ASHLAND SWAMPED BY SALEM QUINTET

Score Is 35 to 26; Second Game Won on Tour of Southern Oregon

The Salem high school defeated the Ashland high school 35 to 26 the second win in two days, in the southern Oregon basketball tour. Playing at top speed the Salem players took the lead and piled score after score until the half ended 22 to 5.

After the second time had started Ashby was taken out on fouls and the Salem defense crumbled, but the team regained their ground and held the lead till the whistle blew. J. Drager scored from all angles and accounted for 15 points. Ellis secured 10, Heenan 4, R. Drager 5 and Ashby 1.

THE CUB REPORTER FINDS MORE TWINS

The School Census of Silverton Shows Nine Pairs of School Age There

The cub reporter says that he is pretty well disgusted with the world. Just because he decides to boost a little about the number of twins to be found in Marion county, is not sufficient reason for Reedsport, Oregon, to try to put him to shame by heralding the news of the arrival of triplets in that fair city. But that is just what happened, and the proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Lee.

The Silverton Twins
However, Marion county is going strong, and a census of the Silverton school district discloses the names of 9 more pairs of twins. This makes the total number 32 pairs, and the race is only begun. Silverton, like Salem, boasts of two pairs of twins in one family. Only in Silverton's case the first set are girls and the second are boys, while in Salem they were all girls. These children are Alga and Mabel Moen, ages 19, and Barton and Elmer ages, 12.

Names of the Twins
The names of the twins found in the Silverton census follows: Bertha and Dena Alm, ages, 18; Eugene and Myrtle Chaiguet, ages 18; Lulu and Ingeborg Copelrud, ages 17; Arnold and Pergolt Jertopt, ages 14; Gustave and Louise Johnson, ages 15; Alga and Mabel Moen, ages 19; Barton and Elmer Moen, ages 12; Fred and Ailda Pounder, ages 19; and Nett and Harlan Ramsay, ages 5. If you know any more twins that have been left out, please send their names to The Statesman. The list must be complete.

INFANTRY SMOKER ATTRACTING FANS

Pugilistic Followers Will Attend Fights in Dallas Monday Night

Several Salem pugilistic fans will motor to Dallas Tuesday night to attend the annual smoker of Co. L, 162nd Infantry, in the Dallas Army. The main event will be of eight rounds, between Tommy Carter, of Seattle, and Frankie Doyle. The semi wind-up event, of six rounds, will feature Spike Crossan of Salem and Cowboy Hemmings of Portland, the "Terrible Swede." Misby Smith of Portland and the Oregon City Kid will mix in the main preliminary while the Fox twins, of Independence are to perform also.

It will be possible at this time to get a lineup on Manning, who needs Kid Carter of Oregon City here Monday, February 16, in six 3-minute rounds. Manning was originally slated to meet Carter, of Seattle, at Dallas, but Crossan was substituted.

Phil Bayes is working on a daily for his match with Joe Marcus, of Portland. Marcus has a heavy punch and will give Bayes a good run for his money. One or the other is slated to take the count at this match and the fight is not expected to go to a decision.

Matchmaker Plant is arranging two fast preliminaries to open his card.

IMPROVEMENTS

EUGENE, Or., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Plans looking to the further improvement of scholastic standards at the University of Oregon have been approved by the faculty.

Hereafter, a freshman must pass in 5 hours of scholastic work each term instead of 3 hours to remain in the university. Sophomores, juniors and seniors must pass in 7 hours each term instead of 3 hours. Members of all classes are required to obtain a minimum of 17 hours credit in two consecutive terms to remain in the institution.

Intelligence tests will be given to all freshmen entering the university beginning next fall. The results of the tests are to be available for the use of the instructional staff and administrative officers. Low grades in the intelligence tests will not prevent a freshman from entering the university. In other words, the tests are not for admission purposes.

The faculty has approved the principle of sectioning large classes on the basis of intelligence tests supplemented by performance tests if desirable, with a view to adapting the methods of instruction more nearly to the capacities of the students. A committee will investigate the practicability of introducing the system at the university. Under the plan, brilliant students are placed in a section by themselves to encourage and stimulate them, and average students are in sections desired to give them special help and instruction.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

PARIS, Feb. 5.—"La Marseillaise" played as the National Anthem of the Irish Free State, came as a surprise to the 20,000 spectators who attended the France-Ireland rugby match at the Colombes Olympic Stadium January 1. A few knew that behind the redoubt of Lisle's masterpiece there lurked the sentiment of a diplomatic problem which has puzzled the French Rugby Federation since the creation of the Irish Free State.

In order not to wound any susceptibility, the Union Jack and County Investigators Look for Mrs. Rowen, Millionaire Perpetrator

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 7.—County and city investigators late today started a search for Mrs. Margaret Rowen, author of yesterday's unfulfilled millennium to question her as to the source of gifts to the church of her affiliation, the reformed Seventh Day Adventists.

The action followed an appeal by a young woman to the city prosecutor's office for aid in retrieving property which she said her mother gave to the seeress' church as a result of "undue influence."

Mrs. Rowen went into seclusion Thursday and has not appeared publicly since. Her followers said that her life had been threatened and that she had fled to her estate near San Diego.

Although the world failed to come to an abrupt end last night, as predicted, a number of Mrs. Rowen's followers refused to lose heart, going over to the belief that the world is doing a gradual "fade out."

INTERESTING PROGRAM HELD BY SALEM HIGH LATIN CLUB

The Salem High Latin club presented its fifth annual mid-year program Monday evening.

Julius Caesar and His Monuments was the theme of an illustrated lecture by Prof. Frederick S. Dunn, of the University of Oregon. Margaret Hogg and Martin Anderson each gave pleasing piano numbers. Prof. J. C. Nelson presented the beautiful bronze Wallace trophy to Myrna Bonney and Raye Henderson, winners in the contest recently held.

This is the third successive time the trophy has been won by McKinley Latin pupils, it now becomes the property of that school. The concluding number was a clever one-act play, "The Knave of Hearts," coached by Miss Dorothy Nicholson. Among those taking leading parts were Marcia Feustman, Winston Williams, Kenneth Allen, Thomas Childs, Leah Fanning and Gaynelle Beckett.

SALEM PIONEER TEAMS BEAT PORTLAND QUINT

The Portland Pioneers, under the direction of J. Putnam, pastor's assistant of the First Presbyterian church, tangled with the Pioneers of the First Methodist church of Salem and lost by a score of 6 to 11 in a basketball contest here yesterday.

The Salem Methodist team was composed of Howton, Holsom, Darby, Barquist, Burgess, Moore. The Portland team was composed of Cain, Stevens, Wilson, Goodwin, Heady, Sisson and Vandevort.

The Jason Lee Pioneers made a clearing over the first team of the Presbyterians from Portland by scoring 33 to 11 in a basketball contest at the YMCA yesterday. Hageman and Nelson starred for the Salem team.

The Jason Lee Pioneers playing were Hageman, Nelson, Ritchie, Roberts and Maddox.

Bob Boardman was referee and Horace Stewart scorekeeper.
