishing, wholesome food—100% pure fat.

Snowdrift not only makes things good to eat but is itself more nourishing than almost any food you cook with it.

For making cake and cookies, biscuit, pie crust, and all sorts of good things to eat—SNOWDRIFT.

Snowdrift is made out of oil as good as a fine salad oil host covered dish dinner was served. Seated at the table, beautifully decorated with spring flowers, were: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Grote, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith, Mrs. E. O. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Folts, Mr. and Mrs. Al H. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marshall.

Miss Virginia Sisson celebrated the occasion of her fourteenth birthday on Saturday with an afternoon of Mah Jongg and a delightful birthday luncheon. Miss Bertha Babcock won the first playing prize for the Chinese diversion and Miss Lorraine Kinzer the second.

Mrs. B. E. Sisson, in entertaining for her daughter, was assisted by Mrs. Byron Lieualien. The luncheon table was lovely with pink flowers and place cards and pink candles on the festive cake.

Miss Sisson's guests included the following group of friends: Miss Maxine Meyers, Miss Frances Laws, Miss Annabel Hawley, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Gretchen Thielsen, Miss Esther Wood, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Lolita Robinson, Miss Lorita Robinson, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Anna Abernethy, Miss Christine Abernethy, Miss Isabel Morehouse, Miss Margaret Morehouse, Miss Maxine Ulrich, and Miss Lorraine Kinzer.

Mrs. C. E. Knowland will be hostess this week for the members of the Thursday bridge club.

HAZEL GREEN

Tony Casper's baby has been very sick from tonsillitis but is now improving.

February 2. Rev. Hartman of Portland is the evangelist. Mrs. Marie Hendersbott of Stanton is visiting her father N. P. Williamson.

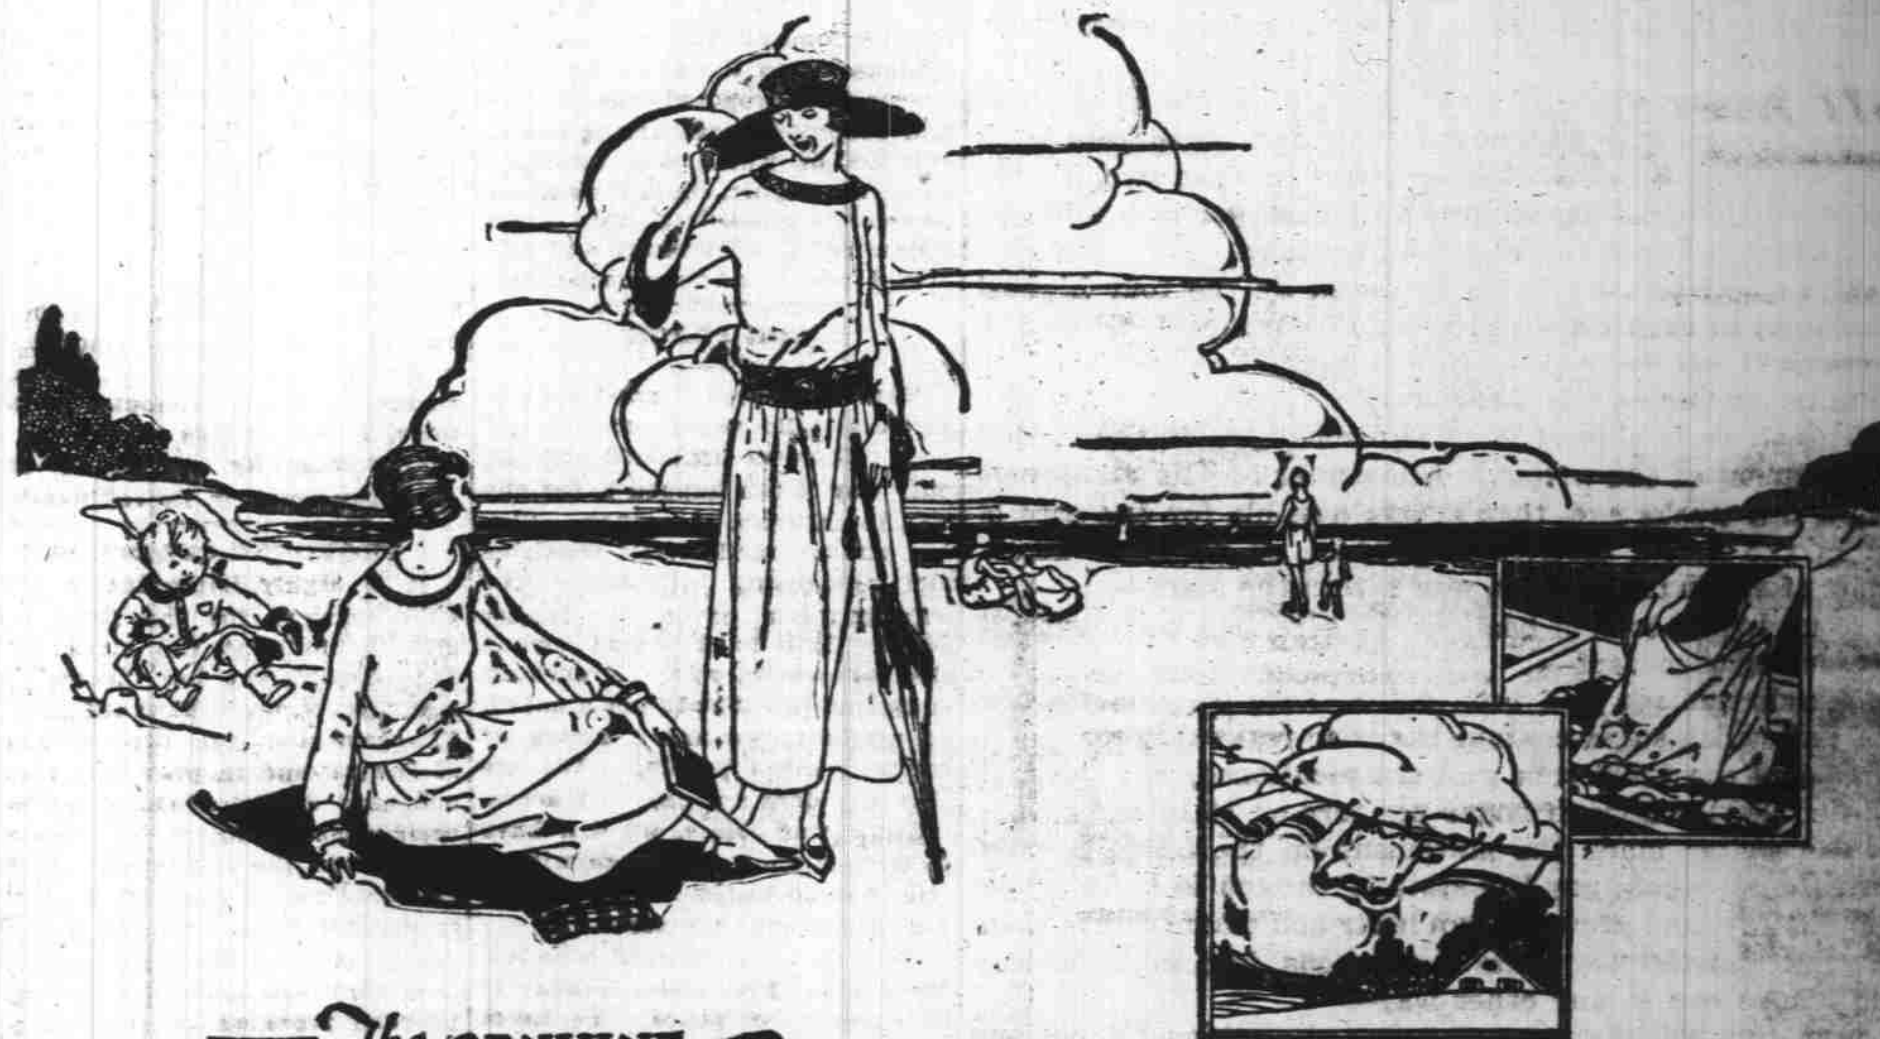

Mrs. Mary Woods and children spent the week-end in Portland and attending United Brethren conference.

Mrs. George Zelinski visited her friend, Mrs. Kites of Salem last week.

Rev. Miss Luckey is visiting her sister, Mrs. Salisbury of Portland and attending United Brethren conference.

B. C. Zelinski who was operated on at the Salem hospital Monday is doing nicely.

Mr. Beok who has been sick is better.

The GENUINE Everfast Wash Fabrics —CANNOT FADE!

BEFORE you plan any wash dresses for yourself and your children, come in and examine our display of Everfast Wash Fabrics!

You will find here a full range of beautiful Everfast fabrics in a fascinating array of colors.

All Everfast colors, however delicate their tints, are guaranteed not to fade.

Buy EVERFAST and make it into dresses, rompers, smocks and suits. Let them be worn in the blazing sun or the salt air of the shore. Send them to the laundry for scrubbing, even boiling, week after week. Nothing can fade the lovely Everfast colors.

We guarantee that Everfast Wash Fabrics are absolutely:
Fast to Soap and Boiling
Fast to Sun and Weather
Fast to Perspiration and Uric Acid
Fast to Everything they encounter, as a dress, blouse or suit fabric

For every yard of Everfast which, for any reason, does not hold its color, we will cheerfully refund not only your money, but also the cost of making the garment as well.

Ask for a sample of Everfast. Take it home and test it by boiling, by exposure to sunshine, or any way you like, to prove to yourself that the color is absolutely fast.

Dependable ingredients assure good cakes—that's why

CALUMET

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

Has a prominent place on the pantry shelf in millions of homes

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

Two Great Labor Savers

WHITE KING Washing Machine SOAP

—and the modern washing machine.

It is the soap you use in your washing machine that determines how clean your washing will be. WHITE KING WASHING MACHINE SOAP is distinctive in its results. Your laundry will be whiter, without injury to fabric.

"It takes so little"
"For every Household Use"

PHONE 11 MILLER'S PHONE 11
SALEM'S LEADING DEPARTMENT STORE