

KINNEY PORTRAIT RECEIVED BY STATE

Pioneer of 1847 Was Member of First Territorial Legislature

In behalf of the state, Governor Pierce yesterday accepted a portrait of Robert Crouch Kinney, a pioneer of 1847, which was presented by relatives through Chief Justice T. A. McBride. Little Miss Edna Walker, daughter of James G. Walker, Jr., of Portland, a great-granddaughter of the pioneer, unveiled the portrait at a joint session of the house and senate at noon.

"A state that fails to perpetuate the memory of its pioneers and its early traditions is on the way to decay," Chief Justice McBride said, in making the presentation.

Robert Kinney came to Oregon

the year that Chief Justice McBride was born, locating in Yamhill county, where he engaged in farming. He was a member of the first territorial legislature of the state and a delegate to the constitutional convention. The early pioneer is Senator W. A. Kinney's father-in-law, her husband being his youngest son. Senator Kinney is from Clatsop county and the only woman member of either house.

LOCAL REALTORS HEAR REP. POTTER

Legislator Gives Talk on Relation of Good Government to the Citizen

Representative E. O. Potter from Lane county spoke before the regular weekly meeting of the Marion-Polk county Realtors association Thursday at the Marion hotel. The legislator's talk centered around the relation of good citizenship and good government and made pointed remarks to bear out his statement.

"Each individual has a distinct part in carrying out good government and when this realization is made the problems of government will be simplified," was the remark of Representative Potter.

One of the greatest handicaps to good government was the distinction made between the different laws, was the contention of the speaker. He insisted that no distinction should be made because the evils resulting from the action were hard to efface. He cited the prohibition law as an example and heavily scored the appointing of an officer with a partial law to enforce.

In commenting upon the development of the real estate profession to its high standard of today, Representative Potter traced the course from the time when the early members were looked upon without great respect. Now, he said, sentiment had changed and the realtors were placed upon the high professional plane, that was of great benefit to all concerned.

The public was now able to accept the statement of the real estate dealer with just as much confidence as the word of the lawyer was accepted today. "The time is coming when the advice given will be accepted with confidence," was the contention of the speaker.

T. A. Zimmerman, Realtor from Portland, discussed the Realtors bill now before the legislature, outlining some of the merits, and the proposed changes in the real estate profession.

BIG GATE CLICKS UPON MURDERERS

Trio Concerned in Klamath County Killing Placed Behind Bars

Two life terms and one prisoner sentenced to 15 years were brought to the Oregon state penitentiary Thursday in one of the last chapters in the killing of Oscar Peterson in a poker game holdup in Klamath county. They were Sim Pate and Pete Sullivan, officers, and John Taylor, who is to do the short time sentence. It is presumed that Taylor, the informer, secured a lighter sentence because of the assistance he gave the state in prosecuting the case.

Deputy Sheriff E. X. Kendall and J. B. Kinsey brought the prisoners to Salem and later went to Vancouver Barracks with an army deserter.

All feeling is already manifest between the three, as indicated by their brief stay in the sheriff's office. Taylor remained aloof from the others, and no show of friendliness was made by either of the party. It is thought that Taylor will not have an easy time at the

Spring Wheat Will Bring $2 If Offered for Sale

Spring wheat will bring $2 per bushel, is the statement of Charles R. Archer, in commenting upon the situation at the present time when the farmers are holding their grain and the market price fails to dislodge any. However, the $2 wheat must be for seeding purposes.

"Anyone having Minnesota, Wonder, Defiance, Marquis, Burbank, Poise or any other spring wheat for sale should advise the public through the press. There is a big demand for this spring wheat for seeding purposes and I have no doubt that it will go for $2 a bushel, easily, if offered for sale."

The clover crop is about cleaned up, with the present price at 23 1/2 cents.

Improvements Will Allow Increase in Cut of Mill

In order to increase the output of the local sawmill of the Spauld-Lumber company $50,000 is to be spent within a few weeks. These improvements include the lighter part of a new boiler and the necessary tubes and accessories which will allow an additional 640 horsepower to be added.

These changes will allow the new ash-gang saw to be operated by steam, after the new boiler is completely installed. At the present the saw is operated by electricity.

The improvements will allow an increased production of 20,000 feet per day. As an average the local mill cuts between 110,000 and 130,000 feet per day.
