THE WOMAN'S CLUB HOUSE, in preparation for the anticipated bridge benefit this afternoon has been furnished to represent a charming drawing room made festive with a myriad hearts in keeping with the approaching valentine season. A number of attractive floor lamps, which the H. L. Stiff store generously loaned for the occasion, will add to the pleasure of the scene. The beautiful Oriental rugs in use on the floor have been loaned by Mrs. F. G. Bowersox to make one of the most attractive of settings for a club house affair.

The affair promises in every detail to be one of unusual success, the committee having themselves contributed the generous decorations.

A number of prominent maids and matrons will have charge in the dining room where both tea and coffee will be served.

Those having reserved tables for what promises to be the outstanding club event of the entire week are: Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Connell Dyer, Mrs. F. W. Durbin, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. J. J. Nash, Mrs. I. L. Swan, Mrs. Lynn Smith, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. B. L. Darby, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. W. B. Mott, Mrs. Claude Steusloff, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Harry Weldmer, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. F. G. Brock, Mrs. J. C. Whittier, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. F. P. Kimball, Mrs. H. R. Worth, Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. Earl Pearcey, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. D. J. McLellan and Mrs. Waldo Brown of Hubbard.

Assisting the committee will be: Mrs. Earl Daue, Mrs. Russell Bonesteale, and Mrs. Beryl Marsters.

Yesterday afternoon was an enjoyable occasion for the members of the Piety Hill club who were guests of Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Reuben Boise at the home of Mrs. Spencer. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with needlework and chatting. Daffodils and freeias centered the table, with the hostesses serving delightful refreshments at the tea hour.

Mrs. Frank Snedeker was an invited guest of the club. The club members present included: Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. H. B. Thielson, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, and the hostesses Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Boise and Mrs. Brown.

One of the interesting church affairs of the week will be the banquet this evening which the girls of the Wide World Guild of the First Baptist church are giving. The program that will follow will relate itself to the Red Letter day movement.

A cleverly given and interesting recital was presented by the younger students of Elma Weller at her studio Sunday afternoon, Feb. 1.

ward, Lamont Fry, Dwight Kircher, Lloyd Kircher, Edward Syring, R. Seaman, Wayne Lawry, Burns Gilkerson, Walter Rosheim, George Lukens.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page left early in the week for California where they will spend three weeks.

One of the most successful meetings of a local Ladies' Aid society was held on Wednesday afternoon by the Leslie church society at the home of Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, 1595 South High street, when a group of 15 members from the Woodburn society attended as guests.

Assisting Mrs. Rhoten as hostesses for the afternoon were: Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot.

After the preliminary business, Mrs. William McCall, president of the hostess society, opened the program with two appreciated piano solos, "Polish Dance" and a new arrangement of "The Last Rose of Summer."

An interesting history of the early organization of the church was given in entertaining as well as instructive detail by Mrs. V. W. Ohmart. At the present time there is only one member living who was a charter member in the early Leslie chapel. At the beginning the church was one of four on a circuit including Leslie, Turner, Liberty and Jefferson, with the preachers in charge students from Willamette. At this time—over 60 years ago—Mrs. Ohmart told of how there were only two homes between her own on South Commercial street and the Willamette University campus.

After Mrs. Ohmart's paper Miss Lucille Rhoten, accompanied by Miss Mildred Miller, sang "The Garden of My Dream." Mrs. Watson, always a favorite among the group on a program, gave a number of readings.

A delightful addition to the musical program of the afternoon were the Scotch songs given by Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, the first "Lo'e Nae a Laddie but Ane" and "My Ain Folk."

A group of 85 members of the society were present with the hostesses serving refreshments late in the afternoon.

Plans were made for a cooked food sale tomorrow to be held at the Pade and Kreuer store on South Commercial street.

After the Vincentian Club dance at Derby hall, a group of the younger maids surprised Miss Lenora Mickel on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday with a delightful luncheon party at the Gray Belle. Those who attended included the honor guest, Miss Lenora Mickel, Miss Mickel, Miss Mildred Suing, Miss Virginia Billings, Miss Honora Reidy, Miss Edna Snyder, Miss Margaret Lacy, Miss Eva Aldrich, Miss Violet Snyder, Miss Winnifred Aldrich, Miss Elaine Michel, and Miss Lenora Lebold.

Covers were placed for a festive birthday dinner at the Gray Belle on Sunday honoring the birthdays of Arthur and Alfred Montgomery, sons of Mrs. Alfred Montgomery. Covers were placed for six around a table delightful with spring blossoms.

Miss Pauline Knowland will arrive home this evening to spend the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Knowland. Miss Knowland is a student at the University of Oregon.

The JS club met Wednesday evening as the guests of Mrs. T. W. Davies and of Mrs. C. E. Barbour at the Davies home, 991 North Cottage street. Assisting the hostesses were: Miss Genevieve Barbour and Miss Bernice

The First for Spring

Hosiery Travels the Whole Color Scale

To be smart, one must be colorful, says Paris, and so this new silken hosiery comes in Paris-approved shades to harmonize with every costume. The new grays, the ever-popular nude, soft flesh tints, rosy tans, and a dozen in-between tints make it possible for you to have exactly the shade you wish. In all weights, beginning with cobwebby sheer ones, many clocked for dress wear. Long service and low prices are additional features in their favor.

These Slippers Walk Off with the Honors of the Mode

The three types that are meeting with approval may be had here in their most delightful versions—the opera pump, the strap slipper and the sandal. Always simple, always distinguished—a distinctive collection of correct new-foot-wear fashions. Two latest arrivals are combinations of patent leather and colored kid in blonde and apricot, spike heels. Price $8.50 pair. 4 1/2 to 8, AAA to C widths.

Hand Bags Are Infinitely Varied

There are entirely too many to adequately describe in such small space, so to fully appreciate their smartness and variety, you have to see them for yourself. Every shape, size and color imaginable, for every costume in your wardrobe. Flat under-arm bags of silk or leather. Vanities in metal or enamel. Pouch bags in tapestry or novelty silks. Beaded bags in beautifully blended hues. Bags for every occasion, as simple or elaborate as you desire. You will find their prices uniformly moderate.

Choose With Care the Corset You Wear

The straight frock or suit requires it to present the slenderness of the mode to perfection. Yet these corsets will give the figure a natural grace that is greatly to be desired. Comfort, too, is another feature. In a score of models that are delightfully fashioned of elastic, brocade, coutil or combinations. Daintily finished and modestly priced. Some very special prices prevail this week—National Gossard Week.

Brassieres That Give the Line of Youth

Wear the new, simple, straight modes with confidence by selecting your brassieres and corsets carefully. You will find our brassieres excellent values, besides being carefully designed to give the figure youthful slenderness. In a number of practical materials that include lace, coutil, satin and brocade. In a variety of front, back and side-fastening models, specially priced during national Gossard week.

Fragrant Boudoir Table Accessories

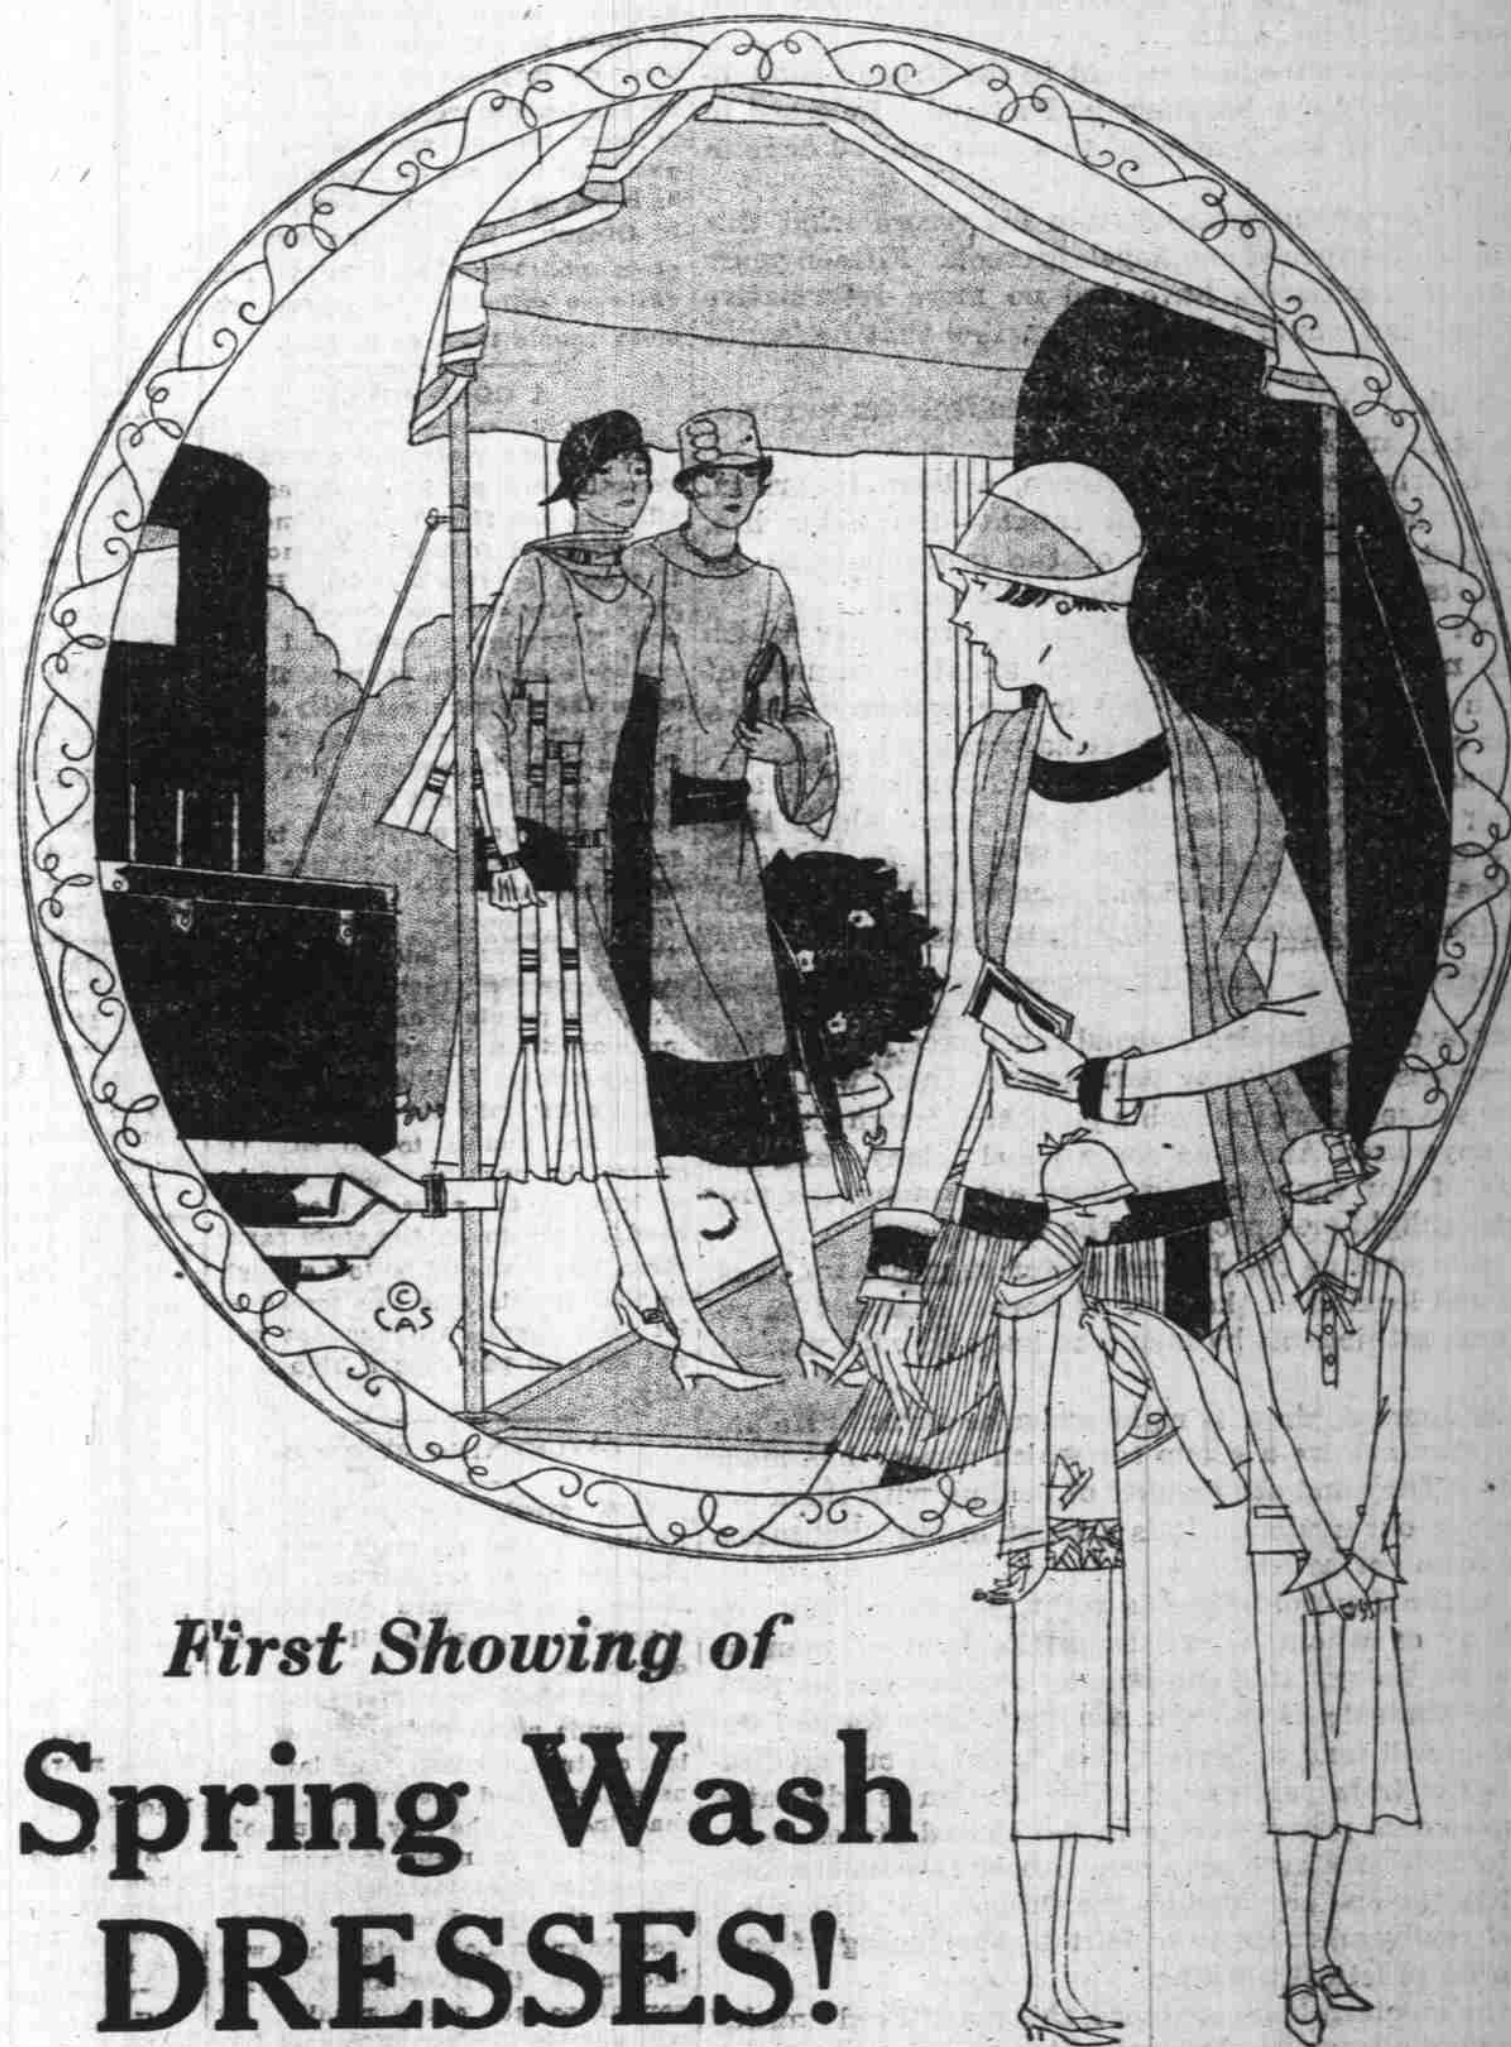

First aids to beauty are these toilettries that keep one's skin fresh and clear, and simplify the task of looking well groomed. Lotions, powders, creams, perfumes, manicuring equipment, and brushes, pastes—everything you require in the way of toilet articles awaits you here.
