Suit Placed Against Salem—
For 74 years property on Division street, belonging to the city, has been occupied by different families, who have built their homes upon the tracts, according to the suit to quiet title of the terday. David A. Wright, Samuel Phillips, and Mary Phillips, are instituting the suit. They claim to be owners of the property in fee simple and want to get full title to the property. It is thought the property was confused when the donation claim of Willson was thrown open for sale. The property lies between High and Church on Division street and never has been used for a street, although the records of the city show that the property should be used as a thoroughfare.

Suggested by a John Fox Jr. story.

Mountain Melodrama

That fascinates with its heart romance and enthralls with its amazingly swift action. A plot so full of mystery that it puzzles to the end. Comedy that keeps you roaring. Jack Pickford at his best in a big picture.
