KING BING PERRY BEGINS HIS REIGN

Monthly Banquet and Meeting Differs From Those Held in Early Days

Before one of the best attended meetings in recent years, J. C. Perry, King Bing of the Cherrians, began his official reign at the monthly dinner and business session held last evening at the Chamber of Commerce.

King Bing Perry instructed the Cherrians to appear in uniform to escort the Rosarians from the hotel to the house of representatives where the Portland visitors will confer degrees on King Bing and a few who happen to be prominent in political life.

Al Pierce, former King Bing, called attention to the visit of the Oregon Hospitality club to Salem during the week of the Portland Rose festival.

Dr. E. E. Fisher, representative of the Cherrians with the Salem Federation of Clubs, reported the several recommendations made at the last meeting of the club.

The Modern Thing is the sedan type funeral car, which can hardly be distinguished from a fine big sedan or limousine. It does away with the old style hearse, so reminiscent of the horse-drawn vehicles, and so obviously out of place in a modern motor cortege. Our equipment is always kept up to date, that we may better serve those who call upon us.
