THE YWCA PARLORS will be the scene of an interesting tea this afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock when the board and committee members entertain for Miss Harriet Bromley, a secretary of the association who is a visitor in the city. In addition to the talk which Miss Bromley will give there will be a delightful musical program which Mrs. Mason Bishop is arranging.

Mrs. J. C. Perry is in charge with the following committee of assistants: Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Mark McCallister, Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. W. F. Poorman, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. John H. Carson, and Mrs. Marie Beck. These comprise the regular social committee of the year.

Miss Frances Gill and Mrs. Boyle of Portland are guests of Miss Betty Hyde and Miss Carol Chesley recently.

Miss Gill is well known in Portland as the author of two books of children's verse.

The Women's society of the First Baptist church will have an all day meeting at the church parlors on Wednesday, February 25.

The work on articles for Dr. Goddard's hospital will begin at 10 a. m. Anyone having old sheets of other materials suitable for making bandages is requested to bring them for this missionary box. Pot-luck dinner will be served at the noon hour and the business session will begin at 2:30.

All women of the congregation are invited to attend and help in this important work.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise entertained as their guest over the week-end, Whitney Boise of Portland.

An interesting Washington's Birthday program was held yesterday morning at the Grant Junior high school under the sponsorship of the Story Telling section of the Salem Arts' league, and under the direction of Mrs. W. F. Fargo.

The singing of patriotic songs by the school opened the program. A quarter of an hour talk was given by Reverend Martin Fereshtian on Washington's life and character. Miss Edwards, librarian at the city library, told the students a story particularly suited to the observance of Washington's birthday. A story told by Mrs. Fereshtian was entitled "The Enchanted Necktie." Perry Reigelman closed the program with an original Negro mammy songs, giving "How Little Peter Spoke His Piece" as an encore.

Mrs. Ursule I. Wolfer entertained with dinner Thursday evening at her new home on Fifth street in honor of her cousin, Miss Jacque Braden and Miss Cora Long, legislative stenographers who will leave soon for their homes at Coos Bay.

Mrs. W. W. Banks of Portland is among the women of the legislature returning over the week-end to her home.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop entertained as her house-guest over the week-end Mrs. W. D. Macdonald of Portland.

One of the most unique, as well as one of the most attractive of last week's many social affairs was the Oriental party on Friday at which Mrs. Arthur M. Moore was hostess. Chinese lanterns and flower-like parolons gave an Oriental atmosphere in the decorating. Chinese lilies were used with mountain foliage in the floral scheme. During the early afternoon three tables of bridge were in play with the first prize going to Mrs. W. A. Mullen and the second to Mrs. J. R. Pollock. Additional guests were invited for the tea hour.

The table covers used, and the tally-cards, as were the lovely prizes, all were sent to the hostess by her daughter, Miss Helen Moore, from Honolulu. A chopstick luncheon was served at 4 o'clock.

The guests for the delightful afternoon were: Mrs. F. E. Shafer, Mrs. J. B. Pollock, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Potal, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. A. T. Wales, Mrs. G. W. Laffar, Mrs. W. E. Buckner, Mrs. J. B. Hestford, Mrs. Earl A. Paulsen, Mrs. A. M. Dalrymple, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. C. D. Purvine, Mrs. John Mauer, Mrs. Irwin Lewis, Mrs. H. S. Bell and the hostess, Mrs. Arthur H. Moore.

Mrs. Frank J. Lonergan, wife of Representative Lonergan, returned Saturday evening to Portland.

Three interesting affairs of the past week took place at the YWCA. On Thursday evening the girls of the home entertained at dinner for Miss Marian Wyman who soon leaves for California.

Friday the members of the high school girls' society entertained with their annual Lord Chesterfield dinner, having held formal initiation of the preceding night.

A further calendar event was the Grand dinner party and Washington's Birthday breakfast over the week-end.

In entertaining for Miss Wyman, a twenty-three cover dinner party was held in the YWCA dining room. Daffodils and violets were used for the table flowers, while the Washington's Birthday motif was used for the place cards.

An informal program of toasts was given by Mrs. J. M. Hawkins of Albany, Miss Jennie Vandevort and Miss Bess Van Mater.

A beautiful leather brief case was the gift to Miss Wyman from her hostesses.

Seated at the table were: the honor guest, Miss Marian Wyman, Mrs. J. M. Hawkins, of Albany, Miss Mizpah Palmerton, Miss Clementine Charles, Miss Gladys Paul, Miss Beatrice Sunderstrom, Miss Sylvia Orell, Miss Bess Jones, Miss Frances Host, Miss Clara Hager, Miss Amelia Hiltgrove, Miss Judy Currie, Miss Ruby Russell, Miss Myrtle Chesworth, Miss Grace Pesse, Miss Elizabeth Weir, Mrs. Althea Berg, Miss Bertha Van Cleave, Mrs. Ruth Grimes, Miss Beth Van Mater, Miss Elizabeth Stockhousen, Miss Lottie Robbins and Miss Jennie Vandevort.

At the candle-light service which initiated members into the High School Girl Reserve the following were made eligible to be guests at the Lord Chesterfield dinner: Miss Constance Smart, Miss Eloise White, Miss Lola Schols, Miss Sarah Samuels, Miss Etta Trimes, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Minnie Shrede, Miss Elizabeth Weelster, Miss Hope Crowthers, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Margaret Towsead, Miss Pauline Welsh, Miss Marguerita Millard, Miss Judy Currie, Miss Esther Tibbits, and the advisers, Mrs. Louis Campbell and Miss Mildred Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kays entertained a delightful week-end affair on Saturday night for a group of friends at their home south of Salem. The evening was spent with dancing and general jollification. Those assisting the hostesses were Mrs. T. H. Baker and Mrs. George Thompson.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw, and sons Billie and Claude, Mr. and Mrs. A. Neeman, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Knightinger, Mr. and Mrs. L. Har-ison, Mr. and Mrs. E. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dancer, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dener, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Miss Lucille Robinson, Marie Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rosenbaum, Mr. Chickering, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Baker, and Mrs. Edna Mize, Leonard Darby, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kays.

Instead of meeting for cards, the Social Afternoon club of the Eastern Star will meet this afternoon for sewing.

The Ladies' Central circle of the Central Congregational church will hold their regular monthly silver tea on Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock in the church parlors. The hostesses will be Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Phillipa, Mr. Ernest Clark and Mrs. Frank Clark.

The first of a series of cooked food sales to be given by St. Paul's Guild will be held on Saturday at Neimeyer's Drug Store. All ladies of the Guild are asked to contribute. Any one desiring any special article cooked may leave orders at Neimeyer's Drug Store.

Interest both inside, and outside, of the parish is centering on the evening of entertainment to be held at the Parish house when two plays will be given under the sponsorship of the Young People. Dancing will follow.

Tomorrow morning litany services will be held at 7:30 and at 9:30 o'clock. There will be a sermon at 7:45 in the evening in the chapel.

Valentine's day was the occasion for a party at the home of Mrs. H. L. Roberts on Friday evening, with Madge Reis, Bonetia Banister and Bernice Roberts as the hostesses. Each person was presented at the court of the King and Queen of Hearts. After a jolly evening refreshments were served in an original manner to Elizabeth Duncan, Bertha Miller, Esther Lisle, Irene Brethaupt, Ella Pfeiffer, Edna Ellis, Pira Franklin, Florence Starker, Gertrude Smith, George Rigby, Charles Redding, Leslie Nevitt, Kenneth Lawson, Vernon Taylor, Leslie Frewing, Winston Wade, Arnold Taylor, Frank Alfred, Wilfred Thomas and Paul Trueblood.

The general aid society of the First Methodist church will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the church.

Mrs. C. N. Hathaway of West Salem was pleasantly surprised last Thursday when the Book and Thimble club members came to spend an unexpected afternoon with her, bringing with them a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Hathaway has been unable to attend the meetings of the club for some time on account of ill health.

The rooms of the Hathaway home were lovely with potted ferns and plants, including several Christmas cactus in bloom. Mrs. E. Pattison read an instructive paper on nutrition. Mrs. L. F. Brown favored those present with a solo, "Ask Me Not to Forget Thee," and read "Auntie Doleful's Visit." The rest of the afternoon was given over to visiting and to singing of several selections by the quartette. Mrs. L. F. Brown and Mrs. Max Gehlar assisted the hostess in serving.

The following members were present: Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. E. Pattison, Mrs. E. Manning, Mrs. P. H. Boatley, Mrs. M. Gehlar, Mrs. Evelyn Kays, Mrs. Charles Kays, Mrs. C. L. Adams, and sons, Bobby and Danny, and the hostess, Mrs. C. N. Hathaway. Special guests were Mrs. E. Cook with her two daughters, and Miss Bernadine Bentley.

For the next meeting of the club the members will meet with Mrs. E. Pattison. At this time Mrs. M. Gehlar and Mrs. Max Beaver will have charge of the program.

The Sons of Veterans Auxiliary will entertain the Sons of Veterans at a 8:30 o'clock supper this evening in the armory. A Washington program will be given, and a business meeting held.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage entertained as their guests at 8 o'clock dinner on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Savage of Monmouth and Mrs. Martha Byrd. Mr. Carlton Savage is the nephew of the host and holds a responsible position at Monmouth where he is business manager of the Normal school.

On Friday and Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Savage had as their guest their son, Charles H., of Portland.

At an impressive wedding ceremony at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church Miss Christine Dolores Horish and Mr. Robert Reme Daniel were united in marriage. Reverend J. R. Beck officiating in the presence of immediate friends and relatives.

The bridal party took their places at the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride, in a trim tailored suit worn with hat in harmony was attended by Miss Evelyn Schafer and Miss Barbara Swigert as bridesmaids. Edward Davis and Alford Davis were groomsmen. Little Dolores Davis, carrying a sheaf of roses and freesias, and wearing a frock of yellow, was a dainty flower girl. The bride's bouquet was a lovely combination of Ophelia roses and freesias, tied with a flowing bow of tulle.

A bountiful wedding breakfast was served at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis in Silverton, with covers placed

SOLOIST WITH MacDOWELL CLUB

Madame Frida Stjerna, soprano, who will appear in one of the most anticipated programs of the winter season on Friday, February 27, at the Grand theatre when the MacDowell club will give the fourth concert in a series of five.

MADAME FRIDA STJERNA, soprano, who will be presented by the Salem MacDowell club at the Grand theatre on Friday evening, will give a group of Scandinavian songs in Swedish costume and an English group in a Jenny Lind costume. Madame Stjerna has the same beautiful tonal coloring and delightful manner as the famous Swedish Nightingale, and her voice has a richness and sweetness, with clear, ringing high tones, that are especially beautiful in the well known "Norwegian Echo Song" which will be one of her numbers.

The MacDowell club chorus of 30 women's voices comprise the best known singers in town and under the efficient direction of Professor W. H. Boyer of Portland sing in a highly creditable manner.

The numbers they will sing are the kind that are full of harmony, arranged to please a critical audience.

"The Water Fay," one of the most dramatic numbers written for women's voices, will be sung by the club and Madame Stjerna.
