MONEY FOR CROSS WORDS

Ten Dollars in Cash Given to Those Sending in Correct Solutions

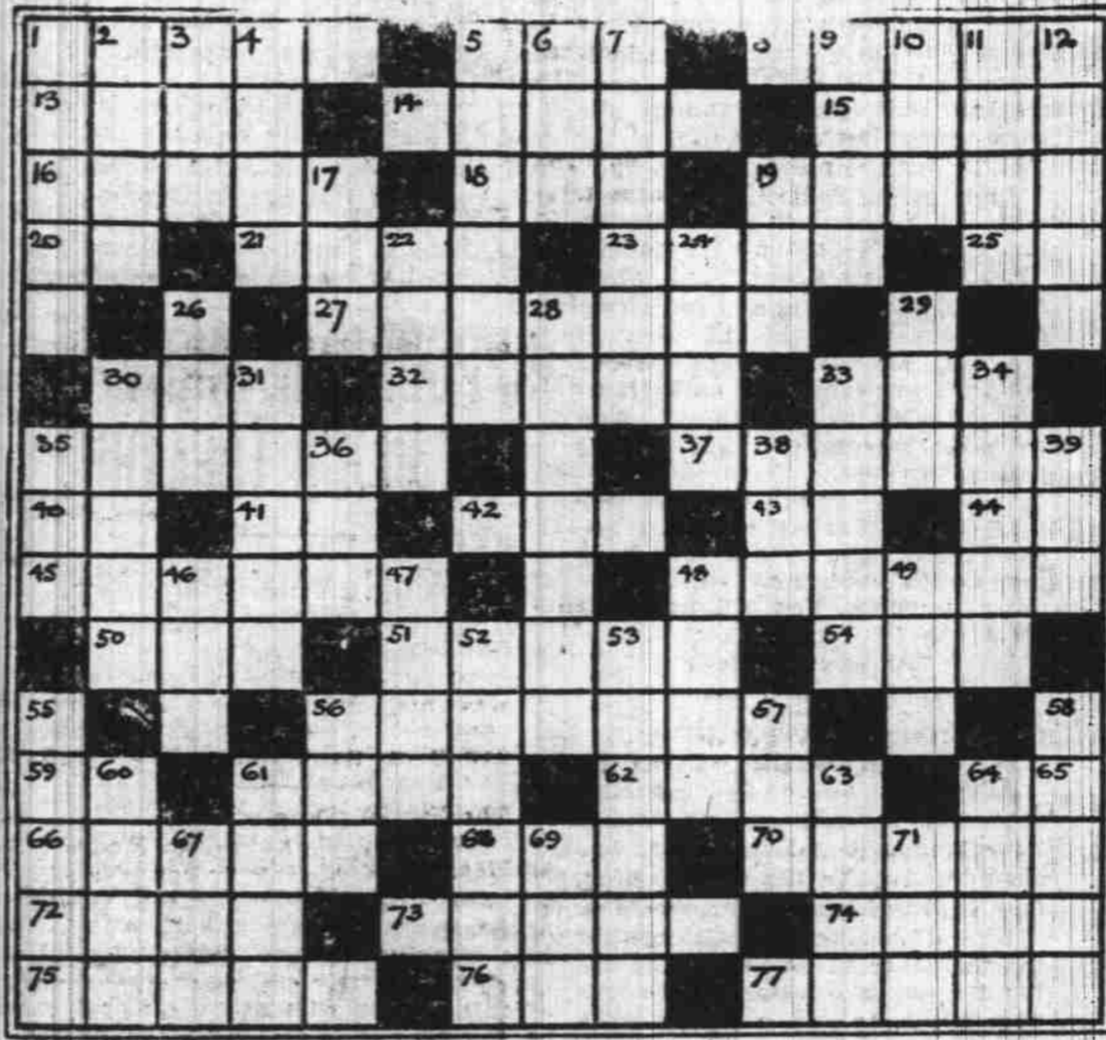

Have you been caught up in the latest craze—solving cross word puzzles? If not get your neighbor to explain the whys and wherefores of solving one. If you are already a devotee get out your pencil and solve this puzzle now. You will find part of the definitions scattered through the ads of the various merchants on this page, the rest are listed as usual.

After you are convinced that you have the correct solution bring or mail your answer to the Cross-word Puzzle Editor at the Statesman office and read next Sunday's Statesman for a list of the winners.

Prizes will be awarded as follows:

1st Prize$5.00 2nd Prize$3.00
3rd Prize$2.00

In case there are several correct solutions the first puzzle to arrive at the Statesman office will receive first prize.

Read: Look in the advertisements for horizontal and verticals which suggest the right words to fill in the puzzle.

SUPER-ZENITH IX—The ideal radio set for the fine home—built-in loud speaker, all batteries concealed and out of the way.

Super-Zenith IX

They Cost More—but They Do More!

You don't need to be a "radio engineer," and you don't need to have three hands to operate the new Super-Zenith. Tuning is controlled by TWO DIALS ONLY—so perfectly adjusted that each station comes in always at the same dial settings. IT NEVER VARIES. Powerful locals may be on full blast, yet, if you like, you can tune them out completely, bring in distant stations.

Those who know and appreciate truthful tone reproduction find in the new Super-Zenith an unfailing source of delight. Their pleasure is all the greater from the fact that even when silent the Super-Zenith lends to its surroundings charm and distinction.

The proof that Zenith is the set you want is yours for the asking. Call this evening for a demonstration.
