ONE OF THE LOVELIEST brides of the season was Miss Teresa Fowle who, on Sunday morning at the First Congregational church, pledged her troth to Mr. James Coleman Kriesel. The service was read at 8:30 o'clock with Rev. W. C. Kantner the officiating clergyman. Only relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Neither of the young couple were attended.

The bride made an attractive picture at the altar in her frock of wood rose French crepe, lace-trimmed, and adorned with Parisian flowers, with accessories to harmonize. Her corsage was an exquisite combination of orchids, freesias, lilies of the valley and bride's roses.

Following the ceremony the Marion hotel was the scene of a delightfully appointed wedding breakfast, with the favors small tissue-wrapped gifts of the bride cake. Lovely Japanese place cards, brought from Japan by the late Heyward Fowle, brother of the bride, marked covers for 14 close relatives and intimate friends. A lovely basket of rose-pink carnations centered the breakfast table. Lighted pink tapers in crystal holders completed the effect. The group included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kriesel, Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Kriesel, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bernard, Miss Helen Gatzke, Charles Deane Fowle and Richard Kriesel.

Following the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Kriesel left for a motor trip to various northern points. After March 1 they will be at home to their friends in Albany where Mr. Kriesel is in business. Mrs. Kriesel, the daughter of Mrs. W. P. Fowle, is a graduate of both the Salem high school and of Willamette university. For the past number of years she had been one of Salem's most popular teachers. At the university she was a member of the Adelante Literary society. She is also affiliated with the White Shrine and with the Eastern Star. Many lovely affairs have been given for Mrs. Kriesel since first announcement of the betrothal.

An attractive post-Valentine wedding was that on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Miss Elsie Leisy became the bride of Mr. William Bartel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Baumgartner of Pratum at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lena Leisy. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Helen Leisy, a sister of the bride. Thirty relatives and friends were in attendance.

The bride, attractive in a becoming frock of turquoise blue silk crepe, carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Bartel is a graduate of the Salem high school with the class of 1923. The young couple will make their home in Portland.

All signs point to a capacity audience for the Portia Mansfield Dancers in the Dance concert to be given at the Grand theater tomorrow night. Those who witness a performance of this sort seldom realize how many varied arts have been drawn upon to produce the whole artistic ensemble. The quite as much a part of the dance costumes and stage settings as is the music. They have been worked out by Charlotte Perry with all the care an artist gives to his canvas—more in fact, for the artist makes but one composition at a time, while the dance artist must employ a kaleidoscopic art, in which the harmonious combination of one moment must give place to an equally pleasing combination the next. In planning the color schemes of the various dances, the coloring suggested by the music must not be overlooked. Similarly the movements of the dancers are worked out with all the care a sculptor gives his figures, but with the added complication that the groupings must be constantly changing—that the beautiful moment just passed must be in harmonious relation to the moment to come. All the dances are the original creations of Portia Mansfield.

Taste it

Do you hesitate to taste the cooking fat you are using? Taste Snowdrift and see how good to eat a cooking fat can be.

Snowdrift is made by the Wesson Oil people out of oil as good as a fine salad oil—hardened and whipped into a creamy white fat—and packed in an airtight can to keep it as sweet and fresh as the day it was made. There couldn't be anything nicer for making cake, biscuit, or pie crust, or for frying.
