consideration in delay was to make no move unnecessarily to delay legislation on the already badly congested senate calendar.

President Coolidge himself has taken the position that the senate itself is the best judge as to the precedence that should be given to matters now pending. Consequently, he has refrained from urging immediate action on a subject that can be disposed of at the special session called for March 4, without in any way hindering the work of the government.
