

The Fur Shop

MAXSON FAXHALL JUDELL

GOODBYE, MR. CAVEMAN
By Nora Miller
I wish I had a cave man
To grab and hold me tightly,
Although I'd scream and wiggle
And fight him,—you know, lightly.

The harder my pretensions,
The more I'd hope he'd hold me,
Until worn out—(just seeming)
His strong arms would enfold me.

I'd love to have him take me—
(Oh, how my nerves would tingle!)
—And drag me by my tresses;
Alas, I have a shingle!

Clasped at It
Willie: "What did you get last night when you tried to work your papa's radio?"
Bobbie: "A good tickle."

THE JINGLE-JANGLE COUNTER
East is East and West is West;
Somewhere jazz-bands are a post.
—J. Fleming.

Jingle jangles running wild;
A hip-tick diet is rather mild.
—Harold Griffith.

Many a man is bound in fetters
Just because of a few love letters.
—Zelta Matthews.

He thought a farmer he would be;
He took a course in pharmacy.
—Jean King.

In Passing Mildred came rushing in from school and threw her books on the table.
"Hello, grandma!" she exclaimed.

"Hello, Mildred dear," grandma replied, "how was school today?"
"All right, I guess," Mildred answered, "just like about it is every day."

"Oh, but I guess you learned something new today, didn't you?"
grandma asked.

"My, yes! I learned several things," Mildred told her.
"Well, tell me one thing that you learned," grandma requested.
Mildred studied a moment.

"I learned that it has been 432
years since Columbus discovered America," she announced.

"Dear me!" grandma exclaimed and then, from force of habit, observed, "How time does fly!"
—Jerry Mendelsohn.

Willing to Demonstrate Kind Old Lady: "You look like a generous little boy."

Rheumatism
Let St. Jacobs Oil end the pain at once. Rub it on. For 65 years it has brought quick relief to the millions. You know it must be good. Use it for lumbago, lameness, backache. Don't suffer an hour when a soothing oil can take the pain right out.

St. Jacobs Oil
Rubs PAIN Away
35 Cents

WE PAY CASH FOR YOUR FURNITURE

AND TOOLS

Capital Hardware & Furniture Co.

Best Prices Paid
100 N. Commercial St. Phone 547

Blue Days

What waste—what folly,
Add this sparkle to your
morning glass of water.

Says those blue days, those dull
days, those days of unfitness.
There's an easy, pleasant, certain
way, and millions now employ it.
Every morning drink a glass of water, hot or cold. That's essential. Wash out the stomach before breakfast.

But add to that water Jad Salts.
It will make a delightful, effervescent drink. It is made from the
acids of lemon and grape,
combined with lithia.

In one hour comes elimination
of poisons and of waste. Of that which depresses or makes you unfit.

The cloudy day becomes sunny.
The blues disappear. You start out like a boy or girl, ready for any adventure.

It's a wonderful feeling. Start
one day with Jad Salts, and you will never again let a day start
wrong.

Millions of happy days start with Jad Salts. All druggists supply them. For your own sake,
learn what Jad Salts do. Ad.

Northwest Poultry Journal
Salem, Oregon

Eugene: "Yes, I am. If you was to buy me some candy I'd give ted a piece right away."
—Mrs. Don Maguire.

Verses and Reverses
Well, This One Is
There's no use in lying,
My temper is hot!
My hair's always red—
But my verses are not!
—Mrs. J. E. Ham.

Clothed And in The Right Mind
I don't care what my girl puts on,
These knickers or a frock;
I don't care if the lady dons
An overblouse or smock.

It makes no difference to me
Just what the dear girl wears,
So long as she puts something on,
And doesn't put on airs!
—Martha Young.

My Platform
I stand for the supremacy of women.
They're fitter, and thus surer to survive;
Quite often I stand helpless in a street car.
While three fit in a seat space
meant for five!
—M. A. Burns.

The Millennium
It was the year of grace, 1930.
The proverb notwithstanding, taxes were no longer with us. Federal taxes had been abolished by law, state and municipal taxes had been suspended, the surplus of the federal government's wealth being more than sufficient to obviate any and every form of taxation.
It was truly the golden age returned. Philosophers had ceased to sigh.

How come? Everybody who had stolen money from the government had returned it in to the conscience fund.
—E. J. K.

New Thoughts for Old
All roads lead from Home.

"Lightning never strikes twice in the same place."  it doesn't have to.

Everything comes to him who  has.

The proof of the pudding is the second helping thereof.

Spend, and the World dines with you. Save, and you eat alone.
—Mary M. Leroy.

Technique
Beth: "Was there much static when I sang over the radio last night?"
Myron: "Static! Ecstatic when I heard your voice."
—Mrs. Eric Nelson.

A Hat What's Going On In Kindergarten?
Kindergarten teacher (as she received a sweet warm kiss from four-year old Richard): "Where did you learn to do that?"
Richard: "At kindergarten."
—Alice C. Jackson.

Where the Shoe Pinches
It's the woman who pays—for man's dancing lessons.

Blue Days
What waste—what folly,
Add this sparkle to your
morning glass of water.

Says those blue days, those dull
days, those days of unfitness.
There's an easy, pleasant, certain
way, and millions now employ it.
Every morning drink a glass of water, hot or cold. That's essential. Wash out the stomach before breakfast.

But add to that water Jad Salts.
It will make a delightful, efferves-
cent drink. It is made from the
acids of lemon and grape,
combined with lithia.

In one hour comes elimination
of poisons and of waste. Of that which depresses or makes you unfit.

The cloudy day becomes sunny.
The blues disappear. You start
out like a boy or girl, ready for
any adventure.

It's a wonderful feeling. Start
one day with Jad Salts, and you will never again let a day start
wrong.

Millions of happy days start
with Jad Salts. All druggists supply them. For your own sake,
learn what Jad Salts do. Ad.

Blue Days
What waste—what folly,
Add this sparkle to your
morning glass of water.

Says those blue days, those dull
days, those days of unfitness.
There's an easy, pleasant, certain
way, and millions now employ it.
Every morning drink a glass of water, hot or cold. That's essential. Wash out the stomach before breakfast.

But add to that water Jad Salts.
It will make a delightful, efferves-
cent drink. It is made from the
acids of lemon and grape,
combined with lithia.

In one hour comes elimination
of poisons and of waste. Of that which depresses or makes you unfit.

The cloudy day becomes sunny.
The blues disappear. You start
out like a boy or girl, ready for
any adventure.

It's a wonderful feeling. Start
one day with Jad Salts, and you will never again let a day start
wrong.

Millions of happy days start
with Jad Salts. All druggists supply them. For your own sake,
learn what Jad Salts do. Ad.

Blue Days
What waste—what folly,
Add this sparkle to your
morning glass of water.

Says those blue days, those dull
days, those days of unfitness.
There's an easy, pleasant, certain
way, and millions now employ it.
Every morning drink a glass of water, hot or cold. That's essential. Wash out the stomach before breakfast.

But add to that water Jad Salts.
It will make a delightful, efferves-
cent drink. It is made from the
acids of lemon and grape,
combined with lithia.

Lawrence Tibbett, Young American Baritone, Who Scored Triumph at Metropolitan in "Falstaff"

The sensation of the opera world is Lawrence Tibbett, who is shown above with Mrs. Tibbett and their twin sons, and as he appears as Ford in "Falstaff". It was in this role that he scored so sensationally at the Metropolitan Opera in New York. The audience cheered him madly for many minutes. The grandparents of Tibbett, who is only 23 years old, were forty-niners and he is a Californian.
Without any European train-

Society

(Continued from page 7)

Kirkwood, Valentines gave a decorative and seasonal motif to the rooms where five hundred was the diversion.

The special guests of the evening were: Miss Mildred Spong, Miss Wilma Coursey, Miss Bernice Kirkwood, Miss LaVelle Keene, Miss Genevieve Barbour, LaDoyt and Paul Davies.

High playing scores went to Mrs. Ed Keene and Mr. John Spong, with low to Mrs. Charles Busey and Mr. Ed Keene.

Delightful Valentine refreshments were served at the small tables.

The club members are: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coursey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Busey, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barbour, and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies.

For the next meeting of the club Mrs. John Spong and Mrs. Charles Busey will be the hostesses, entertaining at the Busey home.

Mrs. William H. Burghardt has been invited by the Salem Music Teachers association to give the program on February 20 when she will play an extremely interesting piano group of modern compositions.

At the meeting of the association Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Churchill were hosts, entertaining at Mr. Churchill's studio on North Commercial street. Miss Frances Virginie Melton presented the program of the evening, playing numbers similar to those she gave on the MacDowell club program on Friday. The Leschetizky "Etude Heroique" again met with favor as did the Debussy "Reflets dans l'eau." In addition, Miss Melton played the "Cradle Song" and "Intermezzo" of Brahms, and one of the Chopin preludes.

Mrs. Clarence Kays entertained the Child Welfare Committee of the Salem Heights Progressive club at her home Monday afternoon.

The subject under discussion was dramatics and music for children. Visitors at the meeting were: Mrs. Bessie Baker, Mrs. Florie Jory, Mrs. Chapler, and Miss Lucille Robinson.

Members present were: Mrs. R. Halsey, Mrs. W. Caldwell, Mrs. W. Miller, Mrs. J. Douglas, Mrs.

HOLLAND WILL SEND DEAF TEAM TO PLAY FOOTBALL IN BELGIUM
AMSTERDAM, Holland, Feb. 5.—A sporting league exclusively for the deaf has been formed simultaneously both here and in Rotterdam. The members will specialize in football and a match between Amsterdam and Rotterdam eleven has been arranged for next Easter Monday. From the two deaf teams a national 11 will be selected which is to meet a Belgian team of deaf players at Antwerp next May.

Nothing of the Kind
Hilder: "Your mother looks so young with her bobbed hair that it hardly seems possible that she is your mother."
Polly: "She isn't. That's grandmother."
—Edward Killian.

ment, the club of 35 with some 10 other artists and swimmers, traveling in a private Pullman, visiting such cities as Denver, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Salem, Portland, Seattle, and Spokane. Salem may well be proud of Mr. Anderson.

The February meeting of the Brush College Grange will begin this evening with a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the school house. The program will be a delightful observance of three February occasions: Washington's birthday, Lincoln's birthday, and Valentine's.

The young people of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 6:30 o'clock this evening in the First Presbyterian church for a dinner by the ladies of the church, and a social hour. The invitations are signed by the Christian Endeavor society.

Mrs. E. J. Swafford was hostess at a sewing bee held at her home Tuesday afternoon when she invited a few close neighbors to make sunbonnets and to get acquainted. One hundred and thirty bonnets were cut out and 40 were finished. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and an afternoon of pleasure was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mrs. Joseph Schindler, Mrs. Sarah Drager, Mrs. William Lebold, Mrs. D. H. Craven, Mrs. J. C. Siermund, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Halverson, Mrs. Weiborn, Mrs. H. I. Standley, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders and the hostess, Mrs. Swafford.

WORLD'S LARGEST CHAIN DEPARTMENT STORE ORGANIZATION J.C. Penney Co. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION - Incorporated 571 DEPARTMENT STORES 160 North Liberty Street, Salem, Ore. RELIABLE QUALITY GOODS ALWAYS AT LOW PRICES

Silk Dresses for Spring

Early Showing of the New Styles

For a woman, the first harbinger of Spring is not the dusky violet nor the feathered songster—but the new Spring Dress! She feels an urge to blossom forth, too, in new and beautiful raiment. This Store is now receiving its new Spring dresses, direct from New York.

1-K-90b 1-K-92

Colors! New Dresses Are Gay

First and foremost, this is a season of gayety. Colors run riot with such fascinating names as: Goblin Blue, Venetian Rose, Titian Sand, and Brick Dust. Any of the red shades are particularly in favor.

Dresses are elaborate rather than plain. Ruffles, beads, shirring, embroidery, plaits, tucks, and throws are featured. If you have wanted something different in dresses, you will find it in these Spring Silks!

Rich, lovely Satin Canton and Flat Crepe are the materials.

Our Dresses Embody All of the Newest Styles

$14.75 to $24.75

It's Time for Spring Coats!

Smart Styles—Reasonable Prices

Be it balmy or cold, a woman knows by instinct just when it is time to buy a Spring Coat! Don't you feel that you want your new Spring Coat now?

This Store is showing the latest Spring Styles direct from New York. Each feature of the coats, style, material, color, and lining, seems the height of desirability. Appealingly priced. We want you to see these coats!

All the New Colors

The very names of the new colors are fascinating, but they are not half so stunning as the colors themselves. Rust, Titian, sand, cranberry, mahogany, pearl gray, reindeer, and of course Tiger's eye are popular shades.

Full Fashioned Hose for Women

At last! A low priced full fashioned hose! These are good quality, lustrous silk and fibre mixture. They will look well, fit snugly, and wear a long time. The pair,

$1.19

Full Value at Each Price

Whatever you pay for a Coat here, you get full value! Our quantity purchasing by our New York Buyers makes possible splendid quality at each price.

$39.75