WE ARE THE VOICES OF THE WHISPERING WIND

We are the voices of the wandering wind,
Which moan for rest and rest can never find;
Lo! as the wind is, so is mortal life,
A moan, a sigh, a sob, a storm, a strife.

Wherefore and whence we are ye cannot know,
Nor where life springs nor wither doth life go;
We are as ye are, ghosts from the inane,
What pleasure have we of our changeful pain?

What pleasure has thou of thy changeful bliss?
Nay, if love lasted, there were joy in this;
But life's way is the wind's way, all these things,
Are but brief voices breathed on shifting strings.

—Sir Edwin Arnold.

THAT WAS CONSIDERED without question one of the best programs of the club year was Miss Cornelia Marvin's talk yesterday afternoon at the February luncheon meeting of the American Association of University Women.

In keeping with the Washington's birthday season the patriotic motif entered into both the program and the decorations. As the guests took their places at the tables, patriotic airs were played by Miss Frances Virginia Melton, who immediately after played the accompaniments for a group of pleasing solos by Mrs. Donald W. Riddle.

Miss Marvin, in her talk, which formed the major interest of the afternoon, not only gave the club considerable vital information on the subject of "Inter-relations in Europe," as based on her trip abroad, but drawing on her study since drew the subject completely up-to-date. She expressed a number of lines of thought which would serve to increase understanding of other countries.

A business session, with reports from both the educational and better films committees, followed. An interesting business feature was that which pertained to the meeting which will be held at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. E. C. Richards preparatory to organizing a section for the study of modern literature. Not only are all members of the association who are interested in such a study, but all those who are eligible to membership, are invited to be present for this meeting. If a previous engagement should make attendance impossible, those interested are asked to leave their names with either Mrs. Richards or Mrs. Horace Williston. Professor Williston will assist with this most interesting course of study planned.

Corvallis, Feb. 21.—The engagement of Mary N. Belt of Roseburg, junior in agriculture, to Roland E. Dimmick of Salem, sophomore in vocational education, has been announced at the Delta Upsilon fraternity house. Miss Belt is vice president of Snell hall and is president of the Women's Agricultural club. Mr. Dimmick is a member of Kappa Phi Delta, honorary fraternity in vocational education. The young couple expect to be married this summer.

Mabel Reigelman, prima donna soprano, who will be the assisting artist with the Apollo club, will be heard in Salem on Wednesday, February 25.

Foremost of the musical events of this week will be the Apollo club's first concert of the season at the Armory next Wednesday evening. Since the concerts of this well known singing organization, from its inception eight years ago, have always been considered as events in the musical life of the city, there is no question but that the Wednesday night concert will be a success and well attended. For this concert there will be 30 voices in the chorus. Under the direction of Dr. John R. Sites much drill has been given the singers on the program which will be sung in the forthcoming concert, and it is said by some of those who have heard the club in its final rehearsals that the songs to be sung and the finish with which they are rendered by the chorus will not fail to uphold the prestige gained by the club in its splendid achievements of the past.

Much interest is being shown in the artist engaged to share honors with the club at this concert, Mabel Reigelman is new to Salem but has for a number of years past been firmly established as an artist in the American field of concert and grand opera. It is said of her that she makes painstaking preparation for each of her concerts, denoting, that to her, the matter of pleasing her audience is of the utmost importance. Miss Reigelman is in a class with those rare artists who combine finished musicianship with impressive personality and because of her happy combination of these traits she never fails to receive an ovation. She has for her accompanist Frank Moss, a pianist of considerable note and accomplishment. Mr. Moss will also be heard in a solo group in the concert program. A special recommendation for Miss Reigelman's ability is her engagement with the Portland Apollo club on the evening previous to her Salem engagement.

Ray Lucas is in Eugene for the week-end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Goodwin.

Captain A. H. Gattie of London, England is a house-guest over the week-end of Dr. and Mrs. Lytle. Mrs. Iva Blomquist, a sister of Mrs. Lytle is also a house-guest. Mrs. Clark E. Nelson of Portland, also visited the Lytles earlier in the week, Mr. Nelson joining his wife for one day.

The outstanding social affair of the week promises to be the large dinner dance at which Major and Mrs. Andreae and Mr. and Mrs. James Linn will entertain on Saturday evening. Fifty invitations have been issued for the affair which will take place at the Marston hotel.

The delightful Colonial affair with which Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate the Washington's birthday season will take the form of a silver tea to be given at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, 975 E street, from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

Daffodils and flags will be attractively used in the rooms where the hostesses will preside in Colonial gowns. An entertaining program has been arranged to include vocal solos by Mrs. T. E. Newmeyer, readings by Mrs. T. E. McCroskey, and quartet numbers by Gussie Allen, Eva Fere, Mrs. George Allen and Mrs. William Babcock, with Mrs. Harry M. Styles at the piano.

Opening the door for the guests will be Miss Jane Harbison and Miss Margaret Heltzel.

In the dining room during the first hour Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. La Moine Clark will preside at the urns, and during the second hour Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Mrs. James Heltzel, Assisting in the dining room will be Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Harry M. Styles, Mrs. John W. Harbison, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. John B. Eakin and Mrs. Alton Hurley.

Mrs. Homer Goulet is in charge of the affair, which is being given

Miss Constance Kantner has as her house guest Miss Corin Degermark of Portland, executive secretary of Camp Fire girls of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fehler were hosts last evening for a group of friends at a delightful 500 party at their home, 335 Richmond. Three tables of the chosen diversion were in play, after which the hostess served a delicious late luncheon. Daffodils were used to give the springtime floral motif. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fehler were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Orcutt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schiemann, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rice, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nash.

Mrs. Clifton Irwin is spending the week in Portland. On Friday evening she attended the wedding of her cousin, Miss Arline Cameron, to Wayne Loder.

Members of the civic arts section of the Salem Arts League enjoyed a profitable meeting Friday evening at the library. The time was spent in a discussion of desirable plantings for spring in both the annual and the perennial groups.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Leary delightfully entertained the members of the Lone Star club on Friday evening with an evening of 500 at their home. High score was won by R. O'Leary, while the consolation award went to A. L. Bones.

An attractive luncheon, carrying out the Washington's birthday motif, was served at a late hour. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bones, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. R. Woodhill, Mr. and Mrs. William Yarnell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Woodry, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Leary.

On March 6 Mr. and Mrs. Yarnell will entertain the club. Miss Mildred Spang is among those from Salem in attendance at the educational exposition this week-end at Oregon Agricultural college. She is the guest of Miss Margaret Smith at Waldo hall.

Rev. W. C. Kantner performed the Valentine wedding which united in marriage Miss Edna Waldorf and Mr. James W. Cleveland. The groom is of Albany where the couple will make their home. The service was read at the First Congregational church parsonage at 9 o'clock in the evening.

Two outstanding speakers have been secured for the program under preparation for the observance of the interdenominational "Day of Prayer" on Friday of this week. The program, which will open at 10:30 o'clock in the morning will be held at the First Baptist church, with representatives from different churches all over town taking part.

The speakers which the committee has been fortunate in securing are Mrs. Herbert Low of Portland, who has been engaged in missionary work in her own country, China, who will make the main morning address, and Miss Eugenia Phillips, who has served her church as a missionary to Central America.

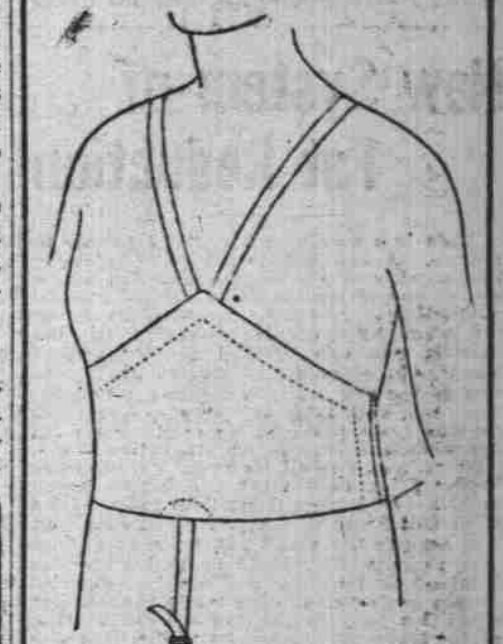

The morning devotions will be led by Mrs. C. C. Polling, and those of the afternoon by Mrs. Z. Z. Mowrer. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

The West Side circle of the Jason Lee Aid society spent a delightful social afternoon on Friday with Mrs. Richard Erickson, 1515 North Liberty street. Assisting her were: Mrs. Effie Dunlap and Mrs. Glase. Decorations, refresh-

IRENE CASTLE CORTICELLI FASHIONS The LUCRETIA Model

IRENE CASTLE CORTICELLI FASHIONS The ARVILLA Model

The "Lucretia" model—(above)—A tunic effect with a bow in front is charmingly employed—the net yoke and leather ornaments are happy touches. Developed in Corticelli crepe Tremaine.

The "Arvilla" model to the right, a charmingly youthful, straight line frock of Corticelli crepe Tremaine Fairly irresistible with its crepe du Jour jabot on skirt and the embroidery around the waist.

Acclaimed internationally as "America's best dressed woman." These charming new costumes, designed for Irene Castle's own personal wear, truly carry the smartness, the verve and unapproachable chic that have made her famous for her beautiful clothes. And American women of taste can obtain these exclusive Irene Castle creations. The number of garments is rigidly limited to insure exclusiveness for every woman who purchases an Irene Castle—Corticelli model.
