One of the most largely attended social events of the month was the farewell reception given on Thursday evening at the First Methodist church honoring Dr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, who are leaving next week for Chicago, accompanied by their three children, Truman, Mary Esther, and Virginia Lois.

Three hundred friends of, and workers with, Dr. Kirkpatrick during his Salem pastorate, were present for this affair, with Mr. H. F. Shanks the chairman in charge.

Ronald C. Glover presided as master of ceremonies. The program of the evening was opened with instrumental solos by Prof. T. S. Roberts, followed by the tribute from the official board, with Dr. B. L. Steeves as spokesman. A vocal duet was given by the Misses Mary and Faye Spaulding. Willis Hawley gave the evening's tribute for the junior official board. Mrs. La Moine R. Clark spoke appreciatively in behalf of the women of the church, while the tribute for the community was given by the Rev. Ward Willis Long. Preceding Mr. Long's tribute, piano numbers were given by Miss Eugenia Savage.

Late in the evening the guests of honor were presented with a beautiful picture of Crater Lake, J. L. Brady making the presentation, and Dr. Kirkpatrick responding for a gift which proved unusually appropriate since Dr. Kirkpatrick has often manifested a great love for the west, and since his vacation trip last summer of Crater Lake in particular.

The evening closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The church rooms were beautifully decorated with many seasonal flowers, C. F. Breithaupt, assisted by the students, attending to the backgrounds.

Punch was served during the evening by the YKK class, while the Marion Lawrence and Yomarco classes furnished home-made cookies.

In the receiving line for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, the guests of honor; Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley, president of the board; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Shanks, superintendent of the Sunday school; Dean and Mrs. George H. Alden, acting president of Willamette university, and Dr. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick, representing Kimball school of Theology, and Miss Adelia White, president of the Epworth league.

The line was introduced by Miss Mary Findley, director of religious education, while presidents of the Young People's societies received at the door.

The reception followed the regular Thursday night devotional.

SPLENDID OREGON RECORD

Adora Maid of Poppy 543944 has completed an excellent 365 day test in which she produced 627.34 lbs. of fat and 11,668 lbs. of milk as a junior 2-year-old. She carried her calf for 214 days of the test and qualified for a Silver Medal in Class AA. The record of the test shows that she maintained production in a very consistent way throughout the year.

Adora Maid is by Maid's Golden Poppy 181034 that is by St. Mawes Golden Poppy 125510, the Silver Medal bull that sired Poppy's Dorothea 378520, the world's champion junior 3-year-old Jersey, and the Medal of Merit cow Popelora 378523. The dam of Adora Maid is the register of merit cow Eugenia Dora 330107.

C. J. Reid & Lorenzen Bros., of Dayton, Oregon, own this young producer and are responsible for the fine showing that she has made.
