AUBREY BUNCH

PHONE 198

THE HOME of Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., was the scene on Saturday evening of one of the most entertaining affairs of the closing month when members of the Daughters of the Nile invited their husbands to be their special guests for an evening of 500. Six tables of the diversion were in play, with honors going to Mrs. David Wright and George Dunsford. Golden daffodils, spirea and fern gave a floral motif in the society colors, gold, green and white.

Members of the club, of which Mrs. John R. Sites is president, and their guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buchner, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunsford, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Eiker, Dr. and Mrs.

Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mesch, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vibbert, Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, Mr. and Mrs. George Crator, and Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc Riggs.

At a beautiful and impressive wedding in the Delta Omega sorority house at 5:30 Wednesday evening, Miss Evelyn Clark was married to Russell B. Stearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Stearns, Rev. Monroe G. Everett, student pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Just at the hour Professor Paul Petri, director of the School of Music at Oregon Agricultural college, played Mendelssohn's wedding march as Miss Gladys Williams, Miss Lillian Olson, Miss Ellen Gamwell, Miss Myrtle Klamp, Miss Helen Chase and Miss Anna Eberling, carrying streamers of white tulle, descended the stairway and formed an aisle to the altar, which was banked with ferns and spring flowers. In the candle light the bride, unattended, descended the stairway and met the bridegroom at the altar. The bride was dressed in an ensemble suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

"Oh, Promise Me," by Bond was sung by Professor Petri, accompanied by Mrs. Petri at the piano. Miss Violet Loydgren played "At Dawning" by Cadman. Following the Lohengrin Wedding march, played by Professor Petri, refreshments were served by Miss Zelma Groves, Miss Marion Stewart, Miss Anoha Joos, and Miss Myrtle George.

The guests included Miss Edith Livingston, and Miss Melissa Martin, Mrs. Anna C. Hart, and Professor and Mrs. Paul Petri, relatives of the couple and members of Delta Omega sorority. Amid a shower of rice and congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Stearns left for a short trip. They will be at home to their friends after March 1, in Camas, Wash., where Mr. Stearns is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Stearns were graduated from the school of commerce at Oregon Agricultural college in 1924. While in college Mrs. Stearns was a member of the varsity debate team, and was the women's forensic manager. She is a member of Phi Chi Theta and Zeta Kappa Psi honorary fraternities.

Artist With Palette Claims Artist In Pleasing Palate

RALPH BARTON, artist and caricaturist, famous for his magazine covers, sketches and for his work on the Chauve Souris curtains, has a strong sense of the ludicrous. One of his chief delights is to bring in Mary, his cook, to serve her own preparations at his studio suppers, for as Mary towers "a foot or two" above his head, according to Mr. Barton, the effect is somewhat theatrical. Mr. Barton further asserts that Mary is far above any other culinary artist of color when it comes to an appeal to the palate. Her Butter Scotch Rice, made over the electric stove, is unforgettable. For artistic effect and for its property in helping to digest the other ingredients, she adds gelatine. This is Mary's recipe: Wash one-third cup rice and cook until nearly tender in a double boiler with two cups of milk, scalded, and one-fourth teaspoonful salt. Meanwhile cook together in a shallow pan one cup of brown sugar and two tablespoonfuls of butter until it gets very dark brown, but not burnt. Add to this the rice and milk and cook until the rice is tender, and the caramel melted. Soak two tablespoonfuls of gelatine in one-half cup of water until it is softened, and then dissolve it in one cup of hot milk. Strain into the cooked rice mixture and turn into a cold wet mold.

Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will hold stated communication at the regular hour this evening.

Among the most delightful affairs of the past month was the dance given at Derby hall, Friday evening, sponsored by the F. T. club, a music organization of Salem high school students. An attractive red color scheme was used in the hall. A clever feature dance was the outstanding event of the evening.

The guests were: Miss Caroline Hrubetz, Miss Lola Bellinger, Miss Ada Rose, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Miss Frances Hrubetz, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, advisor, Miss Velma Simpkins, Miss Froyel Hill, Miss Virginia Donnell, Miss Dorothy Robinette, Miss Jean Shipp, Miss Caroline Lambirth, Miss Prudence Painter, Miss Alpha Holcomb, Miss Echo DeSart, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Wanda Heberly, Miss Mildred Gilbert, Miss Rosalie Jones, Miss Gwendolyn Harris, Miss Jennie Hoppes, Miss Lois Moorhead, Miss Hazel Martin, Miss Irene Larson, Collis Marsters, John Propp, Paul Ehmer, Eddie Burnside, Jack Spong, William Verlick, Garland Simpson, Gene Parmentier, Cecil Edwards, Marvin Headrick, Howard Kurtz, Vernon Perry, Lorrans Simpkins, Kenneth Allen, William Gwynn, Edward Fisher, Merrill Ash, Ivan White, Paul Girod, Louis Girod, Joe Davis, Wayne Harris, Kenneth Rich and Daryl Myers.

The Rapheterian club will meet on Thursday with Mrs. John Evans.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon with Mrs. Miles McKee in the Emerson room at the church.

The music section of the Salem Arts' league will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites, 1156 Court street, for the regular study.

ANOTHER EDISON TONE TEST

Song Recital by

Betsy Lane Shepherd

This is a golden opportunity for Salem to hear the eminent soprano. Assisting her will be Jacques Glockner, cellist.

Miss Shepherd's appearance here makes it possible to perform an interesting musical experiment. In some of the numbers, the famous artist will compare her voice with its Re-Creation by Mr. Edison's new phonograph.

Wednesday, March 4

AT 8:15 P. M.

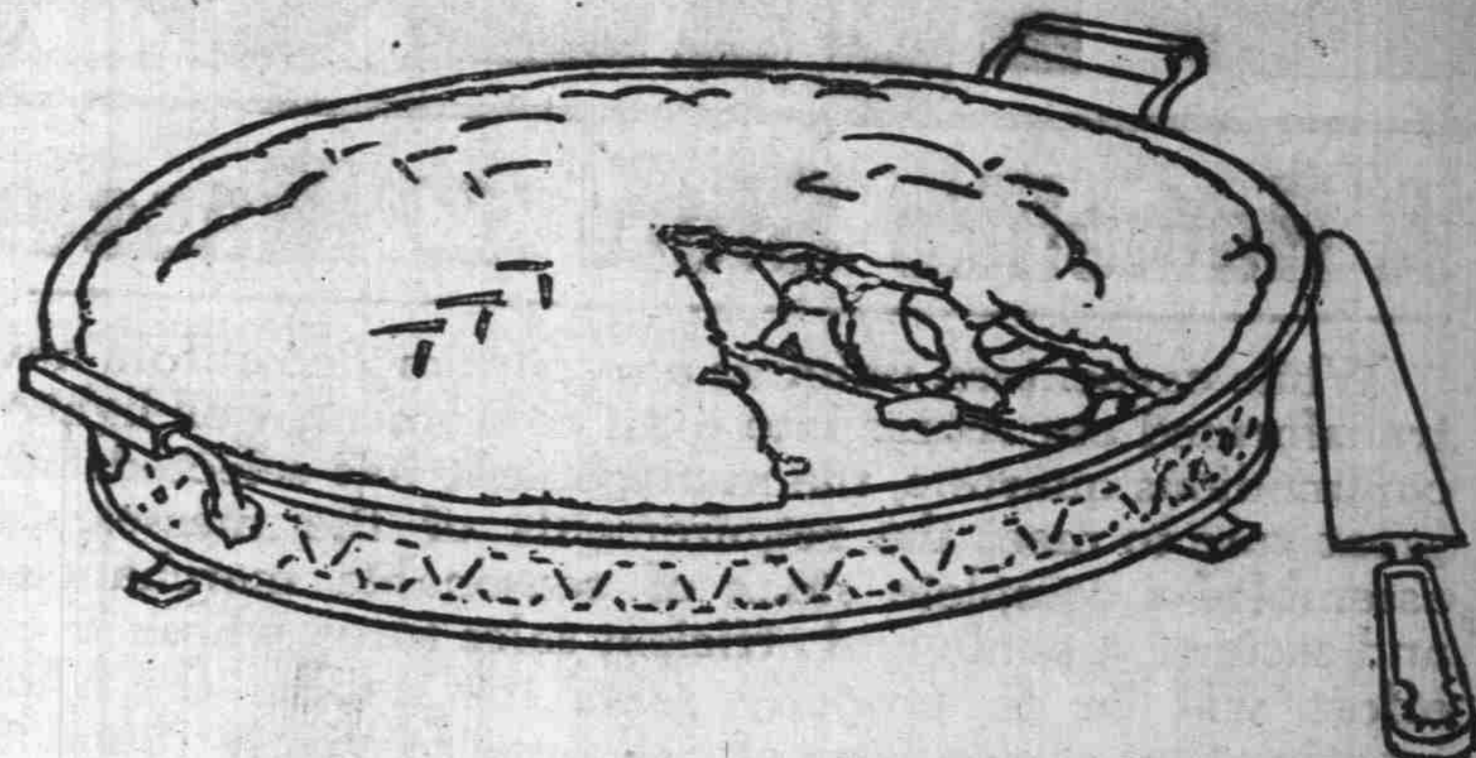

GRAND THEATRE

A number of complimentary tickets are available for this special concert. Call, write, or telephone for them, at once. They will be issued in the order of application as long as they last.

Pie crust made with Snowdrift is wholesome, tender, and flaky. It is so good to eat that sceptics who can't eat pie crust ask for a second piece. Try Snowdrift in your own recipe or in this recipe by Kate Brew Vaughn.

1 1/2 Cupfuls Flour

1/2 Cupful Snowdrift

Ice water sufficient to make a dough

1/2 Teaspoonful Salt

ALL MEASUREMENTS ARE LEVEL

PIE CRUST—Cut the Snowdrift into the flour with silver knives and add ice water to make a dough. Roll the dough out on a board. Dot over with Snowdrift, fold several times, and roll out again. Line pans and cover with the dough. Crust for pie should be about a quarter inch thick and rolled larger than pans to allow for shrinkage. Perforate top crust to allow steam to escape.

Germaine Schnitzer, the fourth Civic Music club attraction of the season, is scheduled for Monday, March 20, at the Grand theater. Miss Schnitzer has a repertoire that grows in interest from season to season and she is bound to be an "unqualified delight to music lovers of every station."

Mrs. William H. Burghardt, who left for Portland yesterday, is leaving today for New York City preparatory to sailing for Paris where she will spend the next months.

An urgent business meeting of the Salem War Mothers will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Miss Dorothy Livesley, was a guest over the week-end of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. Livesley on Friday night motored to Portland to see Pavlova at the Municipal Auditorium.

A meeting of the executive committee of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Chamber of Commerce.

Professor and Mrs. Horace Williston motored to Corvallis on Saturday evening to see "The Taming of the Shrew" by the Moroni-Olsen players.

The members of the Fairmount Hill club and their husbands will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Lester Laws.

The Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs. George W. Hug, 1249 South Commercial St.

The members will sew on linen for the chapter house at Corvallis.

An enjoyable evening was occasioned by the banquet Saturday night of Victor Point given by the members of the Victor Point Sunday school, the proceeds going toward a fund for the buying of a piano for the school. Covers were placed at one large table placed across one end of the room, with four smaller tables facing it. The color scheme of the evening was yellow and green. A large basket of yellow, artificial flowers hung over each table. From the basket yellow and green streamers were fastened to either end of the table. Miniature pianos served as place-cards. Oregon grape was used with the streamers about the walls. A very interesting address was given by Mr. Starrett who took the place of Governor Pierce who was unable to be present. Miss Vivian Whistler of Salem sang three beautiful solos with Mr. Carl Wenger accompanying her on the piano. The two violin solos by Miss Frances Coberly were similarly enjoyed.

Mrs. Rex Sanford and Mrs. James Olinger will be hostesses at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon for the members of St. Paul's Guild at the Sanford home, 346 N. 13th street.

A meeting of the Past Matrons' association being unusually pleasant was held on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Godfrey, with Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, on account of Mrs. Lottie Smith's illness, taking the chair of president. Cordelia Cupper acted as secretary. In addition to the members the following visiting matrons were present: Mrs. Wilma Orr, Mrs. Tina Wholnick, and Mrs. Rose Pratt.

After the regular business of the association, Mrs. McCall delighted the members and guests by giving one of her original poems, "Where Does the East Begin." Late in the evening the hostesses served delicious refreshments assisted by Cordelia Cupper, Miss Minnie Moeller and Mrs. Frank Shafer.

For the March meeting of the group at Mrs. Godfrey's home the hostesses will be: Jessie La Fore, Marian Derby, and Lottie Smith.

The Central circle of the Jason Lee aid society will meet tomorrow for an all day meeting at the church. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at noon and the regular business meeting held at 2:30 o'clock. A report will be given from the cooked food sale on Saturday and plans made for the chicken pie supper on March 17.

Honoring Miss Esther Ledtke and Miss Myrtle Chambers, long distance operators at the local telephone office who have received new appointments in Portland, the members of the department were hostesses last week at a farewell luncheon at the Spa. During the evening Miss Edith McFarland tendered the regrets of the group that two such esteemed employees were leaving, adding generous wishes for their success in the new work. Joaquins centered the table where covers were placed for: Nina Minton, Jessie Faught, Selma Bartoz, Daisy Hayden, Frances Bohan, Ruth Hagedorn, Edith Claxton, Laura Jorgensen, Berta Chittle, Edith McFarland, Alice De Sart, Eleanor Boyle, and the guests of honor, Miss Esther Ledtke and Miss Myrtle Chambers.

Hofer, who are returning by motor from New York arrived in Oakland Saturday night and are expected home the latter part of the week. Mrs. E. Hofer will accompany them at that time.

The Modern Writers' club will meet this evening at the home of Miss Renska Swart, 738 N. Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Chifford made up a party spending the week-end at Neskowin and Devil's Lake.

Edith Pierce and Nellie Rowland of Salem took part in the recent program of interpretative dances given by 25 girls in the Woman's building of the University of Oregon. These girls are members of Orchesus, the advanced dancing organization that sponsored the program.

The dances were given for the benefit of the Orchesus scholarship fund. The society, which is one of a number of similar groups in other universities, sends each year one Oregon student to the University of Wisconsin for a summer of study in interpretative dancing. Last year the scholarship was won by Neva Service of Baker, Ore.

Chapter G of the PEO sisterhood will hold election of officers on Thursday at the home of Mrs. O. E. Price, 444 North Cottage street.

Announcement was made at Corvallis at the Acacia fraternity home, of the engagement of Miss Harriet Coburn of Dayton to Mr. George Hessler of Dayton, a junior in commerce at the college. Miss Coburn is a student at the Linfield college and is a member of the Zeta Chi sorority. Mr. Hessler is a member of Acadia, Masonic fraternity.

Miss Marian Wyman will be the guest of honor this afternoon when the ladies of the First Congregational church entertain for her with a farewell tea at the home of Mrs. W. I. Staley, 271 North Summer street.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drugstore, the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wynth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking little small strands at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though so disgraceful, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wynth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.—Ad.
