ment at Washington, D. C., according to information received here. Coulter has passed several examinations which allow him to practice courts as an authority on patent law and other branches of law.

Salem premises disclose the fact that such cases are common here, and the placing of pennies behind fuses is endangering property because of the overload wires, in case an emergency arises, according to officials of the Salem PEP company.

Building Permit Issued—
Nora H. Heesonen will build a dwelling at 810 North Commercial which will cost $1,000, according to records filed in the city recorder's office.

Story Is Published—
D. H. Talmadge, Salem writer and veteran printer, has a story published in the February issue of Brier Stories, entitled "The Time of His Need." The story is about an aged newspaper editor and incidents that happened when another newspaper entered the field.

Water Is Falling—
The water that has been on the pavement near Pudding river, on the Silverton highway, is rapidly receding and traffic is able to use the road again, according to word received here. During the period of high water the road was covered for a depth of several feet which blocked all traffic.

Safety Expert Coming—
A. C. Coffin, representative from the Portland branch of the American Safety council, is to arrive in Salem this morning to confer with George W. Hug and members of the Salem school board relative to a program of education on "safety first." Through cooperation of officials of the PEP company, trained workers are being sent to this city to outline and conduct a program of training in the Salem schools, which will eliminate a large number of accidents. The council has operated in Portland with overwhelming success, and the advice and help of trained workers is being given the local school officials.

A marriage license has been issued in Vancouver, Wash., to Ernest C. Pearson, 42, and Mrs. Bertha M. Radcliffe, 42, both of Salem.

May Report on Bill—
Presenting his bill, asking that the Lord's prayer be placed in public offices, Will E. Pardy stated: "I ask that you report favorably on the bill known as Senate Bill No. 113. It provides for the printing and distributing of the Lord's prayer—the only prayer known to the human race that all nations, kindred and tribes can unanimously unite on and endorse. God made us all, and He is our Heavenly Father, regardless of our religion or nationality, and it matters not who repeats this prayer. It is addressed to 'Our Father, Who art in heaven,' and many a wayward man, woman, boy or girl will be brought to realize that they have 'Heavenly Father who lives here, when they see and read this prayer.' The bill will probably be reported on favorably today. It was referred to the foreign relations committee by President Moser.

B., Philadelphia, Pa., member of the board of lecturership of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, in the Grand Theatre, February 12th, at 8 o'clock. You and your friends are cordially invited to attend. 112

Two Complaints Filed—
The circuit court will consider two complaints against insurance companies, according to papers filed yesterday. One is to collect on a policy and the other to collect for agents' commissions alleged to be due. The former complaint is brought by O. D. Lane against the Phoenix Insurance company alleging that his house was destroyed by fire August 19, 1924, at 1105 Shipping, inflicting $4,500 damages to the house and $500 to the personal effects. The insurance company, he claims, has not paid him a cent, and no adjustment made. A. C. Bohrsteadt, filed the latter complaint, a supplemental one to his action against the Travelers Insurance company. He alleges that $1,800.75 is due him for commissions on policies written for Salem residents.

Outlaw Reported Seen—
Portland police report that they have information purporting that Bert (Oregon) Jones, central figure in a sensational escape from the Oregon penitentiary here on March 28 last year, is again in Oregon. It is reported that a man who knows Jones well observed him on Stark street driving an automobile with an Illinois license with the name-plate of Quincy underneath. Jones has been heard from, according to the reports of various officers. He escaped with a band of five prisoners and succeeding in eluding posses.

Record Upset—
Fred Klaus of Salem, senior in dairy husbandry at OAC, is winner of the cup offered to the fraternity getting the highest scholarship average on the campus during the fall term of this year. Klaus belongs to Sigma Gamma.

Willamette Graduate Dies—
Henry H. Giltry, who went to Washington, D. C., 45 years ago with Senator La Fayette Grover from Oregon as his secretary, died there last Saturday while sitting in a chair at his home. He was 81 years of age. Mr. Giltry was author of "Precedents of the Senate," the standard work on parliamentary rules of the senate. He was once chief clerk of the senate and had recently been engaged in preparing the legislative history of the present congress. His home was at Eugene. Previous to his residence at Washington Mr. Giltry resided in Salem and was a student at Willamette university.

Births Are Reported—
During the month of January a total of 25 births were reported to the city health officer. This does not include all births as many reports have not yet been filed.

Drager Favors Pool—
W. F. Drager, of the Drager Fruit company, is in favor of pooling the Oregon prune crop of 1925. Within an area of 200 miles practically all the Italian prunes are grown, consequently it is easier to control this production than if it was scattered over a large area. The prune crop secured a higher price last year, the highest since 1920, and Mr. Drager states that some cooperative arrangement should be made and the first move should be made by the growers, hence keeping the product from the packers who are fooling around with the growers' product.

Asks Deed be Set Aside—
Complaint was filed against John Minger, aged fruit grower, in circuit court yesterday by Emma Whedbee, involving property in the estate of his wife, Adele Minger. It is alleged in the complaint that John and Adele Minger, during 1921, deeded to her certain property, which the plaintiff declares was intended to be sold and the money distributed among heirs. The plaintiff states that John Minger presented her with a pretended deed from herself to him, which the woman declares she never signed. The plaintiff wants to have the deed set aside and she be decreed title in the property.

Delayed One Week—
The Brandon Opera company, who were to open an engagement in Salem next Sunday with light and comic opera, will not be here until the following Sunday, February 22.

Salem Student Initiated—
Emery Diefendorf of Salem, a senior in mechanical engineering, has been initiated into the Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity. He is president of the student chapter of the American society of mechanical engineers at Oregon Agricultural college and a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Large Cherry Pool—
The Salem black cherry growers' association has signed up about all the tonnage they need for this year, according to reports made yesterday after the association had secured virtually 30 tons. George Vick, member of the association, states that in the

Martin Will Upheld—
Judge Kelly in circuit court yesterday reversed the decision of the county court in the will case of Lucinda Briggs Martin, and consequently, Samuel B. Martin, husband of the decedent administrator of the estate. About $7,000 is involved in the estate. Martin, the second husband of the woman and the children by her first husband, objected to the terms of the will. The circuit court decision causes the estate to go back to probate to have the terms of the will carried out.

New Organ Installed—
A new pipe organ has been installed at the Webb funeral parlors which will be used in funeral services conducted there. The organ, of modern design, has a two-stop manual and is motor equipped with a special blower. Expert workmen from Portland installed the instrument. The negotiations were handled by A. W. Stein of the Moore Music House.

Dr. Eubanks to Conduct Mission Study Classes

Dr. M. D. Eubank, M. D., returned missionary from China, will conduct the Mission study class at the First Baptist church during the afternoon Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week. The meetings are called for 4 o'clock and will last until 5 o'clock and are to be followed by a discussion. A pot luck supper and addresses will feature the evening program.

But about this arms argument and the big guns others are making; wonder what they are aiming at?

GLOVERDALE

Mr. Zimmerman's daughter in Salem is very sick.

Orville Thomas, an Eighth grade pupil went to Salem Tuesday to visit the legislature.

Mr. Albert Hennies and his sister, Mary, expect to leave Friday for Medford Ore., where they will visit for a few weeks with their brother, Elmer Hennies and his family.

Mr. F. A. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson were Salem visitors Tuesday.

The WCTU held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Lydia Schifferer. Sewing rags for the hostess occupied a part of the day. After a delightful dinner hour came the business hour, at the close of which Miss Emma Schifferer gave the reading "Two Glasses" which was much enjoyed by all. One more member was added to their roll, marking it 25. There were 15 members present and four visitors, Mrs. Greer, Mrs. Mata Garner, Miss Mary Hennies and Mrs. Butler.

Willie Schifferer fell Monday and cut his face, also broke a bone in his face. He was immediately placed under the care of a doctor. At last reports he was doing nicely.

A party was given Miss Mary Hennies Tuesday evening on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday. Those present were Miss Mary Hennies, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hennies, Mr. Albert Hennies, Mr. George Staples, Miss Ruth Givens, Mr. Louis Hennies, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schampierre, and Miss Katherine Schampierre.

Mrs. E. Matthews and her mother.
