Fire Alarm Sounded—A fire alarm sounded from The Spa brought two units of the Salem fire department to the establishment yesterday afternoon to put out a small blaze that had started in the ventilator. An overheated bearing in an electric motor caused the fire to break out. It was stated that the blaze was controlled before the fire department arrived, but a chemical hose and the use of an axe was necessary to prevent the spread of the fire in the kitchen. The damage was slight and the fire resulted in an inconvenience to patrons for a few moments.

Whites' Have Accident—Four Salem people, Brigadier-General and Mrs. George A. White and Major and Mrs. Alexander W. Cleary were aboard both wrecks of limited trains on the Soo line. A narrow escape from death was made when the Portland express hit the ditch from an open switch west of Minneapolis. They managed to reach St. Paul where they boarded the crack St. Paul-Chicago train which piled up two hours later, the engine and train leaving the track and coming to rest against an embankment. A split rail caused the second accident. Mrs. Cleary suffered from minor injuries and bruises but the remainder of the party were none the worse for their shaking up.

Marion County Leads—Of 495 boys and girls enrolled for work in the Marion county boys and girls club work 428 or more than 86 per cent completed the work, thus giving Marion county a high rating in efficiency reports of club work in the state, according to H. C. Seymour, state club leader. Forty-three clubs had 100 per cent records in efficiency, each member having completed and made a report of the required work and placed product on display. Canning and cooking and sewing clubs were most popular with the girls, while boys went in more for pig, dairy, calf and sheep clubs. The corn, garden and poultry clubs secured attention of both girls and boys. A total valuation of $15,959.59 was the estimated value of all products of which it is estimated a profit of $6827.13 was secured by the club members.

represented in the payment. This brings the total advance up to 3 3/4 cents per pound, amounting to $384,422.31, not including $17,293.49 advanced on petites. Shipments are going out rapidly at the present time and it is anticipated another payment will be forthcoming shortly as returns from shipments come in.

Officials to Visit—Oscar M. Vorhees of New York city, representing the Phi Beta Kappa, is to be on the Willamette university campus Monday. At present he is in Corvallis and will be in Salem for a few hours on the first of the coming week. At present there is no chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa on the local campus, but steps are under way to secure the establishment of one.

Contagious Disease Reported—One case of whooping cough was reported to the city health office yesterday. During the past fortnight contagious diseases have not been very numerous.

High Schools Study Methods—Salem high school is making one of the strongest bids in the Northwest to maintain the annual publication trophy which has been in their possession during the past two years. Much executive ability and money is being spent upon the publication and from all indications it is to be a success. The viewpoints of the students in the high schools are changing from the contacts with other schools. Even the smaller institutions near Salem are endeavoring to put out an annual, even when the student-body number about 10 students in the senior class. The high schools of Amity, Rickreall and others are putting out annual publications.

Kiwanians Visit Tillamook—Fred Erixon and E. Cooke Patton attended the Tillamook jubilee for the third anniversary charter night for the organization of the Kiwanis club there, last night. Delegates from Kiwanis clubs from all parts of the Willamette valley were in attendance. It is estimated that over 200 delegates were on hand for the celebration.

Many Sheep Killed—Over 100 sheep have been killed by dogs in this county during February, County Judge J. T. Hunt announced yesterday. During the month of January 53 were killed.
