AUDRED BUNCH PHONE 106

ONE OF THE INTERESTING events of the week will be the formal tea planned for Thursday afternoon at Lausanne hall, commencing the members of the Northwestern University Glee club who will give one of the most anticipated events of the musical calendar on Thursday evening at the First Methodist church. Calling hours for the tea will be from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. Presiding at the urns in the dining room will be Mrs. Henry J. Bean and Mrs. John Albert during the first hour, and during the second, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Frank Snedcor. Assisting them will be Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. O. E. Price and Mrs. T. S. Roberts.

The tea is being sponsored by the members of the Town and Down club, formerly known as the Lausanne Hall guild, with a special invitation extended to the members of the two Willamette University Glee clubs. The invitation also includes townswomen with an interest in the university.

Fifty couples in formal dress made the Valentine dance of the Monday Night Dancing club last night at Derby hall one of the most gala and festive affairs of the season. Five hundred hearts suspended from the ceiling, arrayed in decorative profusion, as the graceful couples matched their steps to the rhythm of the orchestra music, provided by the Mills' Orpheus. Red cornucopias of pussy willows adorned the walls, with the side fixtures cleverly encased in valentine shades. Streamers of red crepe paper over the pillars added further to the festive effect.

A number of charming dinners both preceded and followed the dance. Two of the most attractive of these were given at the Spa. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Davis entertaining before the dance for sixteen, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Busick, following, for twenty-two.

A clever play with a beautiful ending was that given on Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church by the Tri-C class. Four scenes make up the drama which is of missionary setting and entitled, "The Pill Bottle."

The play opens with four "Sweet Girl Graduates," finishing at an American college. Two months later the setting is in India, with this scene entitled, "Three Knocks in the Night." Five years later the background is still India with "Office Hours Three to Five." The closing scene, "The God of the Pill Botdelighted with the consolidation prize.

Those having parts in the cast of characters were: Zelda Mulkey, Genevieve Junk, Louise Nunn, Genevieve Thompson, Charles E. Bg Dine, Mildred McKillop, Donald Grant, John Ritchie, Frank Childs, Dorothy Jackson, Dorothy Boardman, Neva Root, Irene Ritchie, Eloise Wright, Marjorie Kadow, Oma Emmons, Helen Davis, Dorothy Jackson, Helen Toose, Frances Hodge, Elizabeth Weir, Loraine Fletcher, Helen Childs, and Myrtle Waimaley.

Mrs. R. M. T. Heister was coach for the play, with Charles Nunn, general in charge, Donald Grant, stage manager, and Benjamin Durland, head usher. Special thanks for cooperation go to the Fleener Electric company, the Stiff Furniture company, and to Mrs. J. P. Frizzell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Boyle and family of Albany have moved to Salem and are living at 1357 N. Winter street. Mr. Boyle is employed by the Prino Oil company. Mrs. Boyle is a cousin of Mrs. James Sykes.

Mrs. Roy Woodill was a charming hostess when she and her husband entertained the Lone Star club during the week-end. Decorations were beautifully carried out in ferns.

Progressive five hundred was enjoyed throughout the evening with high score falling to William Yarnell while Mrs. Woodill was After listening with interest to the Hoot Owl program over the radio, a delicious luncheon was served at a late hour. Special guests for the evening were: Mrs. Addie Downs and Mr. George Sutherland from Portland. In addition to the special guests those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Leary, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. William Yarnell, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Beavers, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Woodry and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodill.

The Anthony Euwer art exhibit is being patronized by large throngs of art lovers in the city. Many will be delighted with the news that the exhibit is being held over for both this afternoon and evening, with Mr. Euwer present, to speak, on both occasions. The exhibit is free to all interested.

Bachelors to Hold Forth At Derby Hall Wednesday

Ever since the Bachelors dancing club has been formed there has been much doing. They have given two dances each month, which have proved popular and successful. The success of the organization, it is said, has delayed several marriages, and because of this fact, certain changes in the constitution of the organization is being considered. If a bachelor has been a member of the club for at least six months previous to his embarking on the new territory, he will be given an honorary membership in the club for life. It is whispered that several applications for this honor are being considered at the present time.

The Bachelors are giving their next dance at the Derby hall, February 11 and an invitation is extended to every bachelor in Salem to be present at that time. A good time is guaranteed every one. The membership of this club is limited to 75.

The many friends of Mrs. Alice H. Dodd who is ill at the Deaconess hospital will be rejoiced to know that her illness is not of a serious nature and that she is showing satisfactory improvement. Mrs. Dodd is house-mother at the Beta Chi sorority house, with Miss Mary Findley taking her place during her illness.

BUSICK'S
STANDARDIZED CASH STORES

SALEM CORVALLIS ALBANY WOODBURN

IF PRICE WAS ALL

Most any store could buy cheap merchandise to sell at a cheap price but to buy and sell quality foods day after day throughout the year at prices unequalled any place in the country is the policy of Busick's stores as proof that the people appreciate quality and also as proof that our prices are low. Over twenty-nine thousand people visited and bought foods at our Salem Store during January just past—an increase of three thousand over January 1924.
