Demarest is Secured for Salem; Speaks Tonight

At the last monthly meeting of the Salem Ministerial association, Mr. and Mrs. Agnew Demarest, evangelists, well known to Salem people, were invited to stop off and speak at the First Methodist church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Demarest are on their way to Eugene where they are to open an evangelistic campaign Sunday.

Reverend W. W. Long will preside and a large part of the evangelistic choir will be present to lead the singing. Mr. and Mrs. Demarest are bringing a number of their new song books and selections from these will be used in the services. Mr. and Mrs. Demarest and party arrived in Portland yesterday and rested there for the day. They will arrive in Salem this morning at 11:20 o'clock.

The evangelistic choir is asked to meet at 6 o'clock at the First Methodist church. O. J. Hull is in charge of the ushering and is going to use as many as possible of the old ushers of last spring meetings. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the entertainment of the party and the balance will be given to the evangelists.

Mr. and Mrs. Demarest have been busy since last summer writing and composing. Mrs. Demarest has just published "Broken Lives," a booklet which has already drawn the highest praise. It is not known what her subject will be tonight but good music and an address of inspiration and courage are assured.
