M announced a program for Novel and lovely costumes were this evening as interesting in its alike on display with appropriate o'clock. arrangement as it is in its variety prizes being bestowed. Delightof delightfully chosen numbers. ful solo and duet dance specialties Miss Levy plays with a sparkle were given, with Mrs. William and sprightliness that is at one Prunk's solos adding to the pleaswith her vivacious personality, and ure of the evening. Forty-five 8 o'clock. her numbers in every detail are couples are members of the club. bound to please.

piano for the evening. The complete program, with the opening number at 8:30 o'clock is Chaconne Vitali-Thompson the Jensen country home Sunday Romanza Andaluza Sarasate noon. Those present were the hos-Scherzo Van Goen tess, Mrs. Jensen, Miss Thea Jen- street. All day meeting. Waltz in A Major

Allegro Largo Presto

Bandana Ballads: From the Canebrake...... Samuel Gardner Ziguenerweisen Sarasate

The Business and Professional Women will have as their special guest at the club dinner at 6:30 o'clock this evening in the Chainevening at the Marion hotel.

The rivic arts section of the Salem Arts league will meet in the educational room of the Salem library at 7:30 p. m. Friday, Feb. 6. Mr. Bateham, gardener at the the "Correct Nomenclature Plants."

A veritable shower of valentines made an enchapting background will take part in the play: Mrs. volution. Mrs. Russell Catlin, for the masquerade dance last D. C. Washburn, Mrs. Linn Far- Thirteenth and Chemeketa streets,

Watch Child's Bowels

"California Fig Syrup" is Children's Harmless

When your child is constipated. llious, has colic, feverish-breath, oated-tongue, or diarrhea, a teaand waste. Never cramps or over- Wilson. Mrs. Pennington and Mrs. acts. Contains no narcotics or Stolzheise. soothing drugs. Children love its imitation fig syrup .-- Adv.

With

News

riss ELIZABETH LEVY has evening of the Progressive club. Ten guest couples were present Edgar Coursen will be at the for the merry throng for the evening.

Silverton-Mrs. Anna K. Jensen was hostess at a dinner party at sen, Alfred ensen, Mrs. Marie Bu-..... Brahams-Hockstein ness, Miss Vivian Buness, Mrs. Concerto A. Vivaldi-Nachez Hans ensen, Norman Jensen, Mar- 1595 S. High street, hostess. vin Jensen, Annabell Jensen, Mrs. Piano and Organ Accompaniment Chrisene Hansen, Hans Hansen, Mrs. O. S. Hauge, George Hauge of officers. * *

The Jolly Sixteen club will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. T. W. Davies, 941 N. Cotage.

* * Those who remember with what success "Cranberry Corners" was presented last year by the Salem deroth, hostess. ber of Commerce rooms, Anthony Heigths' Community club-and Euwer, Oregon artist and versi- there is none who saw it that can Grice. fier, whose interesting exhibit will forget-will be doubly interested be shown for the first time this in the announcement that "Down in Maine" is to be staged at the club house, 2 o'clock. Community Hall on Wednesday and Thursday of next week-February 11 and 12.

A comedy drama in four acts it provides parts for a dozen tal- Missionary society. Mrs. Dan J. ented characters who are being Fry, hostess. enthusiastically coached by Lloyd state hospital, will give a talk on Waltz of Willamette university. The proceeds from the two evenings will go toward the community house building fund.

The following are those who rington, Mrs. C. W. Sawyer, Mr. hostess. and Mrs. King Bartlett, A. N. Fulkerson, P. F. Stolzheise, W. M. Trudgen, H. Morgan, Harry Burn- Methodist church. side Rodney Hardwick, and Edward Burnside.

art exhibit will open at the Marion Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. P. E. Fulhotel this evening at 8 o'clock lerton, Mrs. Leon W. Gleason, under the auspices of the Salem Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Mrs. O. A. Olsen, Arts' League. Mrs. J. M. Clifford Mrs. Clara Vibbert, Mrs. Harley art director, is in charge of the White, Mrs. David Wright, and aim the promotion of the produc- All pictures are viewed in their details . Admission is free, with the hostess, Mrs. Elmer Daue. a cordial invitation issued to all

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford have as oir committee for the evening and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Miss Edna Garfield and Perry Reigelman.

she underwent a serious opera- of September. tion at the Portland Sanitarium. She is improving rapidly.

Saturday afternoon.

nington led the girls in physical Europe. culture exercises. After the children had played games they were served with a light luncheon. The ladies entertaining were: spoonful of genuine "California He ladies entertaining were.

Fig Syrup" sweetens the stomach Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Hulsey, Mrs. and promptly cleans the bowels of Kayes, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. Miller, poisons, gases, bile, souring food Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Battles, Mrs.

Mrs. Elmer Daue was hostess Ask your druggist for genuine last Friday at a charmingly ap-"California Fig Syrup" which has pointed 1 o'clock luncheon when full directions for babies and children of all ages, plainly printed she entertained her bridge club. no bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get ap tive on the luncheon table where covers were placed for: Mrs. Carl

Review

MOULD YOU KNOW

YOUR OWN WIFE IF

SHE WORE A MASK?

NEW TODAY

The MASKED DANCER

HELENE CHADWICK and LOWELL SHERMAN

Adapted from The Woman with the Mask

Comedy

by RodolphiLother

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today

Business and Professional Womn. 6:30 o'clock dinner. Chamber of Commerce rooms, Senior Standard Bearers. Miss

Eugenia Savage, 293 South 14th street, hostess, 7:30 o'clock. Elizabeth Levy in violin concert, First Christian church, 8:15

Anthony Euwer's art exhibit, Marion hotel, 8 o'clock. Meeting of Associated Charities workers, Chamber of Commerce, South Salem circle, Mrs. C. H. Fake, hostess, 2:30 o'clock. Called meeting of Spanish War

Veterans' auxiliary, Armory, 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon. Jolly Sixteen club. Mrs. T. W. Davies, 941 N. Cottage St.

Vecines Reales club. Mrs. C. I Parmenter, 869 N. Commercial

Leslie Methodist church Ladies Aid society. Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, General Aid society. Jason Lee church. 2:30 o'clock. Election Woman's Foreign Missionary society. First Methodist church. Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, 435 North

Winter street, hostess. Thursday Rapheterian club. Mrs. James

Heltzel, hostess. Highland Parent Teachers' association tea. Mrs. George Wen-

Valley View club. Mrs. Ammon Friday

Benefit bridge tea, Woman's Civic arts and landscaping sec tion of Arts' league. Educational room at city library, 7:30 o'clock.

Three one-act plays. hall. 8 o'clock. Brush College Grange. School house. 6:30 o'clock. Saturday Daughters of the American Reeign Missionary societies of the Armstrong and Mrs. Earl Dane, who were present as guests, Mrs. The anticipated Anthony Euwer U. Scott Page, Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton won the word to Salem friends, announces his intention to remain abroad for another summer term at Fontainebleau, instead of sailing for the states in May as he earlier in-M. 3. Carrie Chase, 639 Center tened. According to this plan he has returned from Portland where will arrive home about the first afternoon's prize.

Until June he will continue his study in Paris with Monsieur Phillipe, piano, and Monsieur De The Child Welfare committee -woo pur Auomiru ioi uurmuprd post the Selem Heigths Progressive position. Through his work this club sponsored a party for the summer at Fontainebleau he will school children in the club house obtain the performer's concert planist certificate, bearing the sig-Neva Stolzheise and Ran Pen- natures of the greatest artists in

Mr. Launer writes that he is realizing an encouraging progress

At a simple and impressive wedding service, Miss Marion Steiwer became the bride of Mr. Edward Leroy Ketchum, on Saturday. The ceremony was quietly observed at the home of the bride, Reverend W. N. Blodgett officiating. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum are of Hopewell. The bride, who formerly made her home here has many friends in Salem who will be interested in the news.

The Hayesville Community club will hold its regular meeting Friday, January 6, at the Hayesville schoolhouse. A large and well selected program has been pre-

The ladies of the community re giving another such chicken dinner as was enjoyed when the new schoolhouse was dedicated. A charge of thirty-five cents will be made per plate. Dinner will be served between 6 p. m. All the friends of the community are cordially invited to meet with the club and spend an enjoyable evening. Miss Kathryn Kirk was among those from Salem hearing Erna Rubenstein Monday night at the Portland auditorium.

A family dinner was given Sunday in honor of the 84th birthday of Mrs. W. C. Hubbard at the home of her daughter Mrs. Joseph Graber, Jr. Covers were laid for ten, including Mr. and Mrs Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hubbard daughters Mildred and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graber and sons Kenneth and Melborn. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard are pi-oneers and recently passed their 65th wedding anniversary. Mr. Hubbard is in his 88th year.

In order to have a constructive and definite outline in promoting better pictures, the University Women has joined the National Motion Picture League of New ork City and will hereafter use

The Nationaal Motion Picture

Two Portla Mansfield Dancers

'Episode du Carnival! Music from "Secret of Suzanne:" One of the many scenes which will be given at the Grand state. The Better Films commit- flections on water,-filmy, wreath- poster pages from the Sunday Theatre on February 18 under the auspices of the Civic Music who love both dancing and music akoff). In connection with these have a treat in store in the coming of the Portia Mansfield Dancers, who give one of their color- kee Journal comments: "One of First Congregational Church ful and unique dance concerts here | the most exquisite dance combion Friday, February 18, at the nations seen on the stage for many Grand theater. The Portia Mans- a day. They are artists and their field Dancers comprise 12 solo and lovely interpretations of Schuensemble dancers. Their program berts Symphony in B minor and includes a number of rhythmic the Brahms Waltz are something "visualizations" of famous com- that will make a profound imprespositions. Among these are "Les sion." The sale of seats is in Preludes" (Liszt) "Unfinished charge of Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby.

League has its origin at Columbia lists of pictures. Day of Prayer, Woman's For- University under the Horace Mann Mothers' association more than City composed of educators, cler-

by memberships and donations and wholesome. and subscriptions to the indorsed

A Review Board in New York gymen, social workers and psy-The league is composed of edu- chologists select from all pictures cators, psychologists, social work- produced for national distribution, ers and clergymen having no con- those pictures suitable for adult, nection with any phase of motion young people and children. These picture industry. It is a non-com- pictures they list in weekly bullemercial, non-political and co-oper- tins before the pictures are reative organization having as its leased to any theatre, not after. tion and patronage of better mo- entirety. These weekly bulletins tion pictures. The league judges assist schools, churches, clubs and pictures principally from a moral exhibitors in choosing pictures for standpoint. It is financed wholly their communities that are clean dance visualizations, the Milwau-

Biggest Home-Wrecker Is Wife's Sarcastic Tongue, Says Injured Husband

Man Who Has Done Big Things Says His Wife's Sarcasm Makes His Children Think Him Worthless

business man, still home-loving, admitted to the editor of If I should say that I would like his children, had made him debate whether or not he should write off failure and seek a companionship tinually breaking in upon the harmony. Here are extracts from his soulsearching statements:

When I first met Jane she was a beautiful girl, with clean-cut features, flashing eyes, an active mind and a nimble wit. Her snappy repartee attracted me almost as much as her personal beauty, and I town great sport in some of her

I found great sport in some of her brilliant sallies at the expense of others—many of them at my own expense. I did feel that sometimes she cut needlessly, but I said to myself that it was only goodnatured banter. She was undeniably distinctive, but as I look back I realize that she was not popular.

I recall one instance, in our early

"Well, you know, it's the truth that hurts," she replied, evidently enjoying her own rejoinder. "Don't you believe in the truth?"

In my own married life with Jame, the transition from plain sarcasm to these other forms of FTER thirteen years of mar- wrong with her conduct. There ried suffering, a well-known was always some way to justify SMART SET that his wife's sarcasm, to drive over to see my friend unchecked before his friends and Walter B., on a Sunday afternoon, the fling that it was not Walter his matrimonial experience as a that I wanted to see but that moon-faced vamp that he called his where the anvil chorus is not con- wife-with her dresses cut so indecently low and always posing for my benefit. And if I tell a funny story at dinner when we have guests, she never fails to put in, sarcastically, "Now, tell your other one, dear!"

There is one phase of the situation that is almost unforgivable. Now that the children are growing older I find that the things she is continually saying about me are beginning to influence their im-pressionable minds, and to color their whole attitude toward me. The result is the breaking down of The result is the breaking down of that quality of respect for their father which to me is one of the most precious features of family life. To one who has any pride at all, life is intolerable without respect. I do first-class work in my own line, and am well thought of by people in business. But from the things that Mother is saying nearly all of the time, the children naturally get the impression that courtship, when I was stung by some cutting thing that she said and I expressed some sort of protest—you see, I squirmed even then. I asked her if she didn't think that she often hurt people's feelings needlessly by her witti-miserable specimen of his kind.

I feel that I should at least be permitted to make my own impression upon my children. Even they are now learning occasionally to whip out some sarcastic or jeering comment, wholly unfounded upon any of the facts of my life, but based purely and entirely upon the like the growth of the cute little kitten into the snarling, fighting tom-cat, a gradual one. I hardly realized just what was taking place, and I am sure that Jane was not conscious of it. In her own eyes there was never anything distorted impression of me that my wife's remarks have given them. They are beginning to see me through the colored glasses afforded by her misinterpretations of my actions, until my distress in this connection is indescribable. It the same "brutal frankness" was, distorted impression of me that my campaign, through publicity in cation of the endorsed lists of pictures, by addressing public gatherings and by the use of radio the league now reaches 15 million people. The league aims to turn the tide of attendance to elever, wholesome pictures. The league believes if the public is given the opportunity to know what is good, the public will always choose the best. The league gives powerful support to the good rather than try to suppress the objectionable. If good pictures can be made to pay at the box-office producers out the bad pictures. Objection-League. The league makes no as he worked. public comment upon pictures plan in very detail. program under the National Mo- fire. E XQUISITE Interpretations of Symphony" (Schubert), and tion Picture League plan on Janu-Famous Compositions, Those "Chanson Arabe" (Rimsky-Kors- ary 2, 3 and 4, the program being the double offering of "The Silent" Accuser" and "Columbus." On January 22, 23 and 24 "Captain January,, and "Jamestown" were both given, both also at the Liber-

On January 13 and 14 the third chronicle, "Vincenne," of the Yale University series will be presented under the auspices of the Salem chapter of the American Association of University Women, and the endorsement of many local clubs and organizations.

Mrs. George H. Alden will meet the Queen Esther girls of the First Methodist church tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock for the dinner hour in the old Marion Lawrence room.

The engagement of Miss Agnes Coats, senior at the University of Oregon, and Mr. George V. Beck, Willamette senior, was announced recently at a party given at the Phi Kappa Pi fraternity. Mis Coats is a member of the Sigma Beta Phi sorority at the University of Oregon. Mr. Beck a Pi fraternity, and is well-known locally as a musician. No date for the wedding has terest to Portlanders, Letters from get loose Mr. and Mrs. Dent Mowrey speak glowingly of a trip which they made camel-back across the desert. They are now in Tunis. Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons writes interestingly of her visit in Spain.

The Rapheterian club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Heltzel.

FASHIONS & FOIBLES by Shirley Sharon

Turning tucks first one way then another as you stitch them, is the astonishingly simple way of making the new herringbone lucking used on French ensemble coats.

AT Prenag's recently at funch a smartly dressed woman wore a French ensemble costume with a coat of caramel-colored twill, lined with a cream-colored silk crepe printed closely in three tones of brown. The coat was full length and the very simple frock matched the coat lining. The distinguishing feature of the coat was the tucked trimming which is being silk crèpe, crèpe satin, etc. For Spring it gives just enough trimming and body to bands, collars and culls, and takes the newspapers, including the publi- Anthony Euwer Is Interviewed While Busy With Burlap and Picture Wir

Original Work of Oregon's Color Wigard to Be On Display; Exhibit to Continue Four Days; Gives Keynote

By AUDRED BUNCH

Even two drawn blinds couldn't conceal the fact that in the sample room over at the Marion hotel yesterday something interesting that it did look like a place where was going on. The jubilant sur- nymphs OUGHT to dance! mise was that Anthony Euwer sends a constructive report to the as genial a conversationalist as he above another scene is usually in producer on eah cpicture rejected, has long been found an artist. proportion to our intimate knowstating the pyschological reasons Blinking with amazement at the ledge of what it represents, the for such rejection. This is a con- combinations and wonders of color artist explained. Folks like to structive criticism and a positive we stepped back marveling more have what interests them, what The Oregon Council of the Na- man had wrought. Some were them, in this instance with the tional Motion Picture League was | water-colors, but most were pas- brush. organized in Portland in Novem- tels. Scenes from nature they ber 1921. The Oregon council are, Oregon landscapes of canyons, light of the vivid elements of the has done, and is doing, some snow-laden peaks, virgin forests, changing seasons, will love Oregon splendid work in organizing burnished pasture-lands, scarlet the more after seeing this exhibit branch councils and committees tongues of flame shooting out of surpassing paintings. Mr. Eufor better pictures throughout the from ancient trees, studies of re- wer will also have on display his tee of the American Association of ing fronds of fern, and then the Oregon Journal as well as some of University Women gave their first barbaric passion of raging forest his black and white line drawings.

scenes?" we wondered, thinking to view the glowing landscape work ask him where he found the vale of his brush. The exhibit, comof blue-mist trees that made such parable to that shown last fall at an eerie, sylvan scene at our im- the Multnomah hotel in Portland, mediate right. "I wouldn't want to say that they were reproductions of any 'they are compositions, rather."

plained. "And that one,"he in- what the reason." dicated the subdued, sylvan grove -"I once told a friend was en- from the artist himself!

titled 'The Dance of the Nymphs.' Oh, yes, agreed my friend, where are the nymphs?" have just left, I answered." We agreed with him readily Seriously speaking, Mr. Euwel will be encouraged to make more was hanging his pictures. And gave the keynote of his whole of the better type. In portportion the surmise was as correct as it painting creed when he said: "to as we support the good pictures, was jubilant. Through the glass me a color scheme is sufficient exin that degree we are crowding doors one could see him moving cuse for a landscape." Mr. Enwer back and forth, with screws or revels in color, but he revels in it able pictures will cease for lack lengths of picture wire in hand, with an artist's right, for he of support and proped advertising his sleeves rolled up and his crisp knows how muca, and he knows with the plan of the National hair tumbling over his forehead, how little it takes for a landscape to blossom from his brush so that We ventured to add our pres- it will exactly and entirely please which it rejects as unsuitable, but ence to the scene and found him Our eager approval of one and more at what this versatile they have seen, "told back" to Every lover of Oregon, in the At 8 o'clock this evening he will "Are these actual Oregon welcome all Salem art patrons to will remain in place until Sunday

"There was some announcement particular places," he objected, that I was to have some etchings here, too," he explained, "which Then an amused eye reverted to isn't true, but if folks come under the "blue-mist" scene. "Of course that illusion I'll certainly be glad all my pictures are named," he ex- enough to have them no matter

So that's a personal invitation

To every woman her own poodle

Never expect, and you will never Stupidity of the many is what makes a fine opportunity for the

Stopping when you want to stop brought much information of in- beats stopping because you can't

Tie a husband to an apron string, and soon you will have neither apron nor husband.

To learn music is difficult: to tearn the correct pronunciation of famous musicians' names is im-

Hez Heck says: "A few gits some happiness out o' bein' good but a majority never tries that

Trying to enjoy money you

ELIZABETH LEVY

OREGON'S BRILLIANT VIOLINIST CONCERT

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH SALEM

Tonight, February 4, at 8:30 Students 50c Prices Aults $1.00

This Will Be Miss Levy's Only Concert Appearance This Season

KAYSER SILK HOSE

are here in the

New Spring Shades

Pure Dye Silk

A touch of style is added to your hosiery when wearing these Kayser hose. They will give you excellent service. Colors are black, simone toreador, sunset, amber, platinum, taupe, cheri, rosewood and white. They're full fashioned and have mercerized elastic tops.

Your Mail Orders

receive careful attention. We pay postage or express within a radius of a hundred miles.

Satisfaction Guaranteed on every purchase or your money cheerfully refunded.

