REALTORS LISTEN TO FINE PROGRAM
 Northwestern University Glee Club Entertains Realtors at Regular Meeting
 The Northwestern University Glee club entertained the Mar-

Polk county Realtors at their regular meeting yesterday in the Marion hotel. The program that they offered was par excellence and consisted of solo and group numbers. Rolland Pease, basso, was greeted with unusual enthusiasm and scored a direct hit in his offering of Kipling's "Recessional."

In making the trip to Salem it was announced that the club sunk over $1500 in transportation charges alone, but that the opportunity of appearing before the Salem audience could not be neglected.
 Members of the championship Northwestern University swimming team were introduced to the Realtors and their guests. Two visiting members were in attendance from Medford for the concert here. They are H. Wing and Dr. Sterns, former students at the eastern school.
 Gertrude J. M. Page was in charge of the affair, while J. R. Rupert, was presiding officer.
 Loyal Graham, representative from Washington county to the state legislature was the main speaker of the day. He explained the various phases of the real estate bill now before the legislature.

roll call of the American Red Cross in Salem. Because of the lack of team members the local organization has not been able to bring the pledges up to the proper strength. They fall below the estimate which causes the need for more workers and representatives to be more pressing. Some opposition is met by the workers when they attempt to write up the roll call. Many people are under the impression that the Red Cross is a war organization, and forget that its greatest mission is filled in time of peace and in protecting the interests of the ex-service men. In addition, the organization is able to be in the field in time of need and in every emergency.

LARGE BOOZE HAUL MADE
 SEATTLE, Feb. 11. — Federal prohibition agents arrested Carl and Eldrich Spane, proprietors of a dairy ranch two miles north of Auburn, 22 miles south of Seattle, following a seizure today of 2,460 gallons of moonshine on the ranch. There must be something in royal blood. Wales didn't look funny in a blue shirt.

OUR RAPID GROWTH
 Business doesn't shift aimlessly around from one store to another. There is a sound reason for the rapid growth of a firm. A sound reason for quitting an old trading place for a new. The reason for our rapid growth is obvious to us and is rapidly being understood by the people of Salem. Leaving the old path of foodstuffs once purchased the deal is closed, to the handling of guaranteed quality foodstuffs; with each article goes a quality or money refunding guarantee thereby saving a heavy loss so common daily in purchasing foodstuffs. A sound reason. A substantial saving.

Swimmers Give Exhibit of Skill at Y Tank Yesterday

Four real swimming champions showed their stuff in an exhibition swim at the YMCA tank yesterday afternoon. They were Breyer and Howell, Olympic team representatives, and Corbett and Manowitz. Demonstrations of the 160 yards, 880 yard swim, fancy dives, breast stroke, crawl and other swimming methods were witnessed by a limited sized crowd, which squeezed inside the tank room.

The four young men are traveling with the Northwestern University Glee club on their tour of the Pacific coast.
