

PAST LEGISLATION REVIEWED BY MOTT

Member Regards 33rd Session of Oregon Legislature as Conservative

Representative James W. Mott of Astoria, former Salem man, and Mayor J. B. Giesy were speakers at the Lions luncheon yesterday during their regular meeting at the Marion hotel.

Representative Mott, a brother to Dr. William Mott, city health officer, presented the high lights of the Oregon legislature which closed Thursday evening after 46 days of session.

"It is too early to give or discuss the results of the last legislature. In general it can be said that they were no better or no worse than the assemblies of previous years.

"During the last legislature there were men who came to the capitol on business, and there were some who sold their souls for a mess of pottage.

"Legislation was not outstanding during this session. The taxation measures were made a fizzle, and the legislators had to stoop to the lowly cigarette to secure funds to run the government.

"There was no real constructive legislation enacted, except the reforestation bill, which was passed after many repeated failures at previous sessions.

"The fishing industry is worth $12,000,000 a year to the state, declared the speaker. In theory the fish taken from the waters belong to the state.

"The fish taken from the waters belong to the state. In reality the possession is tied up by a handful of men. They have secured the river positions upon the Columbia river, have control of the gill-nets of the state and thus are able to control all of the fishing industry of the state. They have gone so far as to introduce legislation, which would allow aliens to fish in the Oregon streams, taking the possessions of citizens and bestowing it upon those, oftentimes denied the privilege of being a citizen.

In commenting upon the situation that existed between the governor and the organizations in the house and senate, Representative Mott stated no hope existed at first for Pierce. It appeared that every appointive power was to be shorn from him.

Mrs. Gladys McIntyre, Willamette university senior, favored the Lions with a vocal solo and an encore. Miss McIntyre was well received by the members, as shown by the applause received.

DISHERS FIT TO SET BEFORE UNCROWNED KINGS

to the peas a slice of onion, two cups of boiling water, a small bay leaf, a little parsley, a teaspoonful sugar and pepper and salt. Simmer for 20 minutes, put into an enameled ware colander and mash through as much of the pulp as possible.

Thicken with a tablespoonful of butter blended with one and one-half tablespoonfuls flour. When creamy add the pureed mixture and stir well.

The economical housewife who wishes to have her oven "full up" when it is going will find this suggestion very adaptable:

Wipe a six-pound roast of beef with a damp cloth, sprinkle with salt, pepper and flour. Put in an enameled ware self-basting roaster and cook in a hot oven for 20 minutes.

Tomato Jelly salad as a side dish goes very well with this baked dinner. Drain the juice from a can of tomatoes. Put one cupful of juice in an enameled ware saucepan which is impervious to this vegetable acid.

Peel, core and slice four tart apples. Put into a well-buttered enameled ware baking dish, which is unaffected by citrus fruit acids and will insure their flavor and color.

BOY SCOUT WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

Silverton Making Plans With Program March 1; Features Good Deeds

SILVERTON, Ore., Feb. 27.—(Special)—Boy Scout week, beginning March 1, will be observed at Silverton. Rev. S. Hall will give a special sermon at the Methodist church at which the Boy Scouts and the members of Company 1 of the Oregon National Guard will be guests.

Ambitious tourists should wait until the world fliers announce their gas mileage. The communist theory is perfectly simple. All there is of it is that the incompetent, assumed to be the majority, shall seize whatever there is and live on it as long as it lasts.

CITY NEEDS NEW BRIDGE PROGRAM

Mayor Giesy Explains Proposed Bridge Program for Salem Before Lions

Mayor J. B. Giesy, in speaking before the Lions club at their regular meeting Friday, sketched briefly the proposed bridge program for the city of Salem.

"At present the city has 27 bridges in operation with several smaller ones," he said. "Five of them are concrete and eight are constructed with concrete abutments. Slowly the wooden bridges are crumbling away and the city is at an expense to keep them in condition for use.

"I am in favor of a special tax levy, which will be used to build the structures as we go. The old bridges will be replaced as soon as they are unfit. In this way the city can be saved the interest on a bond issue, which would amount to more than the cost of two or three bridges. The special tax, however, is to be separate from the six per cent limitation which the city is using at the present time.

"The expenses of the city are lower here than elsewhere, and preparations must be made to face the problems arising from our rapid growth. Salem must build for the future. The permanent bridge program is one of the wise steps towards that goal."

The Lions voted a resolution favoring the bridge program outlined by the speaker.

Northwest Crown Gil Bros. Seeds Grow Greater Gardens

Order Garden Seeds Direct From Gil Bros. Seed Co. Pedigree, acclimation, hardness, true seed to name! These qualities will insure you a greater garden.

"Seeds which are grown in the Northwest," says Prof. A. G. Bouquet, department vegetable gardening, O. A. C. "are usually more vigorous and better acclimated for growing crops of vegetables than those purchased elsewhere."

Gil Bros. Northwest-grown seeds are famed far and wide for their superior qualities. Market gardeners everywhere are using them in preference to any other kind. Over 800 market gardeners in the Northwest are now customers, and the list is steadily growing.

Gil Bros. were market gardeners themselves twenty years ago. Their farm, six miles east of Portland, won a reputation for highest quality vegetables. They developed special strains, and in 1910 decided to grow acclimated seed, not only for their own use but for sale. Thus was born their seed business which today is growing by leaps and bounds.

If you have never tried these seeds, order the special collection listed below. You will be well repaid in fine vegetables for yourself and your family.
