CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

AT THE THEATERS TODAY

OREGON—Florence Vidor and Lewis Stone in "Husbands and Lovers."

LIBERTY—Helene Chadwick in "The Masked Dancer."

Car Recovered—A Dodge touring automobile belonging to Shirley Barhrpe was recovered at Eugene, according to reports received at the Salem police station.

Baby Chicks—100 Barred Rock chicks for sale reasonably. Salem Chickeries, 264 N. Cottage. f4

Police News—The case against J. Peatross was dismissed yesterday after he had been arrested for speeding. R. C. Moreinson and Lloyd Hoover were fined $5 each, and H. S. Howell forfeited the $10 bail which he had placed for his appearance in court.

New Radio Alignment—Radio fans all over the northwest will be interested in an arrangement which has been made between KGW, the Oregonian broadcasting station, and KLX, the Oakland Tribune broadcasting station, which takes effect next week. The Oregonian will not broadcast on Monday night, thus allowing Oregonians the privilege of hearing the excellent program broadcasted by KLX. The Oakland Tribune will be silent on Friday evening during the Hoot Owl session to allow the Californians the privilege of hearing the Hoot Owls.

Home Wanted—A three or four room furnished house near business district of the city is desired by young business man and wife. References furnished. Statesman—XYZ. f-4

Bikes Are Stolen—Louis Briggs and G. H. Arnold reported the loss of bicycles to the police station yesterday. This made the seventh report that had been filed with the officers for the loss of wheels.

Be Sure to Hear—The Northwestern U Glee club First ME church, Thursday, Feb. 12, 8:15. f4

Officials Visit—Irving E. Vining, of Ashland, and president of the Oregon state Chamber of Commerce and A. S. Dudley, manager, were visitors in Salem yesterday.

Gray Improvement Scheme—For marlets that please. Room 413 Oregon Bldg. Phone 87. f8

Constable Surprised—A mild and charming woman confronted Constable De Long at Sublimity when he arrived to place Miss Vera Trask under arrest on charges of assault and battery filed by W. Green, a large and husky man. Assurance was given the constable by members of the school board of Union Hill school, where the young woman is employed, that she would appear in Salem Saturday to answer to the charge.

Property Exchanged—James Wolf trades his 5 acre home at Aumsville for the George Hayes property on North Front street and Annie Martin exchanges her home at McMinnville for the A. E. Meyer property on Liberty street. George Thomason, local realtor, handled both deals. f-4

Griffith Travels—George P. Griffith, state commander of the American legion, left for eastern Oregon on a business tour yesterday. He will be gone until Friday.

Fellowship Meets—The Fellowship of Reconciliation meets each week at the YMCA to discuss various phases of the international peace. The fellowship is part of the National association for peace.

Final Rehearsal Set—Final rehearsals for the play, "Always in Trouble," by the Popcorn Parent-Teacher association, will be held this evening and on Thursday night. The cast has worked hard on the production and is trying to make this the best of the three plays staged in the past years. The comedy is under the direction of Perry Prescott Reigelman of this city.

Leave Your Rugs At—1590 N. Capitol to be cleaned. f-4

Partnership Dissolved—Final action in the dissolution of partnership between Paul and Lloyd Hauser was completed yesterday when R. Crawford filed records in the county court. The receiver is dismissed and the business is to be conducted by Paul Hauser, who has assumed outstanding obligations.

"Always in Trouble"—Play by Popcorn Parent-Teacher association, Friday and Saturday nights; Popcorn schoolhouse, admission 35c. f-6

Public Hearing Set—There will be a public hearing before the joint committee on banking at the state house Thursday night on the revision of the state banking code.

Directors to Meet—The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Salem YMCA will be held Thursday noon at the YMCA building. Regular routine business matters will be considered.

Salesmanship Class—The YMCA salesmanship class is growing in popularity, as shown by the attendance at the meeting last night. Over 25 persons were present. The class for this year is one of the most popular that E. T. McCroskey has given during the past four years.

For Rent—Business space one-half block off State street, phone 2118. f-4

New Entrance Planned—The new entrance to the Salem YMCA has been placed some few feet further north, necessitated by the alterations that are being made to the lower floor by contractors. The new entrance is winding and at first confusing because it leads on into the main auditorium of the "Y" from an unexpected angle.

Vets Meet Tonight—The Veterans of Foreign Wars are to hold a joint meeting with the auxiliary at the Armory tonight at 8 o'clock, according to announcements mailed to members. Entertainment is to be furnished by the Moore's Music House entertainers. Each veteran is urged to be present and to bring a new member.

Monday, Dr. Stone—By the use of medicine removed a large CANCER from the lower lip of Arthur Clemens of Route 4, Box 16, Salem. f-4

Some Large Family—We have a wonder buy in a large home. It's worth $4,000, and for sale for $3,000—terms. Here's description: 9 rooms, plastered, bath, hot water, basement, on paving, close to schools, cement walks, extra large lot with flowers and lots of bearing fruit. This is the best large home buy we have seen. Come in now. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bank Bldg. f4ft

Fairmount Hill Corner—The view you want. Paved, $1500, terms. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg. f4ft

Listen to This—Especially if you like room; 5 large lots on terms for $750; trees and view; south, near schools. Becke & Hendricks, U. S. Bk. Bldg. f4ft

Hemstitching, Stamping—Salem Art and Beauty Shop 153 S. High. f5*

Last Rehearsal Set—Final rehearsals for the play, "Always in Trouble," by the Popcorn Parent-Teacher association, will be held this evening and on Thursday night. The cast has worked hard on the production and is trying to make this the best of the three plays staged in the past years. The comedy is under the direction of Perry Prescott Reigelman of this city.

Visits Kiwanis Club—Anthony Euwer, Portland artist and newspaper man, was a guest at the Kiwanis club meeting yesterday at the Marion hotel. During this evening and continuing until Sunday he will have a number of his pastel paintings on display at the Marion hotel, under the auspices of the Salem Arts league. The public is invited to inspect the display. No admission charge is made.

Youth Accused—Leo Killian has been charged by the parents of Caryl Kiezer, Parrish junior high student, of inducing him to run away. Caryl left a note at home stating that he was going away and when he failed to return the mother became alarmed. Killian entered a plea of not guilty.

Police Matron Returns—After visiting over the weekend with Mrs. Myra Shanks, the police matron of Eugene, Mrs. M. S. Ady, has returned home. Comparisons of problems of the two cities were discussed.

Class to Meet—The Judge Bendson's Sunday school class is to meet tonight at the home of Rev. and Mrs. U. S. Crowder, 116 Marion, for the purpose of getting acquainted. All members and their wives are invited to be present, according to the invitation issued by the committee in charge.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears—Prominent fat which comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden to carry. A hindrance to activity, a curb upon pleasure. You can remove the fat where it shows by taking after each meal and a bedtime, one Marmola Prescription Tablet. These little tablets are as pleasant and effective as the famous prescription from which they take their name. Buy and try a box today. All druggists the world over sell them, at one dollar for a box, or you can order them direct from the Marmola Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit, Mich. You can thus say good-bye to dieting, exercise and fat.—Adv.

DIED—At the residence, 1209 Waller street, Feb. 3, Mrs. Belinda G. Chase, age 78. She was the mother of J. B. Hileman, Mrs. C. D. Purvine and V. M. Chase, all of Salem. She is also survived by four grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Thursday, Feb. 5, at 10 a. m. from the Rigdon mortuary. Interment will be in Leo Mission cemetery.

Newspapermen to Dine—Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital, is giving his annual banquet to newspapermen attending the legislative session at 6 o'clock Thursday night. Approximately 25 representatives of the press will attend the dinner, which will be concluded in time to permit those attending to return in time for night meetings at the state house.

Store Space—High class business would consider renting small space to jeweler or other acceptable line. Box 23, Statesman. f-4

Miller Seeks Action—The city of Woodburn must settle the controversy between N. Miller in regard to the city dumping sewage in Ferrier creek, according to the complaint filed by Mr. Miller. Either the city must go ahead with its condemnation proceedings on Ferrier creek or be restrained from ever using it as a place to dump its sewage. At one time Mr. Miller filed action against the city of Woodburn for $50,000 damages. Once before the city started condemnation proceedings against the property, but failed to carry the case to a finish.

Proceedings Start—Starting today at 10 o'clock the naturalization hearings will be held before County Judge McMahon, the first of a number to be heard during the year.

Desires to Collect—H. Gearhart desires to collect $3632 and $200 attorney's fees alleged to be due him on a promissory note, and for foreclosure of mortgage, according to articles filed in circuit court against Chas. E. Hall and others. Assignment of the note was made to the plaintiff by George and Marie Smith.

Receive Offers to Build—Two different firms have offers to build a new fire-proof building for the Great Western garage, when it became known that the present location was to be used by the H. L. Stiff Furniture company for the erection of a new building, according to the manager and senior partner, George A. Coffey. Some arrangements may be made with the Stiff interests to allow the company to continue to operate in the building, it is declared, although it is felt that temporary quarters must be secured to care for the needs of the business.

Redding Succeeded, Mero—Charles Redding has been elected president of the freshman class of Willamette university. Harold Mero, who was elected to this office a short time ago, will not be in school this semester. Mr. Redding comes to Willamette from Fort Dodge, Iowa, where he attended high school, and attained distinction as a debater and extemporaneous speaker. He has already proved his merit by securing a position on the Willamette debate team, which is to make an extensive tour of the western states in the near future.

Miss Reid Honored—Rita Reid of Salem has been chosen treasurer of the Madrigal club of OAC to take the place of Lucille Moore of Salem, who was forced to resign because of illness. Miss Reid is a sophomore in home economics.

Legislators Entertained—Entertainment of a sufficient and varied nature was offered members of the legislature last night. At 7:30 o'clock members of both the senate and house, their wives, clerks and stenographers were special guests at the penitentiary show, "The Follies of 1924," which was presented in honor of the visitors. Following this the Cherrians were hosts at a grand ball down town. Practically all committee work was halted last night.

Mrs. Chase Passes On—Mrs. Mallina Chase, 79, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son, Z. M. Chase, 1209 Waller street. The funeral will be held at Rigdon's mortuary at 10 a. m. Thursday. Mrs. Chase left two sons, Z. M. Chase and A. B. Hielman, and one daughter, Mrs. C. D. Purvine.

Jersey Club to Meet—Ivan Loughary, field man of the American Jersey Cattle club, will meet with the Marion County Jersey club Monday, February 9, at the Salem Commercial club rooms at 1:30 p. m. S. A. Riches, secretary.

Embargo Raised—Washington maintained a two-day embargo on day-old chicks coming from Oregon, but upon being assured there was no disease among Oregon chickens, the embargo was promptly lifted.

State Organization Man Speaks Here Against Mail Order Business

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the Merchants' league of Salem was held yesterday at the Gray Belle, with C. S. Hamilton as the presiding officer.

A. W. Tate, representing the state retail merchants' association, called attention to the immense amount of merchandise that was being shipped annually by parcel post. He also stated that the mail order companies had to pay 32 cents to get their catalogues delivered, and later this was reduced to eight cents. The mail order merchants have one of the strongest lobbies at Washington and they are trying to have the cost reduced still further for the delivery of their catalogues.

In discussing some of the bills before the state legislature, Mr. Tate said that if the bills were passed many of the merchants would not be able to deliver goods outside city limits.

Opera Company Scheduled To Appear Here Next Week

Starting Sunday, Feb. 15, for an engagement of three nights, the Grand theater will house the Brandon Opera company, an organization of 50 gifted voices that made such a deep impression here two years ago as the American Light Opera company. The repertoire includes "The Bohemian Girl," "The Spring Maid," and "Robin Hood."

"The Spring Maid" was the first starring vehicle for Mitzel, and is the opera that made her famous. It has not been seen here since she did it about 12 years ago.

Local music lovers need not be reminded of the youthful vigor and singing ability of the principals, among whom are Theo Pennington, prima donna soprano; Harry Pfeil, tenor; Carl Bundschu baritone; Ed Andrews, comedian; Irma Tice, contralto; George Olson, tenor, and Chester Bright, basso.

The Brandon Opera company is billed as "the best light opera organization in America." More than 1,000,000 music lovers have so acclaimed in the past three years. The chorus under the able direction of Charles D. Hazelrigg, has been winning special plaudits and is rated "the best singing chorus on tour." Those are extravagant phrases, but the company has "made good" on home and hundreds of music lovers are looking forward to the engagement with a feeling of keen delight.
