CHAPTER 385

WHAT MADGE WON MRS. BAR-KER TO PROMISE

I wasted no time in formalities with Mrs. Barker as I entered the diping-room in search of her, and ris circuit in months. Leon Lang is billed as an exceptional juggler. He is one of the kind who keeps up a rapidfire of chatter throughout his act and amuses with his comedy.

Ethel Lockhart and Walter Kei fer appear in a skit called "A Gem on Skates." They have a program of fancy skating which is said to e unique. Dick Gardner and Anna Revere have an act which it is claimed provokes a gale of laughter. It is called "The Surprise." Gard-ner is an eccentric comedian who later appears in some startling dance novelties while Miss Re vere sings and acts. Clifford and Vance in "Bits of Vaudeville" prove to be a sprightly pair of stylish steppers who offer songs, dances and comedy. "Penrod and Sam" is the featire picture.
