SOCIETY is giving much attention to the silver tea which St. Paul's Guild is sponsoring this afternoon at the attractive residence of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross on Lincoln Hill. In the living rooms the hostesses will be: Mrs. Henry Thelens, Mrs. H. D. Chambers, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. U. G. Shipley and Mrs. Rex Sanford. Miss Marie Patton and Miss Virginia Cross will open the door for the guests.

Mrs. H. D. Chambers, Mrs. Frank Spears, and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger will have charge in the dining room where, during the first hour, Mrs. Frank Durbin and Mrs. H. D. Chambers will pour and, during the second hour, Mrs. William Neimeyer and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Edward Stewart, Mrs. A. Humphreys and Mrs. Earl Daue will assist.

Mrs. T. A. Roberts and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer will be in charge on the second floor during calling hours.

A large throng of townswomen will, without doubt, be guests for this attractive affair.

Pre-viewings yesterday noon of David Belasco's excellent comedy, "Daddies," which is to be shown today and tomorrow in conjunction with "Vincennes," were made before the members of the Better Films committee of the American Association of University Women. The response was unanimously favorable, and those who go to see "Daddies" today and tomorrow at the Liberty when the third of the "Chronicles" is given, as well, will have just as much ripping laughter before them as the interested committee had yesterday. They will experience the same excruciating moments at the sight of Crockett, and display the same pleasure at the outcome. But then, imagine any five normal men organizing a Babel's club, with a five thousand dollar forfeit expected of every traitor, and see the results! Well, they are delightful, to say the least.

"Vincennes" is an historical drama and with a fluent portrayal of breathless facts shows in exact detail of the memorable feat which gave five states to our nation. George Rodgers Clark is, of course, at the center of the achievement.

One of the interesting gatherings of the week was the Illinois reunion last evening at the Chamber of Commerce, with the guest group being made up of the two hundred former residents of Illinois now living in Marion county.

Special music was given by the high school orchestra and Representative Frank R. Lonergan of Portland spoke. Miss Mary Eyre told interestingly of her foreign travels last summer. Community staging completed a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

The many Salem friends of Mrs. George J. Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce will be interested to know that they are located now at the Kler Apartments, 401 Olive street, San Diego. Miss Helen Pearce is in Cambridge.

One of the lovely affairs of the week was the bridge party at which Mrs. G. W. Laflair entertained, when she invited as her guests the members of two bridge clubs—the Monday afternoon, and the Tuesday. A delightful Valentine luncheon was served at five o'clock, with red candles and a bowl of red carnations attractive on the table. The same festive decorative plan was in evidence about the rooms.

The playing prize was won by Mrs. C. E. Cashatt.

The guests of Mrs. Laflair included: Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. C. E. Cashatt, Mrs. William Bushey, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. J. O. Hosford, Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Poirat, Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. Walter Buckner, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, and Mrs. A. T. Wain.

One of the most unusual and elaborate dance spectacles now before the public is that given by the Portia Mansfield Dancers. This already much-anticipated dance concert, which takes place on Feb. 18 at the Grand theatre, will present a program rich in novelty. Miss Mansfield has studied the art of the dance both in Europe and America for many years and her dance creations are strikingly original. The program for this city includes several brilliant and dazzling ensemble numbers. Reviewers in all the cities visited this season have been extraordinarily enthusiastic over this gifted dance organization. The Chicago Tribune, after paying tribute to the loveliness of the girls and their "superb costumes," adds: "They keep the audience spellbound by the sheer beauty of the thing." Tickets are on sale by Mrs. Beetha Junk Darby.

Mrs. Louis Lachmund was hostess for the meeting this week of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church. Plans were made for a post-Easter dance. Mrs. Lachmund was assisted by Mrs. William Walton and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith in the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Fritz Slade will entertain the Guild in March.

The Junior King's Heralds of the First Methodist church will meet from 2 to 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee for a Valentine party with a series of delightful Valentine games planned for the afternoon. Valentine decorations will also be used. Assisting Mrs. Lee will be: Miss Isabelle Huston and Miss Dorothy Taylor.

The janitors will bring their thank offering at this time which goes to missionary work in Gikuli, Africa.

Miss Danta Robbins of Salem, senior in vocational education, was manager of the interclass relay stunt put on at the annual Glococo at O.A.C. The Glococo is the woman's fun-fest sponsored by the Woman's Athletic association. Stunts, cheering, music and races were featured on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Busey extended hospitality on Wednesday evening to the members of the B. E. club. The rooms were appropriately decorated with daffodils and Valentine favors. Prizes for the highest scores were won by Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger and Mr. Frank Turner; consolation awards went to Mrs. Claude Townsend and Dr. O. L. Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer were invited guests for the evening. Mrs. John Spong assisted the hostess in the serving.

Included in the personnel of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fandrick, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Olmsted, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kightlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davies, and Mr. and Mrs. John Spong. On February 25 the members will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger.

The organization of a Beethoven Musical society on the Willamette University campus was completed this week, with sixteen charter members and Miss Frances Virginia Melton as advisor. The society was organized to apply and to increase the benefits of music. Any Willamette woman who is majoring in music or who holds qualifications sufficient for a music major is eligible to membership.

The first program to be given under the auspices of the Beethoven society was presented on Tuesday at Chapel.

The following are charter members:

Gladys McIntyre, president; Fay Sparks, vice president; Volena Jenks, secretary; Mildred Tomlinson, treasurer; Kathryn Roseman, Helen Richolson, Kathryn Kirk, Louise Findley, Anna Howell, Helen Selig, Paloma Prouty, Florence Young, Elizabeth Vinson, Lena Gilbert, Gladys Gilbert, and Ethel Marks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene had as their dinner guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Baker, Mr. Lionel Baker, Mrs. Ray Alexander, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mattin, Mrs. J. L. Oliver, Mr. Burl Oliver, and Miss Marjorie Oliver.

Mrs. Vincent Diaz chose the Colonial Dame Tea Shoppe at which to entertain the members of her club at a charmingly appointed bridge luncheon. The Valentine motif predominated throughout. Mrs. George A. White won the afternoon's guest prize, and Mrs. Moore the highest score among members. Mrs. Ivan Cakes, Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. C. A. Walter, Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. H. J. Beatty, Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Mrs. Dan McLellan, and Mrs. F. G. Bowersox were special guests for the occasion.

The members of the club present were: Mrs. Moore, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, Mrs. W. E. Crews, Mrs. John I. Rand, and the hostess, Mrs. Diaz.

The Three Link club will meet for the regular meeting this afternoon in the club rooms. The following will be the hostesses: Florence Viesko, Cora Van Telt, Elsie B. Simeral, Elizabeth Waters, and Sarah A. Wade.

Charming among the week's bridge luncheons was that at which Mrs. T. A. Roberts was the hostess, entertaining for her club group. Valentine favors were used in the rooms in keeping with the approaching Valentine season. Luncheon covers were placed for: Mrs. Keith Powell, of Woodburn; Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Errol Kay, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr.; Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, and the hostess, Mrs. T. A. Roberts.

The Old People's Home was the scene on Wednesday of the regular February meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist church. Mrs. A. A. Underhill led the devotional, with Mrs. R. K. Ohling in charge of the lesson. Various details of business were considered by the members. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the reading of a letter from Miss Ruth Field. It was decided later that each group be assigned a missionary with whom to keep in touch.

Many will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Helen Hardy and John Moody, both graduates of Willamette University—Miss Hardy with the class of '23, and Mr. Moody with the class of '22. Miss Hardy is teaching this winter in Prineville, while Mr. Moody is attending Boston School of Technology.

Mrs. P. J. Kuntz has returned to Salem after an enjoyable visit in Corvallis and Albany.

The Count-On-Me class of the First Baptist church met on Wednesday afternoon for a devotional and social gathering. Mrs. C. E. Gregg, president of the class, presided at the meeting, with Mrs. S. Willis, the teacher, in charge of the devotions. The program
