GAUETY predominated at Derby hall last evening when the 38 couples who are members of the Tillicum club met for an "Old Folks" party, all coming dressed like individuals of the nineteenth century. The square dance, the polka, and the minuet, all to appropriate music, had their part in making the evening a success. Derby hall was attractive with Valentine decorations, countless hearts floating in the ceiling, and cornucopias of greens in use about the walls.

An Apollo club concert, always looked forward to and always enjoyed by Salem's musical set, is to be one of the big attractions of the immediate future. The first concert of this club's eighth season will be given at the Armory on Wednesday evening, Feb. 25. Rehearsals for this concert have been in progress for the past two months and the final rehearsal preceding the concert will be held at the Oregon state hospital on Wednesday as a diversion for the inmates and those of the faithful attendants who are unable to attend the concert on the following Wednesday evening. Under the skillful direction of Dr. John R. Sites the singers have again prepared a program which is said to be unusually attractive both in balance and selection of numbers.

Mabel Riegelman, soprano, said by critics to be grand opera's tiniest prima donna, will be the guest artist for the forthcoming concert. Miss Riegelman is described as being petite in stature and as having a voice out of all proportion to her size. Four seasons with the Chicago Grand Opera company, as well as concerts and recitals in almost every large city of America, have brought to Miss Riegelman the much sought-after place in the musical firmament for which so many singers have striven in vain. She will be the guest artist of the Portland Apollo club in a concert on the night preceding her Salem engagement.

Assisting Miss Riegelman at the piano will be Frank Moss. Mr. Moss is a pianist of considerable note and will also be heard in a solo group on the Apollo club program. San Francisco papers acclaimed his playing as being of marked excellence, vitality and warmth.

The women of the First Methodist church are asked to bring all finished bonnets to the circle meetings this afternoon. For the south central circle Mrs. William Yarnell, 1860 South Church street, will be the hostess. The west central circle will meet with Mrs. C. F. Wilson, 473 North Cottage street. Mrs. John McNary will be hostess for the members of the east central circle at her home.

365 North Summer street. Mrs. E. J. Swafford will entertain members of the southeast circle at 190 South Seventeenth street. The Yew Park circle will meet with Mrs. R. R. Boardman, 1285 Waller street, while Mrs. W. M. Pennington will entertain for the Naomi circle at her address, 360 North Twentieth street, and Mrs. H. I. Stanley for the ladies of the Lucy Anna Lee circle. Mrs. Stanley's address being 725 State street.

Owing to the severe illness of Mrs. T. B. Kay the Thursday club will not meet until March.

A host of Salem friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Paul Wallace has returned to her home after spending a number of months at Colfax, Cal. Mr. Wallace went to California last week to accompany Mrs. Wallace home.

With the color motif entirely in yellow, the 1 o'clock luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. B. L. Steeves was one of the most attractive of the season. Daffodils in a beautiful Majolica vase centered the delightfully appointed table with the daffodil color predominating not only in the flowers and place cards, but also in the courses served.

In the living room pink cyclamen and silvery pussy willows were used. The afternoon was spent in an informal manner with conversation and sewing.

Mrs. Steeves invited as guests for what will be the first in a series of similar delightful affairs planned: Mrs. J. T. Hunt, Mrs. J. L. Brady, Miss Frances M. Richards, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. F. A. Legge, Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Mrs. W. C. Young, Mrs. Almira Hale, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Gertrude J. M. Page, Mrs. Homer Goulet, and Mrs. Elmo S. White.

The South Central circle of the First Christian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs. S. A. Philipot, 1160 S. Liberty street for a social and business meeting. Election of officers will take place at this time.

One of the most interesting meetings ever enjoyed by the American Legion and their auxiliary was that of Monday evening at McCornack hall when the legion was host to the auxiliary. Additional special guests were the War Mothers who were made the delighted recipients of a check for $1320.04, a sum which completely clears them of their debt. "Biddy" Bishop made the presentation to Mrs. John A. Cannon, the president of the War Mothers who responded in a fitting and appreciative manner.

A beautiful gold watch was presented to Mr. Bishop on behalf of his associates in the legion, the War Mothers.

Dancing completed a most enjoyable evening.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet on Friday for the regular monthly social meeting at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hansen, 990 North 5th street.

The Zena Community club will meet on Friday of this week for the regular meeting when a program that promises much in entertainment will be presented through the medium of a home talent minstrel show. Ralph Scott, Philip Patrick and Walter Hunt are making arrangements for this anticipated affair which will afford chorus, quartet and solo numbers, as well as a host of jokes.

Following the program a cafeteria supper will be held, with proceeds going toward paying for the new piano.

Dr. Walter H. Brown will be the speaker this afternoon at the Open Forum meeting of the Salem League of Women Voters. A general invitation is extended to all interested to attend the meeting which will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the public library.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop were guests on Sunday in Portland of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Bishop, the occasion being the birthday of the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore were hosts at a delightful dinner when they entertained informally on Valentine evening. Primroses were used for the table-flowers, with covers placed for Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mr. S. B. Elliott, Miss Lucille Moore, Miss Dorothy Moore, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore.

"The Portia Mansfield Dancers, that appeared here tonight are, in the opinion of our patrons, superior to any dance organization that has visited Butte for years." is the gist of a telegram received by Miss Lena Belle Tartar relative to the appearance of the Portia Mansfield Dancers here tonight at the Grand theatre.

The program is divided into three parts and includes several visualizations of famous compositions. In the first part, Liszt's "Les Preludes" is the composition chosen and is depicted by an allegorical story, based on the poem which inspired the composition and representing the eternal struggle between the forces of good and evil, with Virginia Mansfield as "Life," Bernice Rice, "Light," and Jack Daw, "Darkness." Another beautiful visualization is that of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony." (first movement). Then there is a delightful dance, showing a demure little Quaker girl, succumbing to the lure of a Strauss waltz. A humorous touch is given by the quaint "Dutch Love," danced by Netty Morgan and Alice Mickey. "Trepak," a dance of peasant Russia, is given to the Nutcracker Suite (Tschalkowsky). Altogether the program is rich in variety and charm, and indications point to a full house.

The Woman's Relief corps is sponsoring an interesting Lincoln-Washington birthday program for 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in McCornack hall with a special invitation extended to members of the GAR and the Sons of Veterans, as well as to all other patriotic orders.

The ladies of the First Congregational church will be the guests of the ladies of the Central Congregational church at a delightful Colonial tea in the parlors of the hostess church at 2:30 o'clock.

Field auditorium and those present reported an exceptionally enjoyable time. The auditorium was appropriately decorated in the red and white Valentine colors, a huge heart hanging from the middle of the room. From this streamers were draped to the four corners.

The first part of the evening program was given, consisting of a cornet solo by Amos Benson, a skit by Dwight Kircher and Olive Banks, a violin duet by Bertha Alm and Francis Coberly, with Annetta Gilkerson at the piano, a vocal solo by Burns Gilkerson. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing various games and staging contests.

At Trinity church red and white decorations also gave the social rooms a festive appearance. William Thompson gave a reading, Miss Esther Towe gave a piano solo, and Miss Esther Larson sang a vocal solo. A Valentine box was also a feature of the evening.

Silverton music lovers are very glad to learn that Sigurd Nilsson, a member of the DeReszke quartet which sings at the Portland auditorium Feb. 26, will give a concert at Silverton on the night of Feb. 25. It is seldom that Silverton has the opportunity to hear any of the artists at home. This opportunity arose because Mr. Nilsson is a former Silvertonian himself and still has a father and sister at Silverton.

Mr. Nilsson has been away from Silverton for a number of years, part of which time was spent in studying music in the east. Last winter Mr. Nilsson spent, along with the other members of the quartet, touring Europe. This winter the De Reszke singers have been touring the states. When Silverton heard that Mr. Nilsson was to visit his father, P. Nelson, and his sister, Mrs. John Elder, at Silverton, so many of his former friends asked that he give a concert that he finally consented. Mrs. Gertrude Cammeron of Silverton will accompany Mr. Nilsson.

Perhaps this threatened return of war is a protection. It will be a great little chaperone.

Mr. Woodward has introduced many constructive measures before the Oregon state legislature and has succeeded in getting many beneficial school measures through the legislature.

He is considered one of the most fluent speakers at the legislature, and one of the foremost authorities on educational methods.

POLICE AGENT SHOT
PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 17.—J. A. Fagerlie, police agent engaged in obtaining evidence against suspected bootleggers, was shot and gravely wounded tonight when he attempted to arrest William Foley and Dan Reardon, alleged bootleggers, at a local hotel.

Members of the Loyal Legion band are making arrangements for the concert.

The Hi-Yu He club met with Mrs. Helen Stewart, at the home of the Misses Emma and Hannah Christenson, Saturday evening. The entertainment was cleverly planned in keeping with St. Valentine's day, after which a dainty cafeteria lunch was served. The color scheme was carried out with red hearts and tulips. Those present besides members of the club were: Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Reed, Andrea Ipsen and Hannah and Emma Christenson.

SILVERTON SOCIETY

Progressive 500 and dancing were the principal attractions at a social meeting of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters at their hall Monday evening. Winners of the first prize were Mrs. George Hubbs and Jay Morley. A consolation prize was awarded E. Gornley. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

The Delbert Reeves post No. 7, American Legion, gave a supper dance at their hall Monday night. The meeting, which was well attended, was held as a farewell for two of the legion members, who, together with their wives, will leave Silverton in the near future. The members leaving are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Lester McDonald.

Jack Hyett acted as toastmaster during the supper for the 160 guests. Soloists who sang during the evening were W. Long, Archie Holt, B. Bishop and Berger Borrevik. Jack Hyett and Erick Larson gave a number of recitations. A short address was given by State Commander George Griffith. Other speakers of the evening were: Clifford Rae, commander of the Silverton post; Mrs. C. M. Wray, president of the Silverton Legion auxiliary; Charles Johnson, state committeeman, and Cliff Brown, commander of Capitol post No. 9.

Two enjoyable Valentine parties held Saturday night were at the high school and at Trinity church. The high school student body party was given at the Eugene
