AN UNUSUALLY attractive program is that announced for this evening at the Grand theater when the MacDowell club chorus, assisted by Madame Frida Stjerna, soprano, will give seven groups of song, with every number a highlight among beautiful and characteristic compositions. Eminent among the conductors on the coast is W. H. Boyer who has been directing the club in an inspiring manner throughout a culminating season.

Miss Stjerna, the assisting artist engaged for the concert, has an extended repertoire of Swedish, Norwegian, Danish, French, German and Italian songs in the original. Authentic and convincing, and full of charm, will be the Swedish folk songs scheduled as the second group on the program. Four numbers comprise this offering which will be sung in costume. Margaret Nots will accompany the guest artist and Mildred Jaeger, the chorus. The complete program is announced as follows:

- I
(a) Woodland Sprites.....Page
(b) Lullaby.....Scott
Chorus

- II
(a) A Maiden One Day.....
(b) What I Have Promised....
(c) The Bird Song.....
(d) The Maiden and I.....
Madame Stjerna

- III

Madame Stjerna and Chorus

The many Salem friends of Mrs. Earl Flegel of Honolulu are anticipating her arrival here on Wednesday, March 4, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers who have been visiting on the islands since the first of the year. Mrs. Flegel will be accompanied by her little son, Earl, Jr. Captain Flegel in the early spring. Mr. and Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Flegel, having taken passage for the states on Wednesday, February 25, are sailing for San Francisco on the Wilamena.

The Mothers' class of the First Methodist church will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening with Mrs. F. C. DeLong, 1108 Chemekeka street for the February social meeting. Mrs. B. Blatchford will have charge of the devotions.

Late last evening the many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick bade them "goodspeed" when, accompanied by their three children, Truman, Mary Esther, and Virginia Lois, they left by the southern route for Chicago to take up a new work. During Dr. Kirkpatrick's four-year pastorate here he has endeared himself to hundreds of friends.

Next week's outstanding affair without doubt will be the annual banquet which the Business and Professional Women are planning for Wednesday, March 4, at 7 o'clock, at which time the national president, Miss Adella Prichard, will be present. On the committee of arrangements, of which Miss Nellie Williams is chairman, are Miss Louise Kezar and Miss Colla West. A large attendance is expected with reservations available at the state house with Miss Kezar or at the Capital drug store from Miss Sylvia Woods.

The members of the Minnesota society will have their winter meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Jason Lee church. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kightlinger entertained on Wednesday evening for the members of the B. E. club, with 500 the diversion of the evening. The Kightlinger home was attractive with ferns and daffodils. Mrs. Esther Taylor of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Davies, was a special guest of the club. High scores of the evening went to Mrs. C. B. Shaw and Mr. Claude Townsend, and the low scores to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Davies. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. O. L. Scott. At the next meeting of the club Dr. and Mrs. Scott will entertain.

Club members are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Friedrich, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Olmsted, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies and Mr. and Mrs. John Spong.

Dr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick were delightfully honored with a 6 o'clock dinner on Wednesday when the members of the Kimball faculty and their wives entertained for their pleasure. Daffodils and violets were spring flowers used in the decorating. Dr. Kirkpatrick, who left last night for his new work, has conducted a number of classes at Kimball.

Covers at the Wednesday night dinner were placed for Dr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, President and Mrs. E. C. Hickman, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick, Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Pemberton, Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Hertzog, Mrs. E. S. Hammond, Mrs. George W. Emory, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hickman, Prof. and Mrs. Donald W. Riddle, and Miss Leone Hall.

An enjoyable farewell party of Wednesday evening was that held in pavilion C of the Oregon state tuberculosis hospital. The party was given by the girls of pavilion C, assisted by the doctors and nurses of the staff, in honor of Miss Nina Fredericksen, who has recovered from her illness. The affair was delightful as a costume party with various social games making the evening a happy one. Refreshments of doughnuts and cocoa were served. Miss Johnson and Miss Bandle chaperoned the party.

The Hazel Green Parent-Teachers association will hold their business meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening. After the business meeting a radio program will be given by the courtesy of Vick Brothers' radio department.

Mrs. Clifton Ross and Mrs. Fred Prince pleasantly surprised Mrs. Jesse Prince at her home on North Liberty street Wednesday afternoon in honor of the fact that the birthdays of all three fall within the week. In addition, the day was Mrs. Fred Prince's wedding anniversary. Dainty refreshments were served and all enjoyed a pleasant afternoon wishing each other many happy returns of the day.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the church parlors following the funeral at 2 o'clock, for the regular February meeting.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Ida Niles, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. A. R. Baird, Mrs. Reed Chambers, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans and Mrs. Frank Power.

On the eve of Ash Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr. entertained the members of the U. D. club, their husbands and additional guests with an evening of bridge. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. G. Nadon and T. M. Barr. Special guests were Rev. J. R. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Waters, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Skelley, Mr. and Mrs. George Schuneman, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Petzel and Lawrence Bach.

Club members and their husbands who were included are Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eckerlin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Nadon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hintzen, Mr. and Mrs. John Nathan, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, Mrs. C. J. Hoaly, Miss Rosalia Bach, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr.

A group of 14 signed up Wednesday evening for the section in literature study sponsored by the American Association of University Women. The group plans to meet every other Wednesday at the home of Prof. and Mrs. E. C. Richards. British modern literature will open the course with Professor Williston for the next meeting, planning a survey of the development of the novel in England. Wells will be the novelist studied.

Of primary interest to Salem's many church-going women is the observance today of the annual Day of Prayer for Missions at the First Baptist church where a large throng of women will assemble at 10:30 o'clock. At this time the program, the subject of which is "Even As Thou Wilt," will open with a morning devotional led by Mrs. C. C. Poling.

Following is the program: 10:30 a. m., devotions, Mrs. C. C. Poling; business session; hymn of intercession; Bible lesson and commentary, led by Mrs. E. H. Shanks and Mrs. F. M. Jasper; prayer of thanksgiving, Mrs. W. C. Kantner; address, "Foreign Speaking People," Mrs. Herbert Low, Portland; a God-given measure, Mrs. John Humphries; music.

12 o'clock—Luncheon in basement of church.
1:30 p. m., devotions, Mrs. Z. C. Mower; business session; "Let Us Pray," Mrs. Charles Park; solo "In the Secret of His Presence," Miss Naomi Phelps; address, Miss Eugenia Phillips, "Central America"; group of directed prayers, Mrs. D. R. Peterson, Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. W. H. Hertzog, and Mrs. J. L. Brady; offering: Obsecrans, work among farm and cannery migrants; Christian literature for women and children in mission fields, Women's Union Christian colleges of the Orient.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Denton of Portland were guests on Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton.

Judge and Mrs. L. H. McMahon are home from a month's trip into California.
